Section (f)(2)(A) of the Community Broadcasters Protection Act (“CBPA”) and Section 73.6001 of the Commission’s rules set forth the continuing eligibility requirements for Class A licensees.

To maintain its eligibility for a Class A license, a Class A station must continue to broadcast at least 18 hours per day, and must broadcast an average of at least 3 hours per week of locally produced programming each quarter.

The FCC has defined “locally produced programming” for Class A television stations as (i) programming produced within the predicted Grade B contour of the station or within the contiguous predicted Grade B contours of any of the stations in a commonly owned group; (ii) programming produced within the predicted DTV noise-limited contour of a digital Class A station broadcasting the program or within the contiguous predicted DTV noise-limited contours of any of the digital Class A stations in a commonly owned group; or (iii) programming produced at the station’s main studio.

47 C.F.R. §73.6000.

KLMB meets each of the continuing eligibility requirements broadcasting 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. KLMB broadcasts at least 3 hours per week of locally produced programming including:
