

Station KTVQ Billings, Montana
Quarterly Listing of Problems/Needs
January 1, 2017-March 31, 2017
Programming in Response

TITLE	TYPE	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	DATE AIRED	TIME AIRED	LENGTH
----	----	-----	-----	-----	-----
MTM	PA	Samantha Harrleson is hosting Mary Beth Shay from HRDC. Mary Beth will be accepting volunteers to help people do their taxes in the community for free if they made less than $54000 in 2016. There are no qualifications needed to volunteer. There will be a slight delay in getting refunds because of the fraud that happened last year, so SSNs will be checked thoroughly. Walk in by appointment 247-4710 Jan-April 5 Wednesday 12-8pm Thursdays 12-8pm Fridays 12-6pm Sat 1130-530pm Feb 7 -April 11 Tuesdays 9-11am 655-3500	1/12/2017	6:15am	2min
	PA	Governor Steve Bullock's State of the State Address was live streamed on www.ktvq.com. It was also reported on during the subsequent newscasts. The Governor talked about his proposed budget that includes an investment of more than $290 million dollars for Montana's infrastructure. He also talked about his plan to balance the state's budget.	1/25/2017	2:37pm
	PA	Gary Buchanan Billings investor was interviewed about the Dow Jones Industrial Average closing over 20,000 for the first time in history. He explained it is an indicator of a strong economy. He also talked about President Trump's executive order that will pave the way for the construction of the Keystone XL pipeline and how this construction project will boost the Montana economy.	1/25/2017	1:17pm
MTM	PA	Victoria Hill is hosting Chad Lippert from DA Davidson. The Dow closed at up 7 points and the NASDAQ was down just a little. Trump talking about the tax reform and Obama care made that happen. Also Amazon came out with a new patent, they will be delivering packages by parachutes. John Deere will be announcing profits today.	2/17/2017	6:15am	2.5min

MM PA	Diane Parker is hosting Ryan Braley PHR Director of Human Resources & Risk Management at Avitus. They are talking about the Overtime Hold Rule. It is designed to double salaries for employees. It is on preliminary hold due to law suits. There is a Q& A form on Avitus Face book page.	2/24/2017	12:26 PM 4min
MTM PA	Victoria Hill is hosting Chad Lippert for DA Davidison. The dow closed 15 points down. Healthcare stocks are down due to significant cuts. The Fed Reserve Bank is raising the Prime Rate a quarter of a point. Opening flat today.	3/17/2017 6:30am	2.5min
MTM PA	Victoria Hill is hosting Todd Preston from DA Davidison. He is talking about the stock market and how the vote for Healthcare and Trumps administration is going to affect the the market. The unemployment rate is up slightly and PMI index is out. The Federal Reserve rate raised interest rates but it only affected credit cards. New houses sales are up.	3/24/2017 6:28am	2min

Station KTVQ Billings, Montana
Quarterly Listing of Problems/Needs
January 1, 2017-March 31, 2017
Programming in Response

TITLE	TYPE	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	DATE AIRED	TIME AIRED	LENGTH
----	----	-----	-----	-----	-----
MTM	PA	Samantha Harrelson is hosting Erika Willis and Georgia Cady from Tumbleweed. They are talking about programs at Tumbleweed that will help our community's youth and human trafficking. There will be a community conversation at Tumbleweed on Jan 31, 2017 from 1-3pm at 505 N. 24th	1/18/2017	6:24am	2min
MM	PA	Diane Parker is hosting Jennifer Mercer the executive director of the Billings Depot. It is a non profit that preserves historic Billings. It is a place for celebration for our community. They are having the Taste of Billings Feb 3-4th and are in need of 120 volunteers. They are always in need of sponsors like Avitus Group and Cloud Peak Energy. Call the depot 406-656-7273 or www.billingsdepot.org	1/25/2017	12:26	4min
MM	PA	Diane Parker is hosting Molly Schwend public affairs and community relations manager at Cloud Peak Energy and Jennifer Merce from Billings Depot. Both companies are partnering up to help restore the historic buildings in Billings and create memories. Events all year long weddings, fundraisers. www.cloudpeakenergy.com www.billingsdepot.org	1/27/2017	12:26pm	4min
	PA	Aja Goare reported on the challenges facing the homeless population during the winter in Billings. She interviewed Gordon Harris, age 61, who lives in a cave in the Rimrocks about how he survives freezing temperatures. She also talked to Pastor Glenn Fournier from the Montana Rescue Mission about the Rescue Mission's efforts to get the homeless in out of the cold. Aja was able to ride along one very cold night to show viewers the homeless on our streets and the efforts made to help them during the winter.	2/2/2017	3:55
MM	PA	Diane Parker is hosting Steve Bentley the Senior Vice President of Avitus Group. They are discussing the New Community Segment on Montana Matters. The public can nominate a non profit organization to be aired on Montana Matters for local and statewide awareness and recognition. To nominate go to www.avitusgroup.com	2/6/2017	12:36pm	4 min

- | | | | | |
|--------|---|-----------|---------|------|
| MTM PA | Victoria Hill is hosting Vicki-Lynn Tepstra and Sara Redeen from the American Cancer Society. They are talking about the kick off event for the Relay for Life. It is at the Pub Station on Feb 9th from 5pm to 9pm. Sign up your relay team or find out more about the event. | 2/8/2017 | 6:27am | 2min |
| MM PA | Diane Parker is hosting Ben McKee the CASA Recruitment coordinator. The topic is CASA a non profit organization. CASA stands for court appointed special advocates. Volunteers work with abused and neglected children helping them with medical, education and safety needs. Volunteers must be 21 yrs old, need to put in 5-15 hours a month for 18-to 24 months during a case and have a passion for helping kids. www.yellowstonecasa.org 406-259-1233. There will be information sessions held Feb 16th, March 9th, and March 16th. The next new advocate training class is March 28th. | 2/9/2017 | 12:36pm | 4min |
| MM PA | Diane Parker is hosting Dave Evans Coordinator of Eastern Montana Hope Project. Children with life changing illnesses get wishes granted and get a week to do whatever they want with their family. Volunteers are needed to come up with fundraising ideas. Each child gets a teddy bear $1000 and if they have a sibling they get $100. For more information call 406-672-6585 or go to www.montanahopeproject.org . | 2/20/2017 | 12:36pm | 4min |
| MTM PA | Victoria Hill is hosting Alex Tyson from Visit Billings. Visit Billings hosts events in Billings, MT that will help boost the city's economy. Naia Women's Basketball Tournament will be held at the Rimrock Auto Arena March 15th- 21st. 32 teams, 31 games tickets start at $8 visit metrapark.com | 3/8/2017 | 6:24am | 3min |

Station KTVQ Billings, Montana
Quarterly Listing of Problems/Needs
January 1, 2017-March 31, 2017
Programming in Response

TITLE	TYPE	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	DATE AIRED	TIME AIRED	LENGTH
----	----	-----	-----	-----	-----
MTM	PA	Victoria Hill and Ed McIntosh are hosting Jeff Ewelt from Zoo MT. He has brought in an Eastern Screech Owl and a possum. They are discussing how owl do great in the very cold winters due to their feathers and when you see an owl puffed up they are staying warm. Possums have good fur but their tails , ears and paws often get frostbite in the winter.	1/4/2017	6:25am	2min
MTM	PA	Ag & Weather together . Russel Nemetz is hosting Mile Killen with Coors Distributing. They are talking about the Malt Barley and Sugar Beet symposium being held on 1/10-11. They will have guest speakers both days. It is held every other year by MSU. Walk up registration $50 for both days.	1/5/2017	12:25pm	2min
	PA	Congressman Ryan Zinke's confirmation hearing in front of the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources was live steamed on www.ktvq.com. News reports followed in the 5:30 and 10:00 Newscasts. Congressman Zinke was grilled about climate change, Native American issues and keeping federal in federal hands. He was also asked about sexual harassment among workers in national parks and dollars needed to maintain the parks. Zinke explained his top priorities for the Secretary of the Interior position are restoring trust with the states, dealing with the backlog of national park maintenance and making sure the top professionals in the agency have the resources needed to perform their duties. Craig Boswell CBS News reported from Washington on the hearing and the and the favorable outlook for for Zinke's confirmation.	1/17/2017
	PA	Q2 News reported on the 5:30 and 10:00 News about the restoration plan for the Yellowstone River following an oil spill in 2011. Millions of dollars of restoration projects will begin with the next few years This is in response to the oil spill of 63,000 gallons of crude into the Yellowstone River before it could be stopped. ExxonMobil has agreed to pay $12 million dollars in damages to help restore the river.	1/26/2017
MTM	PA	Ed McIntosh and Bob McGuire did multiple reports on severe winters storms in our viewing area. They warned	1/31/2017 people to stay safe and be careful on the roads and highways as well as telling them the snow totals and high wind warnings.

Station KTVQ Billings, Montana
 Quarterly Listing of Problems/Needs
 January 1, 2017-March 31, 2017
 Programming in Response

TITLE	TYPE	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	DATE AIRED	TIME AIRED	LENGTH
----	----	-----	-----	-----	-----
MTM	PA	A Better You! Joey Traywick is hosting Hunter Keller and Ann Hindley. A group study was held with 2 different groups of people doing cardiac rehab. One group went to regular rehab the other group went to a square dance group. After a year the square dancing group still had 100% attendance. So Hunter is a caller for square dancing and Ann is a square dancer. The two are now having square dancing on Thursday nights starting 1/12/2017 at the Cedar Hall at Metra Park 1st and 2nd sessions are free. More info go to squaredancemt.com	1/5/2017	6:27am	3min
MTM	PA	Victoria Hill is hosting Dr. Erica Bruen from St. Vincent's Healthcare they are talking about a New Year Resolution list. 1) Get a primary care physician and get a physical. 2) weight loss - don't be hard on yourself. 3) exercise more. 4) eat healthier. 5) quit smoking and drinking	1/11/2017	6:26am	3min
MTM	PA	Samantha Harrleson is hosting Karen Sanford Gall with the Big Sky State Games. They are talking about the 15th annual Shape Up Montana. Teams can enter at $16 a person get a T-shirt. Families can be teams. Medals will be awarded at the end. It runs from Feb 1- April 1 2017. for more information go shapeupmontana.org	1/16/2017	6:27am	2min
	PA	Republican US Senator Steve Daines and Democratic US Senator Jon Tester were interviewed about the repeal of the Affordable Care Act and the simultaneous replacement of new health care reform laws. They talked about keeping those portions of the act that are working such as children staying on their parents plan until age 26, however they did not have details of what will replace the ACA. They did talk about how the repeal could affect Montanans and the need for affordable health care in our state and rural hospitals.	1/26/2017
MTM	PA	Ag & Weather together. Ed McIntosh and Russel Nemetiz are hosting Chief Director of Memsa, Donny Morton. Montana Emergency Medical Services Association is run by volunteers. Memsa umbrella's and gives continuing education and refresher conferences	2/17/2017	6:24am	3min for all volunteers through the nation. The next conference will be in Helena at the Radisson Hotel/Colonial Inn Feb 23,24,25,26. For more information memsa-vitals.orgspife.one@gmail.com

- | | | | |
|--------|--|------------------|------|
| MTM PA | Victoria Hill is hosting Dr. Erica Bruen from St Vincent's Healthcare. They are talking about colon cancer. It is the 2nd leading cause of death in men and women. Great ways to prevent it! Everyone needs to be checked by age 50. If you have a 1st degree family member who has been diagnosed with it then you have to be screened 10 years before the age of that family member was diagnosed if you have inflammatory diseases, low fiber diet, smoke or drink alcohol. | 3/16/2017 6:24am | 3min |
| MTM PA | Victoria Hill is hosting Laurie Gagon from Right at Home. It is National Nutrition month and they are discussing the nutrition needs of seniors. They require sodium, potassium, vitamin d & c but need less calories. Also when going to the grocery store only walk the perimeter of the store that is where all of the lean proteins and fruits and veggies are located. | 3/23/2017 6:26am | 2min |

Station KTVQ Billings, Montana
Quarterly Listing of Problems/Needs
January 1, 2017-March 31, 2017
Programming in Response

TITLE	TYPE	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	DATE AIRED	TIME AIRED	LENGTH
----	----	-----	-----	-----	-----
MTM	PA	Ed McIntosh and Victoria Hill are hosting Craig Beals a science teacher for Senior High School and one of Craig's former students Quin Miller. They are experimenting with high voltage electricity.	1/9/2017	6:24am	3min
	PA	Montana's new State Superintendent of schools Republican Elsie Arntzen alleged that her democratic predecessor knowing submitted misleading student test results. Her predecessor Denise Juneau reported that all Montana high school juniors that took the ACT test last year were proficient although the test does not have approved measures for proficiency. She also talked about discontinuing the Graduation Matters program in the state and a possible replacement program.	1/20/2017	1:10pm
MTM	PA	Jennifer Fick reported on 3 schools and the special projects they are undertaking. Castle Rock Middle School is creating a Sensory library to help students with emotional and behavioral needs. Medicine Crow School will purchase a Optic Strapless Heart Rate System that will help students monitor their physical fitness levels. And Sleeping Giant Middle School in Livingston MT wants to purchase a drone to map the Yellowstone River and the Changes river flow changes that take place over the course of a year. Viewers will vote on the projects and the winner will receive $2,000, 2nd place $1,000 and 3rd place $500.	1/30/2017	1/30/2017
MTM	PA	Victoria Hill is hosting Melissa from Washing Elementary School. They are talking about Project Lead the Way and STEM. STEM stands for Science, Technology, Engineering, Math. Project Lead the Way is the provider for STEM. To learn more about come today to the Billings Career Center Library at 4:30 pm or Thursday 7:30 - 8:45 pm	3/22/2017	6:26am	3min