

Issue	Date	Time Aired	Duration	Show	Segment Title	Description
technology	01/02/18		45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. This morning we're talking about Apple's $29 iPhone battery swap. It's now available, sooner than promised. The "Nigerian prince" email scam is one of the most notorious cybercrimes out there, and the people behind it may have hit a bit of a snag after one of their alleged co-conspirators was arrested in Louisiana on Thursday. And the App of the Week: 1 Second Everyday. The app stitches second-long snippets from your life into a compelling, personal movie.
arts	01/03/18		15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which takes us down a stroll through some of Ayana's favorite soul grooves.
feminism	01/03/18		45	Morning A mp	Council of Feminist Thought	Veronica Arreola is the Program director of UIC's Latino in Science office and owner of Viva la Feminista. Sheri Flanders is a Chicago comedian and writer and salty feminist, half of the interracial comedy duo FLANDERS, head writer for Choice the Musical and a musical improv instructor at The Second City. They make up today's council and we're discussing 2018 and what our hopes are for the "woman's movement" and women's rights. We'll also talk about the newly minted Times Up initiative that looks to combat systemic sexual harassment in Hollywood and in blue-collar workplaces nationwide.
arts	01/04/18		15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Chicago Hip Hop artist Prob Cause has consistently produced music that combines his lyrical prowess, genre-blending production, and songwriting abilities. He spoke Jesse Menendez about his new EP Distractions and his desire to inject his current music with more socio-political commentary than on past projects.
social justice	01/04/18		15	Morning A mp	Call it in	Tomorrow on the Morning AMp, Jill and Jesse invite their audience to discuss the life and death of activist Erica Garner. What do you make of Erica's legacy? Does Melissa Harris-Perry's recent article have a point? Does the trauma of racism cause undue stress on black and brown people? Share your thoughts.
sports	01/04/18		45	Morning A mp	Sports round up	Our senior sports correspondent LaToya "Moneyball" Smith checks in to talk about the renewed interest in the Chicago Bulls season, the Bears firing of head coach John Fox and the NFL Playoff picture.

arts	01/05/18	15	Morning A mp	Oye como va	Sandra Trevino is the Founder and editor of Enchufate.com, one of the city's leading resources for Latin Alternative music and news. She drops in this morning to let us know what's happening around town and to premiere new music from the genre.
arts	01/05/18	15	Morning A mp	And ya don't stop	Vocalo's senior Hip Hop correspondent Gabe Mendoza checks in with a triple serving of Hip Hop. He'll review Eminem's latest effort, Revival, Jeezy's album, Pressure and Lil' Wayne's new mixtape Dedication 6. Gabe will let us know if these albums are Fuego, Mild, or Ketchup.
arts	01/05/18	45	Morning A mp	The Reel Critic	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss which movies were winners at last weekend's box office. We'll also dip our toes into this weekend's Golden Globes.
arts	01/08/18	15	Morning A mp	The Golden Globes	Matt Fagerholm is Assistant Editor at RogerEbert.com and the Publisher of Indie Outlook. Matt joins the AMP to recap the winner, losers, and surprises at the 75th annual Golden Globe Awards. After, Jill and Jesse will talk about the impact the Times Up initiative had on the awards ceremony.
arts	01/08/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond.
technology	01/09/18	45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. This morning we're talking about engineer James Damore suing Google for allegedly discriminating against conservative white men. Also, GE Wants to Hang a 27-inch Screen and a Camera Over Your Stove. Let's discuss.
arts	01/09/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Chicago Hip Hop artist and Pivot Gang collective member MFN Melo recently released his debut project Melodramatics. The album sees Melo shattering misconceptions of life on the West Side of Chicago while providing a laid back and uplifting vibe that celebrates individuality. Jesse Menendez spoke with MFN Melo about his album.
arts	01/09/18	15	Morning A mp	Financial trivia	In this rocky economy we can all use a refresher course on financial literacy. What better way to sharpen your money bone than with some good ol' fashioned financial trivia. This morning Jesse and Jill play a friendly and informative game of Money for Your Thoughts.
arts	01/10/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which takes us down a stroll through some of Ayana's favorite soul grooves.

feminism	01/10/18	15	Morning A mp	1 Minute Micro series	Menace is a new original micro series on Instagram. Told in 13, 1-minute episodes, this darkly comedic feminist dystopian web series follows neighbors Ana, Daisy and Jane as they hide together in one small apartment from the violence outside. Set in the near future, an extremist male pride group called GuySIS is mass-killing the women of the US. As Ana, Daisy and Jane hide out from the violence in Chicago watching the death toll rise, they are forced to deal with their differences. Sarah Alò and Devon Carson are the co-creators of Menace and join the AMP to talk about the project.
arts	01/11/18	30	Morning A mp	Drinking Gourd Poetry Prize	Marcelo Hernandez Castillo is a poet, essayist, translator, and immigration advocate. He is the author of Cenzontle, which was chosen as the winner of the 2017 A. Po ulin, Jr. prize and will be published by BOA editions in 2018. His first chapbook, DUL CE, was chosen as the winner of the Drinking Gourd Poetry Prize and will be published by Northwestern University press in the fall of 2018. Later today, Marcello will be giving a reading at the Poetry Foundation as the winner of the Drinking Gourd Poetry prize from Northwestern University Press, which is dedicated to publishing chapbooks by poets of color. This morning, Marcello joins the AMP to talk about his chapbook Dulce and immigration activism.
social justice	01/11/18	45	Morning A mp	Peace Council	Whitney Capps is a leadership and team effectiveness coach. She is a freelance post-secondary counselor and an associate with Clearspace, LLC and she is the co-creator and host of two podcasts: Art Break and Split the Difference. Claudia Garcia-Rojas is a Chicago based activist and writer. She is co-director of the Chicago Taskforce on Violence Against Girls and Young Women and a doctoral candidate in the Department of Black studies at Northwestern University where she is currently finishing a dissertation that examines the national security paradigm. This morning we discuss H&M and the controversy after a product shot on the Swedish fast-fashion brand's UK site used a black child to sell a hoodie that says "coolest monkey in the jungle." Many have joined the protest including Rachel Dolezal. We'll also talk about how actor Rose McGowan has transformed her rape accusation against Harvey Weinstein into a new brand of activism. And this month she'll gain a TV platform for her movement against sexual harassment and misconduct. We'll also talk about a group of French feminists who believe the #MeToo movement has gone too far.

economics	01/16/18	15	Morning A mp	Financial literacy	Jay Rehak is a teacher and President of the board of trustees of the Chicago teachers' pension fund. He's also the author of Sideline book one. The story of an 11 year old entrepreneur who secretly amasses a fortune. It's the first in a five book series intended to help middle grade students gain financial literacy. This morning Jay joins the AMP to talk about his book and an upcoming reading.
technology	01/16/18	45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. This morning we're talking about Facebook's new direction; which is to get us to spend less time on FB. Plus, Startup Saent is myth busting the benefits of multitasking. And finally, Mike will share his pick for App of the week! Appolition is the app that takes spare change and turns it into bail money.
arts	01/17/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which features her usually venture in to soul and artist like Marvin Gaye and Tammi Terrell.
feminism	01/17/18	45	Morning A mp	Council of Feminist Thought	Summer Fields works with journalists on audience engagement at Chicago startup Hearken, which is based on the public-powered model of WBEZ and Curious City. McKenzie Chin is an actor and a poet with the Growing Concerns Poetry Collective. They make up today's council. We'll discuss this weekend's Women's March which is called "Women's March: Power to the Polls". We'll also discuss the allegations of misconduct against Aziz Ansari and an opinion piece for the New York Times called Aziz Ansari Is Guilty. Of Not Being a Mind Reader, where writer Barri Weiss writes, "There is a useful term for what this woman experienced on her night with Mr. Ansari. It's called "bad sex."" arts	01/18/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured Interview	Chicago rapper and tattoo artist Phor can be seen on VH1's popular reality TV show, Black Ink Crew Chicago. Now the rapper is gearing up for the release of his debut project Butterfly. Jesse Menendez spoke with Phor about his album, balancing TV and music and his civic pride.

community	01/18/18	45	Morning A mp	Police reform	Nearly a year ago, the U.S Department of Justice delivered an eye opening evaluation of Chicago's police training and practices. The report harshly criticized the way misconduct investigations are handled, highlighted the breakdown of trust between police and residents, and called on the Chicago Police Department to "do a better job" and to demonstrate "that it presumes community residents to be allies rather than suspects." Young activists in Chicago's immigrant, Latino, and African-American communities say Chicago's police reform efforts fall short. WBEZ reporter Odette Yousef joins the AMP with the report.
arts	01/19/18	15	Morning A mp	Oye como va	Sandra Trevino is the Founder and editor of Enchufate.com, one of the city's leading resources for Latin Alternative music and news. She drops in this morning to let us know what's happening around town and to premiere new music from the genre.
arts	01/19/18	45	Morning A mp	The Reel Critic	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss which movies were winners at last weekend's box office.
community	01/22/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago who are change makers within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Acie Roxas with The Alliance of Filipinos for Immigrant Rights & Empowerment (AFIRE), a grassroots community organization that builds the capacity of Filipino/a/xs* to organize on issues of social, racial, and economic justice that affect undocumented immigrants, domestic workers, seniors, and youth.
social media	01/22/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. This morning we'll talk about why you shouldn't check your smartphone before you go to bed and how voice assistants are coming to some very weird places. And finally, Facebook is going to start letting its users rank the credibility of posted news.

community	01/23/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago who are change makers within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Rashanah Baldwin of The Baldwin Media Group, an entity reporting on the violence within the Englewood Community in a way that changes the narrative surrounding the way Englewood is presented nationally.
community	01/23/18	15	Morning A mp	Chi Buys	1871 was created to support Chicago's digital startup community. Since that time, it has become the hub for the city's thriving technology and entrepreneurial ecosystem. Their latest initiative, Chi Buys is a program that helps local, diverse restaurateurs and vendors grow their business, it also strives to stimulate the local economy by investing in local enterprises over major chains and change our food-buying patterns for the betterment of Chicago. Chi Buys is launching a tasting event on January 25th to bring exposure to all of the diverse cuisine options -- from ethnic dishes to homegrown mom & pop services that are often overlooked. This morning 1871 Vice President of Events and Content Development, Jeanne Reidy and Nikkita Randle, Founder and Owner of Twisted Eggroll join the AMP to talk about the Chi Buys initiative.
technology	01/23/18	45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. This morning we're talking about the launch of Amazon Go and the app of the week; Die Without Me, the chat app you can only use when you have less than 5% battery. Die together in a chatroom on your way to offline peace.
community	01/24/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago who are change makers within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Emily Loerzel, Project Beacon Program Manager at American Indian Center of Chicago.

arts	01/24/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which features her usual venture in to soul and artists like Jackie Ross, Barbara and the Uniques and the Southside Movement.
community	01/24/18	20	Morning A mp	Figurative statues	Statues of historic men can be found throughout Chicago's parks and plazas. But one Curious Citizen thinks there aren't enough tributes to women. Curious City also asked its audience to nominate influential women they think should be memorialized in marble. Elizabeth Stanton reported for Curious City and joins the AMP to talk about the story.
community	01/25/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago who are change makers within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Xavier Ramey of Justice Informed. JI is dedicated to increasing workplace and community impact by using human-centered strategies to improve community engagement, internal talent and HR processes, increase corporate social responsibility impact, and drive philanthropy into the 21st century.
arts	01/25/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Leilani Wolfgramm is an Orlando based reggae artist inspired by Bob Marley's profound ability to inject his music with social commentary. Wolfgramm's new album LiveWire captures that narrative and navigates topics like what she believes is a narcissistic society, depression, loss and more. Jesse Menendez spoke with Leilani about her beginnings and her new album.
social justice	01/25/18	45	Morning A mp	Peace Council	Ashley Tribble is the host of the podcast P Power Radio, facilitator for the monthly womyn's panel "Chit Chat" which is hosted by the Cliché Collective and she's a resident artist at AMFM. Britt Julious is a journalist and essayist. Her work focuses on the intersection of music, art, race, feminism, culture and politics. She has written for many publications, including Esquire, ELLE, GQ, W magazine, Vice, The Guardian, and Pitchfork, among many others. They make up today's Peace Council and we'll discuss the recent government shutdown and the impact it may have on immigration reform. The man of the woods himself, Justin Timberlake is set to perform at the upcoming Super Bowl. The last he performed at the event he gave the world 'nipplegate'. We'll talk about his career since the incident and of course how Janet Jackson has fared.

arts	01/26/18	15	Morning A mp	Oye como va	Sandra Trevino is the Founder and editor of Enchufate.com, one of the city's leading resources for Latin Alternative music and news. She drops in this morning to let us know what's happening around town and to premiere new music from the genre.
arts	01/26/18	15	Morning A mp	And ya don't stop	Vocalo's very own master of ceremony, our senior Hip Hop correspondent Gabe Mendoza comes to the table with a review of West Coast rapper Evidences new offering Weather or Not. Find out if its fuego, Mild sauce or ketchup.
arts	01/26/18	45	Morning A mp	The Reel Critic	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss which movies were winners at last weekend's box office. He'll also preview Maze Runner and The Death Cure and review Hostiles. And Matt Fagerholm, Assistant Editor at RogerEbert.com and the Publisher of Indie Outlook, joins Reggie to talk about Oscar nominations on the AMP arts	01/29/18	15	Morning A mp	Fredo in the cut	Last week, Fredo Santana, rapper and one of the pioneers of Chicago's drill movement, passed away at the age of 27. This morning, music journalist Leor Galil joins the AMP to talk about Fredo's life and legacy.
social media	01/29/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. Germany implements new internet hate speech crackdown. Shocking report suggests some celebrities may be buying social media followers. And finally, Brett Favre sued by investors for a now-defunct social media company
arts	01/30/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which features her venting into soul artists like Jorge Ben and The Three Souls.
social justice	01/30/18	15	Morning A mp	Human trafficking	Emily Loerzel is a White Earth Ojibwe (Oh-jib-way) social worker currently working as the Project Beacon Program Coordinator at the American Indian Center of Chicago. Emily is currently developing one of the first programs dedicated to providing case management, cultural advocacy, and legal resources for urban Native Americans who are survivors of human trafficking. She joins us this morning to talk about how human trafficking impacts indigenous communities.

feminism	02/01/18	45	Morning A mp	COFT	Andrea Hart is Co-Founder and Director of Community Engagement with City Bureau. Pakistani-American-Muslim, mother of three, public health professional, reproductive justice activist, and anti-sexual assault advocate. Nadiah Mohajir is the Founder and Executive Director for HEART Women & Girls. They make up today's COFT. We'll discuss the fallout from the Larry Nassar's sexual abuse scandal. We'll also talk about why Cecile Richards, who led Planned Parenthood through 12 tumultuous years, is stepping down as its president and what this change means for the organization.
arts	02/01/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Originally from Houston, Chicago based musician, singer, and songwriter infuses his debut album, Purple Skies with sophisticated soul. The album features songs like the uplifting, Brother, which promotes peace, love and coexistence within the black community. Jesse Menendez spoke with Sam Trump about his album.
social justice	02/01/18	20	Morning A mp	Immigration reform	Reyna Wences is an organizer with Organized Communities Against Deportations (OCAD), a community based organization in Illinois that organizes against unfair and inhumane immigration enforcement practices that impact immigrant communities. This morning she joins the AMp to talk about the Trump administration's "four pillars" of immigration reform and the immigration heavy SOTU from earlier this week.
arts	02/02/18	15	Morning A mp	And ya don't stop	Vocalo's very own master of ceremony, our senior Hip Hop correspondent Gabe Mendoza comes to the table with a review of Justin Timberlake's new album Man of the Woods. Find out if its fuego, Mild sauce or ketchup.
arts	02/02/18	45	Morning A mp	The Reel Critic	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss which movies were winners at last weekend's box office.
sports	02/06/18	15	Morning A mp	Super Bowl LII	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and this morning he joins us on the line to recap the best and worst commercials from last night's football contest.
arts	02/06/18	15	Morning A mp	J Dilla	This week in 2006, Hip Hop lost one of its most revered figures. Detroit hip-hop producer and rapper Jay Dee, a.k.a. J Dilla, passed away on February 10th. Chicago keyboardist Charlie Coffeen has put together an ensemble to pay live tribute to one of his greatest influences - the legendary producer J Dilla. This year, the ensemble will once again perform J Dilla's "Donuts" live. The show will take place Friday, February 9th at Thalia Hall in Chicago. This morning you'll hear a snippet of the ensemble's performance from Vocalo's Live From Studio 10.

social media	02/06/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. Pentagon Reviews GPS Policies After Soldiers' Strava Tracks Are Seemingly Exposed. Tinder is being sued for age discrimination. And finally, the family of a man from Ohio whose murder was recorded and posted on Facebook is suing the social networking site for negligence and wrongful death.
feminism	02/07/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Spoken word poet and activist Andrea Gibson has been writing spoken word since the 2000's. The most recent album, HEY GALAXY was created in the midst of another project as a result of the current political upheaval in the United States. Gibson was working on an album entirely about love, accompanied by an orchestra, but after the 2016 presidential election they felt moved to put forth a more social justice-oriented project. Jesse Menendez spoke with Andrea about their current album, identity and politics.
arts	02/07/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which features a deep dive into the genre.
feminism	02/07/18	45	Morning A mp	She the People	She the People: Girlfriends' Guide to Sisters Doing it for Themselves is a sketch show entirely created, designed, and performed by the fearlessly funny women of The Second City! This mimosa-and-madness-fueled foray roasts the patriarchy, taking on everything from having it all...to having that sick feeling your government is trying to send you back to the Middle Ages. It's time for women everywhere to collectively reclaim comedy! Katie Caussin and Maria Randazzo of The Second City's She the People: Girlfriends' Guide to Sisters Doing it for Themselves join the Amp to talk about the show.
social justice	02/08/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Former President Barack Obama — along with key advisers, mentors, and rivals — tells the story of his climb from Chicago to the national stage. WBEZ bring us Making Obama, the story of how Chicago shaped the country's first African-American president. Jesse Menendez spoke with Jenn White, host of the podcast, about Obama's beginning in Chicago.

arts	02/08/18	15	Morning A mp	Marsha Marsha Mars ha	Marsha Warfield has had one of the most impressive careers of anyone that's ever graced Studio 11. Shes had memorable roles on two successful sitcoms, her own talk show, and an impressive standup act. Some may know her as Roz the bailiff from Night Court, some from the films Mask or DC Cab, and some may know her from tearing up the stand-up stage for the last 40 years. This morning Marsha Warfield joins the Amp.
social justice	02/08/18	45	Morning A mp	Peace Council	Coya Paz is an Associate Professor at The Theatre School at DePaul University and Artistic Director at Free Street Theater. Corey Richardson is a contributing writer for Very Smart Brothas and author of the children's book for dads, "We Used To Have Money, Now We Have You". This morning they are the Peace Council and we discuss recent examples of police misconduct in Baltimore and here in Chicago during a period where CPD is said to be in a reformation phase. We'll also talk about the man of the woods himself and an opinion piece for BET.com called Justin Timberlake's Terrible Super Bowl Halftime Show Proves He Still Needs Black Culture To Sell Himself.
arts	02/12/18	15	Morning A mp	Winter Block Party	This past Saturday, nearly 3,400 people made their way to the METRO and Smart Bar for the 9th Annual Winter Block Party, an all-day free festival celebrating the power of hip hop and community through dancing, DJ's, live music, poetry, face-painting. The evening featured performances from Tasha, The Mind and Ric Wilson. Jill and Jesse unpack this year's Winter Block Party.
arts	02/12/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Sacha Mullin is a Chicago-based singer-songwriter, arranger, pianist, and educator. At once commanding and vulnerable, Sacha's often been compared to Jeff Buckley and Morrissey. Jill Hopkins spoke with Sacha about his current album Duplex.
arts	02/14/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which features mix of classic soul jams from artist like Stevie Wonder, Bobby Wade, and the Shirelles.

feminism	02/14/18	45	Morning A mp	Council of Feminist Thought	Alicia Swizz is a professor, performer, and professional Feminist. Melissa DuPrey is an actor, comic, activist, and Chicago native. She has two successful solo shows, SEXomedy and SUSHIfrito and has made appearances on TV. Currently, she is the General Manager of the historic social justice theater, Free Street Theater. Both women make up today's COFT. Just in time for V Day we'll discuss romance scams. At last count, nearly 15,000 romance scams were logged by the FBI in 2016 (almost 2,500 more than the year before), with more than $230 million in losses. And we'll talk about dating during the #MeToo movement. In an article for Reuters called #MeToo movement means changes for Valentine's Day romance writer Barbara Goldberg talks to experts about the whether or not the #MeToo movement has put the chill on romantic holidays like Valentine's Day.
community	02/19/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago who are making Black History today within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Evan F Moore, Digital Content Producer-News at the Chicago Sun-Times. Evan is a Chicago based journalist who has written for publications such as Rolling Stone.com and DNA Info Chicago. He covers sports, politics, race and culture.
arts	02/19/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Chicago rapper Lunxch explores afro futurism via a anime tinged aesthetic. Jesse Menendez spoke with the rapper formerly known as Sage the 64th Wonder about his name change, his Asian inspired approach to rap and about his upcoming project.
social media	02/19/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. This morning we'll talk about the men who pay to be hacked for pleasure. Facebook revealed that it would invest $10 million to fund opportunities for community leaders, with some awards offering as much as $1 million. And finally, Florida's Attorney General urges social media vigilance after school shooting.

community	02/20/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago who are making Black History today within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Matt Muse. Matt is a talented Hip Hop artist and youth mentor with Young Chicago Authors.
arts	02/20/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	West Coast MC Evidence recently released his third solo studio album, Whether or Not. The album is a deeply personal look into the rappers life and his wife's battle with Cancer. Jesse Menendez spoke with Evidence about the album, his place in Hip Hop and how he mined personal trauma to create art.
technology	02/20/18	45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. Apple park employees reportedly can't stop walking into its glass walls. Snapchat will let you make your own custom lens for $10. And finally, the product of the week; VOLTA Charger is a singular fast charging magnetic cable to Power All your iPhone/iPad, Android (Micro USB) and USB C Devices.
community	02/21/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago who are making Black History today within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Tiffany Walden of the TRiiBE. The TRiiBE is a digital media platform showcasing innovative content to reshape the narrative of Black millennials in Chicago.
arts	02/21/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which features a deep dive into the genre with songs from Gene Chandler, Betty Everett, and Ginji James.
arts	02/21/18	20	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Nashville-based, Australian-born artist Ruby Boots has recently released her debut album with Chicago label Bloodshot Records. Don't Talk about It is an empowering declaration of identity and feminism. Jesse Menendez spoke with Ruby Boots about her album and the atmosphere that spawned it.

community	02/22/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago making Black history within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Aymar Jean Christian, an assistant professor in the Media, Technology and Society program in the Department of Communication Studies at Northwestern University. He also leads Open TV (beta), a platform for queer and intersectional television in Chicago.
arts	02/22/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Chicago Hip Hop artist is the first rapper to drop an album from space. The save money collective member is set to release his much anticipated major label debut World Wide Wave. The album was recorded at Rick Rubin's iconic Shangri-La studio in Malibu. Jesse Menendez spoke to Towkio about the album and signing with Rick Rubin.
social justice	02/22/18	45	Morning A mp	Peace Council	Britt Julious is a journalist and essayist. Her work focuses on the intersection of music, art, race, feminism, culture and politics. She has written for many publications, including Esquire, ELLE, GQ, W magazine, Vice, The Guardian, and Pitchfork, among many others. Corey Richardson is a contributing writer for Very Smart Brothas and author of the children's book for dads, "We Used To Have Money, Now We Have You". This morning we discuss a recent Chicago Reader cover story that depicted a caricature of Illinois gubernatorial candidate J.B. Pritzker, a Democrat, sitting on top of a black lawn jockey. We'll also talk about Black Panther and its cultural significance.
community	02/23/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has been featuring the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting the individuals in Chicago making Black history within their respective communities. Today, you'll hear from Britt Julious, an journalist and essayist. Her work focuses on the intersection of music, art, race, feminism, culture and politics. She has written for many publications, including Esquire, ELLE, GQ, W magazine, Vice, The Guardian, and Pitchfork, among many others.
arts	02/23/18	15	Morning A mp	And ya don't stop	Vocalo's very own master of ceremony, our senior Hip Hop correspondent Gabe Mendoza comes to the table with a review of West Coast rapper Nipsey Hustle's new offering Victory Lap. Find out if its fuego, Mild sauce or ketchup.

arts	02/23/18	15	Morning Amp	Featured interview	Knowledge Beckom is a Chicago based event producer who recently created Classic Hip Hop Lives, a series that looks to introduce golden era hip hop artists to a new generation through live performances. This weekend Chicago Hip Hop Lives is bringing Havoc of Mobb Deep and Cormega to the Promontory for a tribute to deceased Mobb Deep member and hip hop luminary Prodigy. Jesse Menendez spoke to Knowledge about his event series.
arts	02/23/18	45	Morning Amp	The Reel Critic	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss which movies were winners at last weekend's box office. But honestly, we'll probably end up talking more about Black Panther. Wakonda forever!
community	02/26/18	15	Morning Amp	Cook County Assessor race	The Cook County Assessor campaign normally comes and goes without much attention but this campaign has turned into a clash between "three" candidates. Last year, a Chicago Tribune and ProPublica series found the current system for assessing properties in Cook County is inequitable. Becky Vevea covers City Hall for WBEZ and this morning she joins the Amp with the last On the Cook County assessor race.
social media	02/26/18	45	Morning Amp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. This morning we'll talk about Social displacement theory. Then, we'll discuss last week's indictment of 13 Russian nationals. And finally, a Children's Society survey has found Social networks' failure to tackle cyber-bullying and is risking the mental health of young people.
arts	02/27/18	15	Morning Amp	Featured interview	Story Jam is a live lit-live music show featuring personal stories and original songs written specifically for the stories. Many of the tellers are Moth Slam winners and recognized tellers in Chicagoland and beyond. A 10-piece band comprised of local players provides the backdrop for these stories. New stories and song combinations are created for each show, making every Story Jam a unique experience. Chicago performer Stephanie Rogers serves as producer and host. Jill Hopkins spoke to Stephanie about the upcoming Story Jam at City Winery.
technology	02/27/18	45	Morning Amp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk.

arts	02/28/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo's Reclaimed Soul. This morning she's previews tomorrow night's show which features her usually foray in to soul from artists like Carolyn Franklin and Cliff Nobles.
feminism	02/28/18	45	Morning A mp	Council of Feminist Thought	Summer Fields studied sociology at UChicago and wrote her thesis on homogeneity and whiteness in public radio. She currently works with journalists on audience engagement at Chicago startup Harken. Jenny Casas is a California Chicana and a producer for USA Today's podcast The City. She's reported on class and power for the NPR station in St. Louis, and most recently covered restorative justice and criminal law in Cook County for City Bureau. This morning we discuss an article for Market Watch called, 'Wakanda forever: The overt feminism of 'Black Panther'. We'll also talk about this year's issue of Sports Illustrated's Swimsuit issue where models are set to honor the ongoing #MeToo movement by featuring its first-ever nude photograph collection.
community	03/01/18	15	Morning A mp	Baby Soul Jam	Keewa Nurullah is a performing artist and owner of kido, a local children's clothing brand. She's also a producer of Baby Soul Jam, a quarterly day party series for Southside families. Their Spring edition is this Saturday morning at the Promontory. This morning Keewa joins the Amp in studio to talk about the event.
arts	03/01/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Brandon Breaux is a fine artist and designer working out of Chicago. His creative experience is comprised of painting, sculpture, web, video, print, and interactive projects. His work focuses on identity, the subconscious mind and the fragility of the human psyche. Jesse Menendez spoke to Brandon about his youth mentoring and about his creation of the cover art for Chance the Rapper's last three projects.
arts	03/02/18	15	Morning A mp	Oye como va	Sandra Trevino is the Founder and editor of Enchufate.com, one of the city's leading resources for Latin Alternative music and news. She drops in this morning to let us know what's happening around town and to premiere new music from the genre.
arts	03/02/18	15	Morning A mp	And ya don't stop	Vocalo's very own master of ceremony, our senior Hip Hop correspondent Gabe Mendoza comes to the table with a review of Phontes' 'No News Is Good News' album, his first in almost 7 years. Find out if its fuego, Mild sauce or ketchup.
arts	03/02/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Rapper Show You Suck and producer STV SLV make up AIR CREDITS. Their music is from the not too distant future, when the planet's water supply has all but ceased and the landscape has turned to wasteland. Jesse Menendez spoke to AIR CREDITS about their new album Wasteland Radio New Archives Green 376.

arts	03/02/18	45	Morning A mp	The Reel Critic	Reggie “The Reel Critic” Ponder is Vocalo’s senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss which movies were winners at last weekend’s box office. Joining Reggie to talk about the upcoming Academy Awards will be Jean de St. Aubin the Executive Director of the Gene Siskel Film Center.
arts	03/05/18	15	Morning A mp	LTAB	Louder Than A Bomb is an annual event hosting over 1,000 youth poets for a month of Olympic-style poetry bouts, workshops, and special events. Students representing schools and community groups in the Chicago area perform original solo and group poems in a tournament-style competition. This morning, José Olivarez a poet and Marketing Manager of Young Chicago Authors joins the Amp to talk about this year’s event.
social media	03/05/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He’s also Vocalo’s senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. This morning we’ll talk about how Snapchat and Instagram filters are changing the way young people look at themselves. And Facebook sees an opportunity in LinkedIn’s lack of small business jobs. And finally, For superpowers, artificial intelligence fuels new global arms race.
arts	03/06/18	15	Morning A mp	Live From Studio 10 preview	Initially formed on a whim as an idea for a party band, GGOOLLDD have quickly generated attention and recognition on the indie music scene for their catchy, hook-heavy sound and flashy, raucous shows. This sudden interest has prompted the band to take things more seriously and take the project to the next level. Their latest offering is Teeth, an EP that sees the front woman Margaret Butler grow into her own as a songwriter and performer and find a more personal and honest voice within the group without compromising the party vibes the band has been known for. This morning you’ll hear preview of tonight’s episode of Live From Studio 10 featuring a performance and interview with GGOOLLDD.
technology	03/06/18	45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. The dating app Bumble is banning guns from profile pictures. Folks are mad. Mike will tell about his choice for product of the week: Uber Health.
arts	03/07/18	15	Morning A mp	Reclaimed Soul	Ayana Contreras is the host of Vocalo’s Reclaimed Soul. This morning she’s previews tomorrow night’s show which features her usually foray in to soul.

arts	03/07/18	15	Morning A mp	Daphne series	Daphne' series at Smart Bar aims to celebrate Women and non-binary folks that have contributed to electronic music in the past and present. Besides the calendar of nighttime events with DJs and live acts, there will be several panel discussions, talks, and also a public workshop where women and non-binary music enthusiasts can get beginning lessons on how to DJ with turntables and CDJs. Sam Kern is a resident DJ at Smart Bar, she also runs the vinyl label 'god particle' and also a mentor and co-organizer for the Walking and Falling DJ mentor program for women and non-binary music enthusiasts. She joins the Amp to talk about the Daphne series.
community	03/07/18	20	Morning A mp	Featured interview	The TRiibe is a digital media platform showcasing innovative content to reshape the narrative of Black millennials in Chicago. As an independent, alternative news source, The Triibe hopes to unify Black Chicago millennials in the common purpose to create a safer, more vibrant Chicago. This weekend The Triibe celebrates its one year anniversary. Jill Hopkins spoke with Triibe co-founders Tiffany Walden and Morgan Elise Johnson about the project.
arts	03/08/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	»radiant devices« explore a sound that draws upon art rock, downtempo electronic and industrial aesthetics. Jesse Menendez spoke with Mojdeh Stoakley, ahead of their release show this Friday at constellation, about the band's new album Unheeded. The project deals with trauma, silence and depression.
social justice	03/08/18	45	Morning A mp	Peace Council	Ricardo Gamboa is an award-winning artist, activist and academic creating radically politicized work in their native Chicago and New York City. Ashley Ray-Harris is a writer, storyteller, comic, and Media Manager for The Onion. Her work can be found on The A.V. Club, Vice, Jezebel and the Chicago Reader. They make up today's Peace Council. Donald Trump's deadline for ending the DACA program, arrived Monday. But the program, which protects young, undocumented immigrants from deportation, remains in place for now. So, what happens next? Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School student activists have received much support in their demand that politicians sever ties with the NRA and work toward comprehensive and common sense gun reform. For the last several years, in the face of Black death at the hands of law enforcement, Black Lives Matter activists have also been asking for accountability and gun reform among other things. It raises a question of the activism we acknowledge and the activism we ignore.

arts	03/09/18	15	Morning A mp	Oye como va	Sandra Trevino is the Founder and editor of Enchufate.com, one of the city's leading resources for Latin Alternative music and news. She drops in this morning to let us know what's happening around town and to premiere new music from the genre.
arts	03/09/18	15	Morning A mp	Comedian in studio	American stand-up comedian, actor and voice actor, Gilbert Gottfried is performing tonight at Zanies in Rosemont, Chicago, and this morning he joins Jesse and Jill in studio. Gottfried is instantly recognized by his exaggerated voice and such iconic voice roles as Aladdin's Iago. We'll talk with the comedian about his career and tonight's show.
arts	03/09/18	15	Morning A mp	And ya don't stop	Vocalo's very own master of ceremony, our senior Hip Hop correspondent Gabe Mendoza comes to the table with a review of Prhyme's new album Prhyme 2. Prhyme is DJ Premier and Royce the 5'9". Find out if its fuego, Mild sauce or ketchup.
arts	03/09/18	45	Morning A mp	The Reel Critic	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss which movies were winners at last weekend's box office. He'll also preview Gringo and review A Wrinkle in Time. And back from L.A covering the Oscars is Matt Fagerholm, Assistant Editor at RogerEbert.com and the Publisher of Indie Outlook, he joins Reggie to talk about Oscar winners on the AMp arts	03/12/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	The Gold Web is Chicago's art-glam monstrosity. Known for their highly theatrical stage shows, the group doses audiences with blissful grooves, dramatic songwriting, and an outrageous visual performance. Jill Hopkins spoke with the band about their new album Acidchrist Superspice & the Candyboys.
arts	03/12/18	15	Morning A mp	J Dilla	Last month in 2006, Hip Hop lost one of its most revered figures. Detroit hip-hop producer and rapper Jay Dee, a.k.a. J Dilla, passed away on February 10th. Every year, Chicago keyboardist Charlie Coffeen puts together an ensemble to pay live tribute to one of his greatest influences - the legendary producer J Dilla. This morning you'll hear a snippet of the ensemble's performance from Vocalo's Live From Studio 10.
arts	03/15/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Malcolm London is a Chicago based poet, activist, organizer, and youth mentor regularly speaking out against social injustice and police brutality in the city. Malcolm has recently released his sophomore project called the Right Away Series. An album that features self-discovery; a compilation of love poems, political commentary & emotional turmoil. He's currently on the road and will close out his tour with a string of shows at Steppenwolf Theatre on April 1st through the 5th. Jesse Menendez spoke with Malcolm about his life, poetry and social activism.

arts	03/15/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Chicago Hip Hop artist Towkio is the first rapper to literally drop an album from space. The save money collective member has recently released his much anticipated major label debut World Wide Wave. The album was recorded at Rick Rubin's iconic Shangri-La studio in Malibu. Jesse Menendez spoke to Towkio about the album and signing with Rick Rubin.
community	03/19/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment has features the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting women in Chicago making history within their respective communities. This morning you'll hear from Sara Slawnik, Director of Programs for 3ARTS: a nonprofit organization that advocates for Chicago's women artists, artists of color, and artists with disabilities who work in the performing, teaching, and visual arts.
politics	03/19/18	15	Morning A mp	Illinois Primaries	In Illinois, the Democratic and Republican general primary elections will take place on March 20, 2018, and the general election will take place on November 6, 2018. Illinois Gov. Bruce Rauner is running against Republican primary challenger Jeanne Ives, with the winner going on to face the winner of the Democratic field that includes J.B. Pritzker, Chris Kennedy, Daniel Biss, Tio Hardiman, Bob Daiber and Robert Marshall. Chuy Garcia is looking to claim Luis Gutierrez Congressional seat and all eyes are The Cook County Assessor race. WBEZ Illinois politics reporter Tony Arnold joins the Amp to talk about the primaries.
social media	03/19/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. This morning we'll talk about how Cambridge Analytica's use of Facebook data was a 'grossly unethical experiment'. We'll also talk about why people would pay to maintain positive image on social media. And finally, we'll get into Riri versus Snapchat as the singer took the social media company to task over the weekend.

community	03/20/18	15	Morning A mp	This Is What Chicago Sounds Like	Today, we continue our This Is What Chicago Sounds Like series. The Vocalo segment features the voices and people who contribute to our city's rich cultural diversity. Chicago is a city that takes great pride in its collective identity and how that manifests itself in our society. This week we're highlighting women in Chicago making history within their respective communities. This morning you'll hear from Mia Francis the creator of the Accessible Health Chi App. AccessibleHealthChi highlights community organizations that help uninsured patients access free or low-cost healthcare in Chicago, IL
technology	03/20/18	45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underrepresented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our senior tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. Uber's self-driving car showed no signs of slowing before fatal crash, police. Startup Nectome will preserve your brain, but you have to be euthanized first. And finally the app of the week. Digsweep helps you set up your personal garage sale site to sell your stuff, and share it instantly with friends & others community	03/26/18	15	Morning A mp	Featured Interview	GoodKidsMadCity is a collective of Baltimore and Chicago students who are demanding that elected officials create policy that addresses gun violence as a public health issue and get rid of legislation that further criminalizes Black and Brown Youth. They understand that poverty is violence and that it's important to get resources to their communities like mental health care, trauma informed schools, restorative justice & jobs. Kofi Ademola is an adult mentor with GKMC, and we talk about this past weekend's March For Our Lives, and the work that his organization's activists have been doing for some time now.
social media	03/26/18	45	Morning A mp	Hashtag	Curtis Shaw Flagg is the operations manager at Laugh Factory Chicago, and the Director of Marketing for Open Books. He's also Vocalo's senior social media correspondent and brings us trending news from the web and beyond. Also, Jill and Curtis met LeVar Burton on Friday. Notes will be compared.

politics	03/27/18	15	Morning A mp	Illinois politics	According to Politico dot com, party officials on both sides agree that the Illinois go verner's race could cost more than $300 million. That's on pace to be the most exp ensive statewide election in U.S. history. A number of things are driving those num bers, beginning with the candidates. Both are self-funded - one, Democrat J.B. Pritz ker, is among the wealthiest people in the world, with a net worth of 3 and a half bi llion dollars, and the other, multimillionaire Gov. Rauner, is predominantly funding his own campaign, and has backing from billionaire Ken Griffin, who, with a net wor th of 9 billion dollars, also ranks among the world's richest individuals. WBEZ state politics reporter Tony Arnold joins us to talk finances.
technology	03/27/18	45	Morning A mp	Tech talk	Mike McGee is Director of Programs at CodeNow, a non-profit transforming underre presented youth into coders, designers and product managers. He is also our seni or tech correspondent bringing us the latest in tech talk. Tablet wars: Apple is read y to fight Google's Chromebooks with cheaper iPads. Facebook has been collecting call history and SMS data from Android devices. App of the Day: Blindfold lets one t urn off retweets from your followers. All at once.
community	03/29/18	15	Morning A mp	Sip for Hope	Hope For The Day is a 501(c)3 based in Chicago that looks to achieve proactive sui cide prevention through outreach and mental health education. (HFTD) launching S ip Of Hope, the world's first coffee shop where 100% of the proceeds support suici de prevention set to open May 2018 in Logan Square, Chicago IL. Carl Evans is the Director of Education Operations at Hope For The Day and joins the Amp to discuss the initiative.
arts	03/29/18	20	Morning A mp	Featured interview	Storyteller is a musician and refugee from the Democratic Republic of Congo who l eft his country of birth at age 3. After living in multiple refugee camps he and his f amily settled in Johannesburg South Africa for a decade. In 2012, Storyteller and hi s family were relocated to the United States and last fall he auditioned for America n Idol and will compete this season. Jesse Menendez spoke with Storyteller about h is time in refugee camps and the American perception of refugees. They also spok e about Storyteller's new song called Keep Me Alive, a reflection of one of his darke st moments, his musical journey and a prayer for survival.
arts	03/30/18	15	Morning A mp	Oye como va	Sandra Trevino is the Founder and editor of Enchufate.com, one of the city's leadin g resources for Latin Alternative music and news. She drops in this morning to let u s know what's happening around town and to premiere new music from the genre.

arts	03/30/18	15	Morning A mp	And ya don't stop	Vocalo's very own master of ceremony, our senior Hip Hop correspondent Gabe Mendoza comes straight from slums of Shaolin with a review of U God's new album Venom. Find out if its fuego, Mild sauce or ketchup.
sports	03/30/18	15	Morning A mp	Go Ramblers	Final Four: As the Loyola Ramblers continue to astound the nation with a NCAA Final Four appearance, Vocalo's super interns KP and Camden talk about life on Loyola's campus since their men's basketball team have become this year's Cinderella story.
arts	03/30/18	45	Morning A mp	The Reel Critic	Reggie "The Reel Critic" Ponder is Vocalo's senior film correspondent and in studio this week to discuss box office numbers and more.