Let It Fall: Los Angeles 1982-1992

This documentary takes a unique look at the city-wide violence that began April 29, 1992, when the verdict was announced in the Rodney King case. It delves beyond the conflict between law enforcement and the black community to look at tensions across Los Angeles as a whole; tracing the roots of the civil unrest to a decade before the 1992 uprising.

Kidnapped

In early March, Tennessee high school teacher Tad Cummins allegedly kidnapped his 15-year-old student Elizabeth Thomas from the small town of Columbia, leading law enforcement in a nationwide manhunt for 38 days. “20/20” speaks to those closest to Tad and Elizabeth who describe the relationship between the two and what they think led him to allegedly abduct her. ABC News correspondent Eva Pilgrim reports.

Person of Interest

He’s one of the most famous names in software—a name that’s emblazoned on many computer screens. John McAfee, who was named a “person of interest” by authorities in the murder of his neighbor in Belize, sits down with “20/20.”

Friday, May 19, 2017

Digital Addiction

Destructive dependence, extreme change of personality, isolation and physical signs during withdrawal are all common symptoms of substance abuse, but now some doctors and other experts say they are seeing some of these indicators in people who have severe attachment to their digital devices – calling it an addiction. For more than a year, “20/20” embedded with families across the country who say they have been plagued by this debilitating dependency, and documented through interviews and video diaries how, they say, excessive use of electronics is destroying their daily lives. Anchor Elizabeth Vargas reports.

Friday, May 26, 2017

The Searchers

It was a story that seemed to capture the world – U.S. Army veteran Allen Thomas reached out on social media for help finding his twins who disappeared from his life in Korea nearly half a century ago. His simple plea on Facebook: “My name is Allen Thomas and I am looking for my son and daughter... I have been searching for decades...” generated an immediate and overwhelming worldwide response. Yet after over one million shares, Thomas was no closer to solving the mystery of what happened to his son and daughter, born to his ex-wife. That is when “20/20” teamed up with investigative genealogist Pamela Slaton, to work with Thomas and his daughter Charlene on their emotional quest.

Divided

A night of underage drinking led to two lives forever changed and an Alabama town divided. Cameron Harrison was charged with first degree rape of Savannah, a 16-year-old classmate. Multiple witnesses claim Savannah was “very intoxicated” at the party and cell phone video shows four people carrying her upstairs. Other witnesses from the party tell a different story, saying that although Savannah had been drinking, she was coherent, laughing, walking and speaking. Savannah speaks exclusively to ABC News .

Friday, June 30, 2017

Road Rage

Just as it is estimated that a record number of Americans will travel this 4th of July weekend, according to AAA, “20/20” explores the nationwide crisis of road rage. Across the country, motorists are yelling, tailgating and fighting with one another over infractions of the driver code, often caught on amateur video. Correspondents Eva Pilgrim and Nick Watt report on these tense situations and how they can quickly become dangerous and even deadly.

Buried Alive

It was the eve of Thanksgiving in Newburgh, N.Y., when two cousins, 11-year-old Papito Martinez and 9-year-old Jay Rivera, went outside to build an epic snow fort. While working in freezing temperatures, a snowplow driver unknowingly dumped piles of heavy snow directly on top of the fort, burying the boys alive. Martinez and Rivera had just enough air to breathe and just enough warmth to stay conscious and encourage one another not to give up. In total the boys were buried for eight hours. Freezing, blue and taken to the hospital, Martinez and Rivera had good reason to give thanks on Thanksgiving, the day of their rescue.

20/20:

Kidnapped

It was a case that left the nation asking, how could this happen? In early March, Tennessee high school teacher Tad Cummins allegedly kidnapped his 15-year-old student Elizabeth Thomas from the small town of Columbia, leading law enforcement in a nationwide manhunt for 38 days. "20/20" speaks to those closest to Tad and Elizabeth who describe the relationship between the two and what they think led him to allegedly abduct her. ABC News correspondent Eva Pilgrim retraces their journey from Tennessee to a remote area in northern California investigating how these two were able to remain hidden when authorities across the country were searching for them. (OAD: 5/16/17)

20/20:

Person of Interest

Anti-virus titan turned international fugitive, John McAfee, who was named a "person of interest" by authorities in the murder of his neighbor in Belize, speaks to "20/20." In 2012, when Belize authorities tried to question McAfee about the death of American Greg Faull, he went underground and fled to Guatemala. ABC News Correspondent Matt Gutman has been reporting on this story from the beginning, first tracking McAfee down in Guatemala and then in Miami after he was deported to the United States. Over four years later, Gutman meets with McAfee at his home in Tennessee to discuss his tumultuous past and current life, including new allegations raised in the Showtime documentary 'Gringo,' which alleges he paid to have Faull murdered.

20/20:

Digital Addiction

Destructive dependence, extreme change of personality, isolation and physical signs during withdrawal are all common symptoms of substance abuse, but now some doctors and other experts say they are seeing some of these indicators in people who have severe attachment to their digital devices - calling it an addiction. For more than a year, "20/20" embedded with families across the country who say they have been plagued by this debilitating dependency, and documented through interviews and video diaries how, they say, excessive use of electronics is destroying their daily lives. Anchor Elizabeth Vargas reports. (OAD: 5/20/17)

20/20:

Birdman

20/20" speaks to the Canadian woman, Shelly Chartier, who almost ruined NBA star Chris "Birdman" Andersen's career and allegedly released nude photos of a young woman, as a result of her catfishing scheme. Chartier tells ABC News' Deborah Roberts what led her to start this scheme, how she feels towards her victims and what she is doing now after serving 12 months in prison.
