

KBYU-TV Issues/Programs List Q1 2024

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
6-Jan-2024	7:00 AM	30	Food Factory #112	This program addressed youth education by teaching children how food is made. In this episode, we learn how pureed buttercup soup, aerosol whipped cream, and lollipops are made.					X
10-Jan-2024	6:00 PM	30	The Wizard of Paws #104	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by featuring Derrick Campana building custom prosthetics and braces to help animals with disabilities achieve greater mobility. In this episode, Derrick heads to Colorado to build a prosthetic for Wesley, a two-year-old rescue dog born with a front limb deformity.	X
14-Jan-2024	10:00 AM	60	Come Follow Up #202402	This program addressed religious education through a discussion on the word of God, as taught in 1 Nephi 1-5 in the Book of Mormon.				X
16-Jan-2024	12:00 PM	30	Grace Notes #306	This program addressed arts and culture as well as religious education by looking at how religious music has affected various artists and people around them. Members of the Christian band Unspoken talk about their paths to Jesus Christ. Author Kierra Sheard-Kelly talks about how she taps into the peace of Christ by doing things His way.		X		X
18-Jan-2024	9:30 PM	30	Random Acts #502	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Random Acts team providing service to various individuals. In this episode, Cindy, who spreads her love by baking desserts for those in need of a pick-me-up, gets a kitchen remodel.						X
27-Jan-2024	1:30 PM	30	The Wizard of Paws #509	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by featuring Derrick Campana building custom prosthetics and braces to help animals with disabilities achieve greater mobility. In this episode, Derrick goes to Chicago, Illinois, to build a full-limb prosthesis for Birdie, a ten-year old dog.	X
30-Jan-2024	9:00 PM	30	Malory Towers #109	This program addressed youth education by showing teens at Malory Towers, a boarding school for young women, learning about kindness, honesty, and empathy as they navigate their formative years with guidance from family and mentors. In this episode when Sally goes missing, the first form rally to find their comrade.					X
2-Feb-2024	1:30 PM	30	Holly Hobbie #207	This program addressed family and parenting as well as youth education by showing a teen learning to deal with various life circumstances with support from her parents. In this episode, Piper's mom tells them that her new job will require the family to move to New Mexico. Piper begins to address her feelings about the situation.			X		X
6-Feb-2024	11:00 AM	60	BYU Devotional Address #202404	This program addressed religious education by sharing an uplifting and inspiring message from Jan Newman, Second Counselor in the Sunday School General Presidency of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, on "Magnifying Our Precious Gift of Time."				X
7-Feb-2024	6:30 PM	30	Random Acts #304	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Random Acts team providing service to help various individuals function well and enjoy life. The team collaborates in this episode to create an unforgettable experience for a young pianist who has lost a hand.						X
11-Feb-2024	6:00 PM	60	How I Got Here #202	This program addressed family and parenting by showing how a young adult's life is changed through exploring her heritage. Kaelyn and her grandfather travel to South Korea for her to learn about and develop appreciation for a land he left as a young man.		X
21-Feb-2024	7:00 PM	60	The Fixers #407	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Fixers team in Bangladesh helping turn a bus into a mobile classroom for pre-school children in Dhaka.						X

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
24-Feb-2024	7:00 AM	30	Food Factory #201	This program addressed youth education by teaching children how food is made. In this episode, we learn about how cabbage is pickled with salt, then fermented with garlic and hot pepper sauce to form kimchi. We also learn how salt is extracted, boiled, dried, and compressed to form Kosher salt.					X
26-Feb-2024	6:00 AM	60	Family Rules #307	This program addressed family and parenting by sharing ideas from parents and others on raising children. In this episode, the Ashbys discuss how they build a support system to prevent loneliness. The Knights share how they successfully maintain positive relationships in a blended family, and family therapist Tony Overbay gives four pillars of communication for handling tough conversations.			X
10-Mar-2024	9:30 AM	30	Music & the Spoken Word #202410	This program addressed arts and culture as well as religious education by featuring inspirational music performed by The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square and uplifting messages.		X		X
12-Mar-2024	11:00 AM	60	BYU Devotional Address #202407	This program addressed religious education by sharing an inspirational message by Steven J. Hafen on "Our Path to Lasting Personal Peace."				X
14-Mar-2024	6:00 PM	60	All-Round Champion #501	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by asking a teen athlete who excels in one field to teach the sport to teens who excel in other sports. The show encourages the athletes to support each other in the various competitions. In this episode, the athletes must learn to compete in a para track event.	X
23-Mar-2024	4:30 PM	30	The Wizard of Paws #202	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by featuring Derrick Campana building custom prosthetics and braces to help animals with disabilities achieve greater mobility. In this episode, Derrick makes a brace for a dwarf pony named Thunder, and he designs a mobility cart for a dog named Lacey.	X
26-Mar-2024	8:23 PM	60	Ruby and the Well #201	This program addressed community and civic engagement by featuring a teenager who is aware of the wishes of townspeople and works to help them meet their desires. In this episode, Ruby works to grant a wish for an enemy of the town. The program also addressed family and parenting by showing how Ruby's dad gently guides in her work with wisdom.			X			X