FEBRUARY 1 – FEBRUARY 28, 2009

Airdate: February 27, 2009

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: BUDGET AND MEDICARE

Synopsis: Medicare costs vary wildly across the country, according to a study that found the government paying twice as much for treating a patient in Miami as in San Francisco. The dramatic cost differences don't appear connected to climate or to who lives where, and people in the more expensive areas don't get better care. More expensive medical technology is only part of the picture, according to the report released Wednesday by the Dartmouth Atlas Project, which studies medical resources.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: FIRST TIME HOME BUYERS

Synopsis: The most optimistic outlook is for a spring revival as home prices plummet. Government officials, hoping to spur demand, on Wednesday rolled out the details of a new $8,000 tax credit for first-time buyers. About 40 percent of all home sales last year were from first-time buyers. Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner said the tax credit should help provide an "immediate response to the current crisis." The government response may help, but many consumers are still in wait-and-see mode.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: IMMIGRANT CASE BEFORE SUPREME COURT

Synopsis: Ignacio Carlos Flores-Figueroa, an undocumented worker from Mexico, made a curious and undeniably bad decision. After working under an assumed name for six years, he decided to use his real name and exchanged one set of phony identification numbers for another. The change made his employer suspicious and the authorities were called in. The old numbers were made up, but the new ones he bought happened to belong to real people. Federal prosecutors said that was enough to label Flores-Figueroa an identity thief. The Supreme Court will hear arguments on prosecutors' aggressive use of a new law that was intended to strengthen efforts to combat identity theft. In at least hundreds of cases last year, workers accused of immigration violations found themselves facing the more serious identity theft charge as well, without any indication they knew their counterfeit Social Security and other identification numbers belonged to actual people and were not made up.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: WASHINGTON RAID

Synopsis: Immigration agents this week conducted their first work-site raid since President Barack Obama took office, but it was news to their boss, Homeland Security Secretary Janet Napolitano, who ordered a review of the action. Workplace raids involving the arrests of hundreds of illegal immigrants at a time became almost routine in the last years of the Bush administration, but Napolitano's response to Tuesday's raid at a Bellingham, Wash., manufacturing plant highlighted the Obama administration's much different approach to a hot-button issue.

Airdate: February 28, 2009

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: BORDER TECHNOLOGY

Synopsis: Crossing the border is going high-tech. Starting June first, most travel documents needed to cross the U-S border will have a computer chip in them designed to speed up processing at the nation's border crossings. It's called a radio frequency identification document reader or R-F-I-D. The device gives workers access to a traveler's information before the traveler gets to the inspection booth...up to 30 feet away. Border officials expect the device to cut up to eight seconds from a traveler's wait.

Topic: IMMIGRATION REFORM CAMPAIGN

Synopsis: A national tour calling for reform of the federal immigration system kicked off in Providence. U.S. Rep. Luis Gutierrez, D-Ill., is spearheading the National Family Unity Campaign for the Congressional Hispanic Caucus to hear stories from immigrants at stops at more than a dozen churches across the country. Gutierrez said the current laws and harsh enforcement is devastating to families. He and other lawmakers and advocates want President Barack Obama to prioritize immigration reform.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: OBAMA ECONOMY

Synopsis: The White House budget director says the president will sign a big spending bill despite GOP calls for a veto. Peter Orszag says Obama will work with Congress to reduce targeted spending, known as earmarks. But he says the $410 billion measure that passed the House last week represents last year's business and the new administration needs to move on. The bill would keep the government operating through Sept. 30, the end of the current budget year.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: CITIGROUP - GOVERNMENT DEAL

Synopsis: Private investors will have to go along, but Citigroup has reached a deal with the government on a new rescue plan. The Treasury would provide up to $25 billion in emergency funds for an ownership stake of as much as 36 percent. The deal is contingent on private investors also agreeing to a similar swap.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: HEALTH CARE COST

Synopsis: A new government report on medical costs paints a stark picture for President Barack Obama, who's expected to call for a health care overhaul in his speech Tuesday night to Congress. The Department of Health and Human Services says health care costs will top $8,000 per person this year, consuming an ever-bigger slice of a shrinking economic pie. The report says as the recession cuts into tax receipts, Medicare's hospital trust fund could become insolvent as early as 2016.

Synopsis: Thousands of eager job-seekers are lining up at Dodger Stadium this weekend, hoping to score a job. Applicants are competing for about 500 positions for the summer baseball season. The state's unemployment rate is now just above ten percent; and many of today's applicants say they've recently lost their job.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: IRS RETURN

Synopsis: The IRS has made changes to make it easier for distressed homeowners to avoid having a federal tax lien block either a mortgage refinancing or sale of a home. While it can take 30 days to process an application to get rid of a tax lien or to have it take a back seat to a lender's claim, the IRS says it's working to speed the requests because of the recession.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: FEDERAL CONSUMER CREDIT

Synopsis: The Federal Reserve rolled out a much-awaited program aimed at boosting the availability of credit to consumers and small businesses. The Fed will lend up to $200 billion to spur consumer lending for autos, education, credit cards and other consumer debt. The money will be used to provide financing to investors to buy up the debt.

Topic: DEPRESSION AND HEART ILLNESS

Synopsis: Depression almost doubles the risk of developing heart disease over 12 years, according to a long-term study of twins. Mounting evidence has found that depression makes people more vulnerable to heart trouble. Recent studies, though, find that some genes that increase the risk of heart disease also may make people more prone to depression, which has raised the question of whether the depression-heart disease link is genetic

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: IMMIGRATION LOCAL ENFORCEMENT

Synopsis: According to government investigators, The Homeland Security Department has failed to ensure that local and state law enforcement partners pursue serious criminals and don't misuse their authority while enforcing immigration law. Dozens of state and local agencies have partnered with Immigration and Customs Enforcement to carry out immigration laws, the domain of the federal government. But ICE, a Homeland Security agency, has not clearly explained whether serious criminal offenders are the target, according to the Government Accountability Office.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: HEALTH CARE OVERHAUL

Synopsis: President Barack Obama has invited to the White House more than 120 people who hold a wide range of views on how to fix the world's costliest health care system, one that still leaves millions uninsured. A broad group of doctors, patients, business owners and insurers were to gather for a forum in hopes of building support for big changes in health care.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: OBAMA LAUNCHES HOUSING PLAN

Synopsis: The Obama administration kicked off a new program that's designed to help up to 9 million borrowers stay in their homes through refinanced mortgages or loans that are modified to lower monthly payments. In the "Making Home Affordable" initiative, borrowers will have to provide their most recent tax return and two pay stubs, as well as an "affidavit of financial hardship" to qualify for the $75 billion loan modification program, which runs through 2012

Airdate: March 3

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: HISPANIC ENROLLMENT RISE

Synopsis: Census figures being released Thursday point to a major ethnic shift in America's school kids. About one-fourth of all kindergartners are now Hispanic. And by the year 2023, minority youngsters will constitute the majority. That has broad implications for how the country handles issues ranging from immigration to jobs and education. The change has been most noticeable in the West. Arizona, California and Nevada are among states whose Hispanic populations are booming because of immigration and higher birth rates

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: LATEST UNEMPLOYMENT FIGURES

Synopsis: The U.S. unemployment rate hit a 25-year high of 8.1 percent in February as employers buckling under the strain of a recession that shows no sign of ending axed 651,000 jobs, according to government data.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: OBAMA STIMULUS PLAN LATEST

Synopsis: President Barack Obama is heading for Columbus, Ohio, where he plans to highlight at least 25 jobs saved by his $787 billion economic stimulus program. He'll speak at a graduation ceremony for police recruits. Columbus' mayor laid them off in January, but now says he's got the money to pay them through the end of the year. Obama's chief spokesman, Robert Gibbs, says the President believes trips like the one to Ohio are important because they help show the public what the government is doing to try to turn the economy around.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: TPS WILL EXPIRE

Synopsis: On October 1, 2008, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) formally announced an eighteen-month extension of the TPS designation for eligible Honduran and Nicaraguan nationals from January 6, 2009 to July 5, 2010. On Nov. 24, 2008, DHS announced that it had extended the deadline for the re-registration period for Honduran and Nicaraguan TPS beneficiaries through Dec. 30, 2008. USCIS has also automatically extended the validity of employment authorization documents (EADs) held by Honduran and Nicaraguan nationals in current TPS status from Jan. 5, 2009 through July 5, 2009.

Airdate: March 4

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: OBAMA ON ECONOMY LATEST

Synopsis: President Barack Obama is challenging the nation to do more than just endure the dreadful economy. Obama is using his weekly radio and Internet address to tell citizens to try to discover opportunity in hard times. He says he believes Americans will do just that. Obama offered a recap of another hectic week in his young presidency. He sought to reassure the country that he and his team are taking specific steps to create jobs in the short term and begin to address huge issues, like health care, that affect virtually everyone.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: IMMIGRANTS LEAVE US

Synopsis: The U.S. is no longer the only land of opportunity. If we don't want the immigrants who have fueled our innovation and economic growth, they now have options elsewhere. Immigrants are returning home in greater numbers. And new research shows they are returning to enjoy a better quality of life, better career prospects, and the comfort of being close to family and friends. Earlier research suggested that a crisis was brewing because of a burgeoning immigration backlog.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: GUTIERREZ "FAMILY UNITY" TOUR

Synopsis: A tour documenting the effects of the nation's immigration policy will make a stop in San Francisco where members of Congress will listen to stories about the harm caused to local citizens by deportation and other policies. Rep. Luis Gutierrez, D-Ill., has led the national "Family Unity" tour, which allows people to tell their stories about being separated from family members due to the country's immigration policies.

Airdate: March 5

Topic: OBAMA & STEM CELL RESEARCH

Synopsis: President Barack Obama will lift his predecessor's restriction on federal funding of human embryonic stem cell research and will give the National Institutes of Health four months to come up with new rules on the issue, according to officials. Obama will not lay out any guidelines himself but let the NIH decide when and how it is ethical and legal to pay for embryonic stem cell research.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: HOMELESS KIDS STUDY

Synopsis: One of every 50 American children experiences homelessness, according to a new report that says most states have inadequate plans to address the worsening and often-overlooked problem. The report being released Tuesday by the National Center on Family Homelessness gives Connecticut the best ranking. Texas is at the bottom.

Airdate: March 6

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: SMALL BUSINESSES FINANCIAL HELP

Synopsis: The Obama administration is looking to steer new assistance to the nation's small-business community, Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner told members of Congress Monday night. In a closed-door meeting with House Democrats on Capitol Hill, Mr. Geithner said Obama officials are working on plans to boost liquidity for small businesses as part of the administration's broadening efforts to spur lending and arrest the pace of job losses.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: ARIZONA SHERIFF DEPT. TARGET OF FEDERAL PROBE

Synopsis: Federal authorities told a high-profile Arizona sheriff Tuesday that they will investigate his department over allegations of discrimination and unconstitutional searches and seizures. The U.S. Justice Department said in a letter to Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio that investigators will focus on alleged patterns of police discrimination based on national origin.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: UNIFIED BOARD LAYOFFS NOTICES TO ABOUT 9,000 EMPLOYEES

Synopsis: The letters will go out to 5,500 teachers, and the rest will go to workers such as counselors and administrators. Any job cuts would have to be approved in June. The Los Angeles Board of Education approved issuing preliminary layoff notices to about 9,000 employees Tuesday despite a large demonstration by the teachers union and some board members' concerns over potential harm to educational quality.

Airdate: March 7

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: OBAMA AND THE ECONOMY

Synopsis: President Barack Obama says investors should have "absolute confidence" in the soundness of the United States. Obama made the comment in the Oval Office today in response to a question about the Chinese premier's concerns about the safety of China's investments in the U.S. China is Washington's biggest foreign creditor, with an estimated $1 trillion in U.S. government debt.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: FOOD SAFETY

Synopsis: President Obama today called for a top-to-bottom overhaul of the nation's food-safety system. The move comes not long after a deadly Salmonella outbreak in peanut products. The President says that will change under former New York City Health Commissioner Margaret Hamburg, who he named as head of the Food and Drug Administration.

Airdate: March 8

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: BERNANKE RECESSION

Synopsis: Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke testified on Capitol Hill in Washington, that America's recession "probably" will end this year if the government succeeds in bolstering the banking system, Bernanke seemed to express a bit more optimism that this could be done. Still, Bernanke stressed - as he did to Congress last month - that the prospects for the recession ending this year and a recovery taking root next year hinge on a difficult task: getting banks to lend more freely again and getting the financial markets to work more normally.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: HEALTH SERVICES ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS

Synopsis: By next month, thousands of illegal immigrants will be on their own, with many more people across the nation facing the same fate. Bowing to recession-related budget pressures, Sacramento County recently took the drastic step of cutting non-emergency health services to illegal immigrants. Local health systems in other states also are facing such decisions as health officials find themselves trapped between their dwindling federal, state and local funding streams and the growing number of newly uninsured who need services.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: FOOD LABELING NEW RULE

Synopsis: Shoppers will have more information about where their food comes from under a new policy starting Monday. Labels on most fresh meats, along with some fruits, vegetables and other foods, will now list where the food originated. In the case of meats, some labels will list where the animal was born, raised and slaughtered. Food safety groups have long lobbied for the policy, which was enacted by Congress as part of a wide-ranging farm bill last year.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: LATIN AMERICAN REMITTANCES

Synopsis: A new report by the Inter-American Development Bank shows migrant workers from Latin America are sending less money home. The drop comes as the global economic crisis is leading to less work for migrants. The bank predicts that remittances to the region will decline this year for the first time on record.

Airdate: March 9

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: IMMIGRANT HEALTH CARE

Synopsis: Two advocacy groups say U.S. authorities routinely delay, deny or botch medical care for immigrants in detention. Human Rights Watch and the Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center released separate reports Tuesday on health care in immigration custody. Advocates say the problems stem from unskilled or indifferent staff, overcrowding, bureaucratic red tape, language barriers and limited services.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: US CONSUMER PRICES

Synopsis: U.S. consumer prices rose in February on higher gasoline and apparel prices, government data showed on Wednesday, calming fears of deflation for now. Topic: PENALIZE IMMIGRATION SYSTEM

Synopsis: Senators Dianne Feinstein (D-Calif.) and Edward Kennedy (D-Mass.) today introduced legislation that would create a new federal crime to penalize those who misrepresent themselves as attorneys in an effort to defraud individuals - citizens and non-citizens alike - who seek immigration assistance. Law enforcement officials say a growing number of fraudulent "immigration specialists" are operating throughout the country as attorneys qualified to practice immigration law.

Airdate: March 14

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: CALIFORNIA BUDGET STIMULUS

Synopsis: Budget experts are estimating that California will receive more than $50 billion from the federal stimulus package. The California Budget Project says there will be money for Medi-Cal, schools, tax credits, highway construction, and more. Some of the money could help California avoid further budget cuts and higher tax increases. But under state law, for that to happen, at least $10 billion of those federal stimulus dollars must be used to offset state spending.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: IMMIGRATION REFORM

Synopsis: Rep. Luis Gutierrez (D-IL) has been on a five week tour visiting 16 American cities -- including Chicago and Joliet, IL and Milwaukee, WI this weekend -- promoting amnesty for millions of illegal aliens and the dismantling of immigration law enforcement programs. Rep. Gutierrez describes the Family Unity Immigration Outreach Tour as an effort to "document the harm caused to citizens across our nation in the absence of comprehensive immigration reform."

Topic: MINORITIES IN CENSUS 2010

Synopsis: Hispanics and other minorities have historically been undercounted in the once-a-decade survey. Advocacy groups are now launching their traditional efforts to ensure an accurate count, but a variety of factors have created new problems for the painting of America's official portrait. Activists and government officials say fears over immigration enforcement and government snooping are making people more reluctant to share their information.

Topic: JOBS AND COLLEGE SENIORS

Synopsis: Job prospects for college grads, which had been on the rise since 2004, dropped in virtually every sector this year. The most dramatic decline was, not surprisingly, in finance, which hemorrhaged 71% of expected job openings. Government is essentially the only industry planning to hire more new grads this year than last, as the new Administration expands and a graying workforce retires.

Topic: CALIFORNIA SAME SEX MARRIAGE

Synopsis: Same-sex marriage advocates are pinning their hopes on California's highest court as it prepares to hear arguments on a trio of lawsuits seeking to overturn the state's voter-approved ban on gay unions. Thursday's three-hour hearing was expected to draw an audience much larger than the California Supreme Court's courtroom can accommodate. Gay rights groups rented out a nearby auditorium and a big screen television for the outdoor plaza where a group of clergy scheduled a pre-argument prayer service.

Topic: AIG OUTRAGE

Synopsis: Leaders of the White House economic team and the Senate's top Republicans have vented their anger over executive bonuses at insurance giant AIG. American International Group is paying the bonuses and getting about $170 billion in federal bailout money. From one Sunday talk show to the next, officials tore into the contracts that AIG says had to be honored, to the tune of about $165 million and payable to executives by Sunday. AIG has agreed to the Obama administration request to restrain future payments.

Topic: US TROOPS MEXICO BORDER

Synopsis: Seeking to stanch the flow of drugs, guns and violence saturating the Mexico-U.S. border, the Obama administration is preparing to send more federal agents as reinforcements. The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives is sending 37 agents to the region, while the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agency may reassign at least 90 officers to the border, an official familiar with the plan said. The official requested anonymity because the plan has not yet been announced. The deployments are part of President Barack Obama's first moves to boost federal security on the U.S. side of the border.

Topic: IMMIGRATION DETENTION CENTERS

Synopsis: Two advocacy groups say U.S. authorities routinely delay, deny or botch medical care for immigrants in detention. Human Rights Watch and the Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center released separate reports Tuesday on health care in immigration custody. Advocates say the problems stem from unskilled or indifferent staff, overcrowding, bureaucratic red tape, language barriers and limited services. A spokeswoman for U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, or ICE, says the agency provides primary health care along with dental, chronic and mental health care.

Duration: 30 sec.

Topic: HOME CONSTRUCTION

Synopsis: The number of new housing projects that builders broke ground on in February rose sharply, defying economists' forecasts for yet another drop in activity. The Commerce Department reported Tuesday that construction of new homes and apartments jumped 22.2 percent from January to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 583,000 units. Economists were expecting construction to drop to a pace of around 450,000 units.
