

3rd Quarter 2019

Issues and Programs List

1. Recovery for flood victims in Eastern Oklahoma
  2. Start The Day With United Way
  3. Relay for Life: Kick Off Party
  4. Fishing Against Child Abuse
  5. Keys Baptist Church Clothing Exchange
- We had field representatives for both FEMA and The US Housing Authority in on The Morning Rush to talk about grants and other relief opportunities for flood victims. The storm in Eastern Oklahoma ravaged our listening and we were close on our coverage with not only the damage but how we as a community can band together to help in our recovery efforts.
  - Every year we give The United Way and entire week on The Morning Rush to talk about their organizations and the other organizations that they assist in our community. This year they spoke about the funds they allocate to Hope House, Help-In-Crisis, The United Methodist Children's Home and Court Appointed Special Advocates of Cherokee Country.

- Relay for Life of Cherokee County joined us on air to discuss their “Kick Off” event which was held on October 5th. The Event is held to raise money and awareness about Relay For Life and their upcoming event in the spring of 2020.
- The largest fundraiser for The Child Abuse Task Force every year is their annual fishing tournament. The CATF is a multidisciplinary task force that’s goal is to help children that are victims of child abuse in our community. In 2019 they were able to raise almmost $7000.00 and increase participation by over 25%. Due in part to their time on air with KEOK.
- Twice a year Vanessa with Keys Baptist Church joins The Morning Rush to talk about their clothing exchange,. The exchange is a not-for-profit event where families in need can choose from a large selection of quality clothing items for all ages.
