

Issues-Programs List for April through June, 2019

From the News Department. All stories broadcast at 7:30 AM as well as other times.

1. CHANGE OF MISSION AT GRAND FORKS AIR FORCE BASE -- Base regains a flying mission. Reporter: Todd McDonald. Aired 6/28/19 Runs 3:05
2. PROMOTING EDUCATION, RESEARCH AND HUNTING -- UND partners with Game and Fish and Traill County to establish a new wildlife management area. Reporter: Matt Eidson. Aired 5/16/19. Runs 2:24
3. NEW ENGLAND FIGHTS TO KEEP ITS WOMEN'S PRISON -- Governor proposes closing it, and community leaders fight to keep it. Reporter: Todd McDonald. Aired 5-16-19. Runs 2:30
4. A CELEBRATION OF CULTURES -- West Fargo "Around the World" event. Reporter: Joshua Hinkemeyer. Aired 6/10/19. Runs 2:52)
5. OIL PRODUCTION RECOVERS -- After a cold February, oil production numbers are up again. Reporter: Dave Thompson. Aired 4/3/19. Runs 2:35.

From Main Street

306pm

15:30minutes

Tuesday, April 2, 2019 – FirstLink assists people to identify, access, and make effective use of community and volunteer resources. And while it's best known for the 211 hotline, it also provides other services. One example is an upcoming course on Mental Health First Aid. Here to discuss that opportunity, and to tell us more about FirstLink, is Ashley Ladbury Hrichena. ~~~

306pm

16:40minutes

Wednesday, April 10, 2019 – Robert Wilkie, the Veterans Affairs Secretary, joins us to discuss issues facing healthcare for the country's veterans.

340pm

8:30minutes

Tuesday, May 7, 2019 Director of radio Bill Thomas joins us to discuss the many Prairie Public podcasts, including a new addition titled "Breaking Barriers." It features excerpts from a Red River Rainbow Seniors' oral history project that collects LGBTQ stories from the northern plains. Today we'll hear an episode as of that podcast as Anita Bender shares part of her coming out story, including the consequences her Mennonite parents faced for supporting her.

306pm

14minutes

Wednesday, May 22, 2019 – Paul Starr is a Pulitzer Prize winner for general nonfiction, a professor of sociology and public affairs at Princeton, and cofounder of The American Prospect magazine. He joins us to discuss his latest book, “Entrenchment, Wealth, Power and the Constitution of Democratic Societies.” ~~~

306pm

14:30minutes

Tuesday, June 11, 2019 – The “Green Dot” safety program uses a bystander education approach to reduce interpersonal violence in the community. Here to discuss the strategies involved are Melanie Fierstine and Greg Lemke from the Rape and Abuse Crisis Center in Fargo. ~~~

306pm

20minutes

Wednesday, June 19, 2019 – “Stringing Rosaries: The History, the Unforgivable, and the Healing of Northern Plains American Indian Boarding School Survivors,” is the title of a new book by Denise Lajimordiere. Lajimordiere builds the book around the stories of sixteen survivors, while also taking a hopeful look toward a future filled with American Indian tradition, language, culture, and forgiveness.