

QUARTERLY ISSUES FOR KXRZ-FM

2nd Quarter 2023

“ONE ON ONE PROGRAM” with News Director Mark Anthony

10 Minutes Sundays at 10:20 am; Mondays at 9:40 am

- April 1-3 On this week’s One on One we visited with Sophia Watt from Horizon Public Health about the dangers of vaping.
- April 8-10 We talked with Carol Meyer about the Junior Achievement Program which educates young people from grades K-12 about money, saving and giving to others.
- April 15-17 Our One on One interview this week was with Kim Walker and Cindi Nelson about Business Network International that helps businesses grow in the area.
- April 22-24 On this week’s One on One we visited with John Driscoll from the Runestone Museum about his efforts to educate young people with his living history as “Jacques the Voyageur.”
- April 29-May 1 Maureen Eigen and Holly Witt stopped by to talk about the upcoming National Day of Pray event on May 4th and its history.
- May 6-8 Mitch Lawler of the DNR joined us to discuss the upcoming fishing opener and career opportunities with the DNR.
- May 13-15 Kaci Johnson of the Legacy of the Lakes Museum dropped by to talk about the museum’s opening day and the programs and education opportunities available through the museum.
- May 20-22 Former Echo Press reporter Jessica Sly visited with us about her new book that deals with the history of Minnesota.
- May 27-29 Fritz Bukowski from Community Education joined us to discuss Family Fun Night on June 9th that is free for the entire family.
- June 3-5 Alex Letvin from the Glenwood Fishery, and Steve Henry from the Douglas County Lakes Association joined us to discuss lake levels and stocking our lakes in the area to attract anglers to benefit our local economy.
- June 10-12 Rick Schara of West Central Initiative discussed the ways they are working to improve the economic conditions in western Minnesota, and ways to keep our young people living and working here.
- June 17-19 On this week’s One on One we visited with Brittany Johnson from the Douglas County Historical Society about what a historical society is and what they do to preserve history.
- June 24-26 On this week’s One on One we chatted with Bob Baas and Stan Hagen from the Vintage Car Club about the area vintage car club and trying to get young people interested in classic cars and their history.