

New Jersey Public Broadcasting Authority
Significant Issues and Programs Broadcast From
April 1, 2008 through June 30, 2008

Introduction:

The New Jersey Public Broadcasting Authority produces and broadcasts the following programming, which specifically address topics of interest and concern to the citizens of the state.

Another View: A 30-minute monthly public affairs program focusing on New Jersey's African-American communities. Airls the third Tuesday of the month at 6:30 p.m.; rebroadcast the third Friday at 11:30 p.m..

Caucus: New Jersey with Steve Adubato: A 30-minute program featuring the analysis of the major issues facing New Jersey. Airls weekly on Sundays at 8:30 a.m.; rebroadcast Mondays at 11:30 p.m.

Classroom Close-up, NJ: A 30-minute program featuring New Jersey's public school success stories. Airls weekly on Mondays at 6:30p.m.; rebroadcast Saturdays at 9:00 a.m.

Due Process: A 30-minute program addressing contemporary legal issues and featuring various legal professionals and experts. Airls weekly on Sundays at 9:30 a.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 6:30 p.m. and the following Tuesday at 11:30 p.m.

Images/Imagenes: A 30-minute program focusing on cultural events and public affairs in the Hispanic community. Airls weekly on Thursdays at 6:30 p.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 8:00 a.m.

NJN News: A 30-minute news program focusing on the issues and events relevant to New Jersey's citizens. Airls weeknights at 6:00 p.m., 7:30 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. and rebroadcast Tuesdays through Fridays at 6:30 a.m.; Saturdays at 6 a.m.

On the Record: A 30-minute programs featuring one-on-one interviews with NJ newsmakers and lawmakers. Airls weekly on Sundays at 9:00 a.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 11:00 a.m. and Mondays at 6:30 a.m.

Reporters Roundtable with Michael Aron: A 30-minute program featuring reporters discussing New Jersey's political scene. Airls weekly on Fridays at 6:30 p.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 10:00 a.m.

State of the Arts: A 30 minute program on location with creative personalities in New Jersey. Airls Fridays at 8:30 p.m.; rebroadcast Wednesdays at 11:30 p.m.

Issue: Education

Weekdays from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., NJN Public Television provides a complete daytime educational program schedule for pre-school through college levels. These are listed in the program guide and include: Sesame Street, Reading Rainbow.

At 5AM, Monday through Thursdays, and repeating at 1:30 PM on those days, NJN airs GED and ESL classes. At 5:30 AM weekdays, we air A Place of Our Own, providing parents and caregivers solid educational information on how young children learn.

Also, NJN's new Digital Classroom offers a video-on-demand service for students, teachers and adult learners.

NJN also airs Classroom Close-up, a weekly series co-produced by the New Jersey Education Association and NJN Public Television. The series highlights innovative teaching methods in classrooms across NJ.

Issue: Government

Weekly updates of the political climate in New Jersey are featured on On the Record and Reporter's Roundtable. (see above)

In June, NJN aired live primary election coverage, Decision '08, featuring returns in US Senate and congressional races, along with reports from key campaign headquarters.

Issue: Community Relations and Public Affairs

In May, NJN aired a new original documentary exploring New Jersey's rich architectural history, Our Vanishing Past, featuring over fifty interviews with some of the dedicated people involved in preserving America's vibrant architectural heritage.

Also in May, NJN re-aired its original documentary, The Hidden Child, which chronicles the story of Maude Dahme, a New Jersey resident and former president of the NJ Board of Education, who was hidden as a child during WW II.

In June, NJN aired Culture in Context, a State of the Arts special, exploring the exhibit of the same name at the newly re-opened New Jersey State Museum.

Issue: Nature and the Environment

NJN regularly airs episodes of Nature, Living Edens and National Geographic.

In April, NJN aired a new, original documentary Green Builders, profiling many area green building pioneers creating more energy efficient and environmentally friendly buildings.

In April, NJN also re-aired its original documentary, Turning the Tide, which showcases the hidden beauty of New Jersey's tidal areas.

In June, NJN aired Timeless: A National Parks Odyssey, taking viewers on a tour of 15 national parks.

Issue: Arts and Culture

In April, NJN aired Bowfire, the first television special featuring the Canadian-based string performers.

In April, NJN also aired Becoming American: The Chinese Experience, hosted by Bill Moyers.

In May, NJN aired A Walk to Beautiful, the NOVA episode telling the story of three Ethiopian women suffering from devastating childbirth injuries who find solace at a special hospital in Addis Ababa.

In June, NJN aired Miller's Jazz, examining the rich legacy of jazz through the eyes of the legendary jazz pianist, Mulgrew Miller.

Also in June, NJN aired Rita Rudner: Live from Las Vegas, a stand-up concert performance recorded for PBS in February, 2007.