Dying to be Famous: The Versace Murders'

The murder of internationally renowned fashion designer Gianni Versace on the steps of his oceanfront mansion in South Beach Miami dominated global headlines during the summer of 1997. The brazen murder crippled the glamorous South Beach community and triggered fear in the hearts of Americans. Versace's death was the last in a string of murders perpetrated by 27-year-old Andrew Cunanan. Twenty years later, baffling questions still remain. "20/20" reports.

Troubling Pattern

ABC News Chief Investigative Correspondent Brian Ross and the ABC News Investigative team reveal shocking video of two U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officers allegedly encouraging 16-year-old Cruz Velazquez Acevedo of Tijuana, Mexico, to drink from a bottle containing suspected contraband to prove he was not a drug smuggler, leading to a tragic outcome. He had claimed it was juice; it was actually a highly concentrated liquid solution of methamphetamine. The officers claim the young man "volunteered" to drink – with no encouragement – from one of the bottles, but the never-before-seen video suggests otherwise.

Involuntary Manslaughter

Can encouraging someone to take their life over text message get you 20 years in prison? Weeks after being found guilty of involuntary manslaughter for encouraging her boyfriend, Conrad Roy, to commit suicide, Michelle Carter's sentence will be revealed. Correspondent Deborah Roberts reports.

Friday, August 11, 2017

Self-Defense?

While the defendants claimed self-defense, today a jury unanimously found 33-year-old Molly Martens Corbett and her 67-year-old father, ex-FBI agent Tom Martens, guilty of second-degree murder in the killing of her husband, Irish-born Jason Corbett, two years ago at their home in North Carolina. "20/20" will air a special hour on the case with correspondent Linzie Janis.

Death of Dee Dee Jackson

“20/20” speaks with Tito Jackson and the next generation Jackson musical act 3T, Taryll, Taj and TJ Jackson, about the murder of his ex-wife and their mother, Dee Dee Jackson. In 1994, Dee Dee drowned at the home of Los Angeles businessman Don Bohana. Although initially ruled as a swimming accident, the Jacksons disagreed and filed a wrongful death suit against Bohana. Two years later, the manner of death was officially changed to homicide, and Bohana was ultimately convicted of Dee Dee’s murder. Bohana and his family are on a crusade to prove that he was wrongfully convicted. Correspondent Jim Avila reports.

Match Made In Hell

Mary Kay Beckman decided to give online dating a try, looking for a "healthy, loving relationship." Instead she found a psychopath who ended up trying to kill her. Beckman met Wade Ridley in September of 2010 and, within less than two weeks of dating, realized she didn't want to see Ridley anymore. Four months after the break up, Ridley hid in Beckman's garage and attacked her with a butcher knife and left her for dead. Ultimately, Ridley confessed to Beckman's brutal attack and was sentenced to up to 70 years in prison. Ridley killed himself in prison.

Home Invasion Horror

Katie McConnell and her two children, Liam and Zoe, had just returned from a playdate. After putting Zoe down for a nap, Katie walked into her son's room and saw a sight straight out of a horror movie – a masked gunman signaling her to keep quiet. Taylor Crisman and his accomplice, Chris Hill, wanted to rob a bank without ever stepping foot in it by forcing Katie's husband, Brian, a local bank manager, to do it for them. Brian went to the bank, emptied the vault and drove home with almost $200,000 in cash.

Lost in Snow

Two cousins, 11-year-old Papito Martinez and 9-year-old Jay Jay Rivera, from Newburgh, NY, went outside to build an epic snow fort. While working in freezing temperatures, a snowplow driver unknowingly dumped piles of heavy snow directly on top of the fort burying the boys alive. Martinez and Rivera had just enough air to breathe and just enough warmth to stay conscious and encourage one another not to give up. Realizing the boys were missing once their curfew passed, their families began an intensive campaign of door knocking and interviewing neighbors all while temperatures continued to drop. Newburgh police officer Brandon Rola was relentless in his search. 20/20 reports (OAD: 06/17/2017).

Truth and Lies: The Murder of Laci Peterson

Scott and Laci Peterson were college sweethearts in love. On December 24, 2002, Laci mysteriously vanished from their home in Modesto, California. Scott was arrested and sentenced to death in 2005 for the murders of his wife and unborn son. After Scott Peterson has spent 12 years on death row and as his legal team awaits answers to both an appeal and a legal petition alleging he was denied a fair trial, ABC presents a documentary on the murder of Laci Peterson featuring new reporting and interviews.
