

STATION: WRVZ

SUBJECT: Jump Shots for Jackets

DISCUSSION: Fundraiser Basketball Game to Raise Money for Kids' Coats

DATE: September 2, 2023

TIME/DURATION: 20 minutes

GUEST: Leeshia Lee

MEDIA INTEREST: Community Service, Involvement, Awareness, and Raise Funds to support research.

YEAR: 2023

QUARTER: 3

Summary of Discussion:

In Quarter 3 of 2023, we were pleased to have Leeshia Lee as our guest for a 20-minute discussion about "Jump Shots for Jackets," a fundraiser basketball game aimed at raising money to provide coats for kids in need.

The discussion touched upon the following key points:

1. The Importance of Warmth: Leeshia Lee highlighted the significance of ensuring that all children in our community have access to warm winter coats. She discussed the challenges faced by families who struggle to provide winter clothing for their kids.
2. Fundraiser Basketball Game: "Jump Shots for Jackets" is a creative and engaging initiative that combines community service and sports. Leeshia Lee shared details about the game, which brings together local basketball enthusiasts to raise funds for this vital cause.
3. Community Involvement: The conversation emphasized the role of community involvement in making this fundraiser successful. Local businesses, organizations, and individuals have come together to support the event through sponsorship, donations, and participation.
4. Awareness and Support: Leeshia Lee discussed the awareness campaigns and community outreach efforts undertaken to ensure that families in need are aware of and can benefit from this initiative.
5. Research and Impact: The discussion also touched upon the importance of tracking the impact of the fundraiser, such as the number of coats provided to children, and how funds are utilized to support research into more effective ways of meeting the community's needs.

Conclusion:

At WRVZ, we are committed to addressing community issues and interests through meaningful discussions with local advocates like Leeshia Lee. "Jump Shots for Jackets" exemplifies the power of community service, involvement, awareness, and fundraising to support research-driven causes.

We remain dedicated to amplifying the voices of individuals and organizations working diligently to make a positive impact on our community. As we move forward, we will continue to engage with our community and encourage participation in initiatives that enhance the well-being of our neighbors, especially our children.

Thank you for your attention to our Quarterly Ascertainment/Community Issues Report for Quarter 3, 2023. If you require further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

STATION: WRVZ

SUBJECT: Secret Santa

DISCUSSION: Ensuring a Merry Christmas for Kids through Toy Donations

DATE: October 2, 2023

TIME/DURATION: 3 minutes

GUEST: Steve Bishop

MEDIA INTEREST: Community Service, Involvement, Awareness, and Raise Funds to support research.

YEAR: 2023

QUARTER: 3

Summary of Discussion:

In Quarter 3 of 2023, we were delighted to host Steve Bishop for a brief but heartwarming 3-minute discussion about the "Secret Santa" initiative aimed at ensuring that children across our city have a Merry Christmas through the distribution of toys.

The discussion highlighted the following key points:

1. Spreading Holiday Cheer: Steve Bishop passionately discussed the importance of spreading holiday cheer, especially to children who may not have access to toys during the Christmas season.
2. The Role of "Secret Santa": "Secret Santa" is a heartwarming and anonymous initiative where community members, local businesses, and organizations come together to donate toys and gifts to children in need. Mr. Bishop shared how this initiative has brought joy to countless families over the years.
3. Community Involvement: The conversation emphasized the critical role of community involvement in making "Secret Santa" a success. It showcased the generosity of our community members who donate toys and the dedication of volunteers who ensure that the gifts reach the right recipients.
4. Awareness and Support: Mr. Bishop discussed the awareness campaigns and fundraising efforts that make "Secret Santa" possible. The initiative relies on the support of individuals and businesses who contribute toys and funds.
5. Research and Impact: The discussion touched upon the importance of tracking the impact of the initiative, such as the number of children reached and the smiles brought to their faces during the holiday season.

Conclusion:

At WRVZ, we are committed to addressing community issues and interests through meaningful discussions with local advocates like Steve Bishop. "Secret Santa" is a heartwarming demonstration of the power of community service, involvement, awareness, and fundraising to support research-driven causes.

We remain dedicated to amplifying the voices of individuals and organizations working tirelessly to make a difference in the lives of our community members. As we approach the holiday season, we look forward to further discussions and initiatives that bring joy and warmth to our neighbors.

Thank you for your attention to our Quarterly Ascertainment/Community Issues Report for Quarter 3, 2023. If you have any inquiries or require additional information, please feel free to contact us.

STATION: WRVZ

SUBJECT: 211

DISCUSSION: 211

DATE: August 18, 2023

TIME/DURATION: 11 minutes

GUEST: Margaret O'Neal from United Way

MEDIA INTEREST: Community Service, Involvement, Awareness, and Raise Funds to support research.

YEAR: 2023

QUARTER: 3

Summary of Discussion:

In Quarter 3 of 2023, we were honored to have Margaret O'Neal, a representative from United Way, as our guest for an 11-minute discussion focused on the importance of 211, a critical community service.

The discussion delved into the following key aspects:

1. The Significance of 211: 211 is a vital resource that connects individuals and families to essential community services and support. Margaret O'Neal emphasized its role in providing assistance to those in need, particularly during times of crisis.
2. Community Involvement: The discussion highlighted the importance of community involvement in spreading awareness about the 211 service. United Way and its partners are actively engaged in educating the community about the services available through 211.
3. Awareness Campaigns: Margaret O'Neal discussed the awareness campaigns and initiatives undertaken to ensure that individuals in our community are aware of the 211 service. She stressed the importance of making this resource accessible to all.
4. Fundraising for Research: The conversation touched upon the role of fundraising in supporting research to improve and expand the services offered through 211. Donations and grants are crucial in maintaining the service's effectiveness.

Conclusion:

At WRVZ, we are committed to addressing community issues and interests through informative and meaningful discussions. The 211 service, as discussed with Margaret O'Neal from United Way, is a vital lifeline for individuals and families seeking assistance and support.

We understand the significance of community service, involvement, awareness, and fundraising to support research-driven causes, such as 211. Our station remains dedicated to playing a role in amplifying the importance of this critical service and encouraging community engagement.

Thank you for your attention to our Quarterly Ascertainment/Community Issues Report for Quarter 3, 2023. If you require further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

STATION: WRVZ

SUBJECT: Multifest

DISCUSSION: Multifest

DATE: July 25, 2023

TIME/DURATION: 10 minutes

GUEST: Tamra Eubanks

MEDIA INTEREST: Community Service, Involvement, Awareness, and Raise Funds to support research.

YEAR: 2023

QUARTER: 3

Summary of Discussion:

In Quarter 3 of 2023, we were honored to have Tamra Eubanks, a key figure behind Multifest, join us for a 10-minute discussion on this remarkable community event that celebrates diversity, culture, and unity.

Multifest, an annual cultural festival in our community, is a beacon of inclusivity and has been a cherished tradition for years. During our conversation with Ms. Eubanks, we delved into the essence and significance of Multifest.

The discussion highlighted the following key points:

1. Celebrating Diversity: Multifest serves as a platform to celebrate the rich tapestry of cultures that make up our community. It features a vibrant array of music, dance, art, and cuisine from around the world.
2. Promoting Inclusion: The festival actively promotes inclusion and unity, emphasizing that our community is stronger when we embrace our differences and foster a sense of belonging for everyone.
3. Community Service: Multifest engages in community service by supporting local businesses, artists, and vendors. It provides a platform for them to showcase their talents and offerings.
4. Awareness and Research: The event raises awareness about various global and local issues while also contributing to research and initiatives aimed at addressing community challenges.

During the discussion, Ms. Eubanks passionately emphasized the role of Multifest in creating a more interconnected and harmonious community. She also discussed the festival's dedication to supporting local charities and initiatives that align with its mission.

Conclusion:

At WRVZ, we are committed to addressing community issues and interests through meaningful discussions like the one we had with Tamra Eubanks about Multifest. This event exemplifies the power of community service, involvement, awareness, and fundraising to support research-driven causes.

As we move forward, we will continue to engage with our community and amplify the voices of individuals and organizations working tirelessly to make our community a better place. We look forward to showcasing and participating in events like Multifest that embody the spirit of unity and celebration of diversity.

Thank you for your attention to our Quarterly Ascertainment/Community Issues Report for Quarter 3, 2023. If you have any inquiries or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

STATION: WRVZ

SUBJECT: Kid Skate Park

DISCUSSION: Safety

DATE: August 28, 2023

TIME/DURATION: 5 minutes

GUEST: Matt Sutton

MEDIA INTEREST: Community Service, Involvement, Awareness, and Raise Funds to support research.

YEAR: 2023

QUARTER: 3

Summary of Discussion:

In Quarter 3 of 2023, we had the privilege of hosting Matt Sutton, a community advocate, for a 5-minute discussion focused on the safety concerns related to the Kid Skate Park, a beloved recreational facility in our community.

During this brief but important conversation, Mr. Sutton raised awareness about safety issues that have been reported at the Kid Skate Park. He emphasized the importance of addressing these concerns promptly to ensure that the park remains a safe and enjoyable space for children and families.

The discussion highlighted the critical need for ongoing community involvement in maintaining and improving the park's safety features. Mr. Sutton shared insights into recent incidents and near-miss situations, emphasizing the importance of adequate supervision and safety equipment for skaters.

Moreover, the conversation underscored the role of community service in organizing and participating in safety workshops, awareness campaigns, and fundraisers to support research and the implementation of safety measures at the Kid Skate Park.

Conclusion:

At WRVZ, our commitment to addressing community issues and interests is unwavering. The discussion with Matt Sutton shed light on safety concerns at the Kid Skate Park, a vital community asset. We believe that community service, involvement, and awareness are key to maintaining the safety and well-being of our young skaters.

As we continue to engage with our community, we remain dedicated to amplifying the voices of local advocates like Mr. Sutton. We aim to foster a sense of responsibility and collective action among our listeners to ensure the safety of our recreational facilities.

Thank you for your attention to our Quarterly Ascertainment/Community Issues Report for Quarter 3, 2023. Should you require additional information or have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

STATION: WRVZ

SUBJECT: Adult Field Day

DISCUSSION: Capital Cocktail Classic - A Fundraiser for the Arts

DATE: September 23, 2023

TIME/DURATION: 11 minutes

GUEST: Alex Mahaffey from the Fund for the Arts

MEDIA INTEREST: Community Service, Involvement, Awareness, and Raise Funds to support research.

YEAR: 2023

QUARTER: 3

Summary of Discussion:

In Quarter 3 of 2023, we had the pleasure of hosting Alex Mahaffey, a representative from the Fund for the Arts, to discuss the upcoming community event, the Capital Cocktail Classic. The purpose of this event is to raise funds to support local arts initiatives while promoting community engagement and awareness.

During the 11-minute discussion, Mr. Mahaffey provided valuable insights into the Capital Cocktail Classic, an Adult Field Day scheduled for Quarter 3 of 2023. This unique event combines entertaining and competitive games with the opportunity for participants to enjoy cocktails responsibly. Teams will engage in classic field day activities such as sack races, tug-of-war, and water balloon toss, all with a fun and competitive twist.

The discussion highlighted the importance of fundraisers like the Capital Cocktail Classic in supporting local artists, arts education programs, and cultural initiatives. Furthermore, it emphasized the positive impact such events have on community cohesion and the awareness of the arts' significance in our society.

Conclusion:

Our station, WRVZ, is committed to addressing community issues and interests through informative and engaging discussions with relevant stakeholders. The Capital Cocktail Classic, as discussed with Alex Mahaffey from the Fund for the Arts, exemplifies our dedication to promoting community service, involvement, awareness, and fundraising for important causes.

We believe that events like the Capital Cocktail Classic contribute significantly to our community's enrichment and well-being. We will continue to inform and engage our audience on these matters in future programming.

Thank you for your attention to our Quarterly Ascertainment/Community Issues Report for Quarter 3, 2023. If you require any additional information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

STATION: WRVZ

SUBJECT: Community Garden

DISCUSSION: Keep Your Faith Corporation

DATE: Aug 16, 2023

TIME/DURATION: 16 minutes

GUEST: Dural Miller

MEDIA INTEREST: Community Service, Involvement, Awareness, and Raise Funds to support research.

YEAR: 2023

QUARTER: 3

Summary of Discussion:

In Quarter 3 of 2023, we had the privilege of hosting Dural Miller, a representative from the Keep Your Faith Corporation, for a 16-minute discussion focused on the establishment and significance of a community garden.

During this enlightening discussion, Mr. Miller shared insights into the mission and objectives of the Keep Your Faith Corporation, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to community service, involvement, and awareness. A significant part of their mission involves establishing and maintaining community gardens as a means to address various community issues and promote civic engagement.

The discussion highlighted the importance of community gardens as platforms for community members to come together, grow fresh produce, and support local food security initiatives. Mr. Miller elaborated on the organization's efforts to educate the community on sustainable farming practices, nutrition, and the benefits of locally sourced, healthy food.

Additionally, the conversation addressed how community gardens can raise awareness about environmental sustainability, foster a sense of belonging, and provide opportunities for fundraising to support research and initiatives related to agriculture, food security, and community development.

Conclusion:

Our station, WRVZ, is committed to addressing community issues and interests by providing a platform for meaningful discussions with local stakeholders like Dural Miller from the Keep Your Faith Corporation. The discussion on community gardens highlighted the positive impact of such initiatives on community service, involvement, awareness, and fundraising for research-driven causes.

As we continue to prioritize community engagement, we look forward to further discussions and initiatives that contribute to the betterment of our local community. We are dedicated to keeping our listeners informed and inspired to participate in activities that enhance the quality of life in our area.

Thank you for your attention to our Quarterly Ascertainment/Community Issues Report for Quarter 3, 2022. If you require additional information or have any questions, please feel free to contact us.