Text of the local public notice (which aired in Spanish):

“On July 13, 2011, WQQZ-CD was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until February 1, 2021. Our license will expire on February 1, 2021. We have filed an application for renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for public inspection at www.fcc.gov. It contains information concerning this station’s performance since January 22, 2019. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by January 1, 2021. Further information concerning the FCC’s broadcast license renewal process may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, DC, 20554.”
