John Townsend from AAA Mid-Atlantic joins Jeff to talk about the hazards of two-way traffic on the Bay Bridge on the one year anniversary of the death of a truck driver on the bridge. The group is asking for the state to curb two-way traffic usage. According to AAA, 70 percent of fatal accidents on the bridge occur when traffic is allowed to flow in both directions on a single span. Dan Tracy - Canton Resident, Red Line Supporter ; Ben Rosenberg - Canton Resident, Red Line Opponent Jeff talks with Canton residents on both sides of the Red Line Debate. The proposed Red Line is a 14-mile east-west transit line that will provide connection between the Woodlawn area of Baltimore County, West Baltimore communities, downtown Baltimore, Inner Harbor East, Fells Point, Canton, the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center. Proponents say the plan would be a major boost to commuters and the economy in the area, while opponents are objecting to portions of the line that will run above ground through their Canton and west Baltimore neighborhoods.
