DESCRIPTION OF EVENT: OCTOBER 29TH NOR-EASTER

PROGRAM/SEGMENT: NEWS (abc40 and Fox6)

DATE/TIME: Continuous from October 29th

DURATION: Varies

NARRATION OF TYPES AND DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM/SEGMENT:

Western Massachusetts was pounded by a freak October Nor-easter on the 29th and 30th or October. The heavy wet snow dropped trees and branches on power lines and into roadways. Millions of people in Massachusetts and Connecticut were without power, some for as long as a week. That weekend, we devoted our entire newscasts to the storm and recovery effort. We worked with local DPW departments to keep viewers informed of the clean-up and recovery effort and with utility companies on the restoration of power. It dominated our news coverage through the first week of November. Our coverage continued through the end of the year in regards to state and federal aid and the continuing clean-up effort.

This listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE: JUNE 1ST TORNADO

PROGRAM/SEGMENT: NEWS (abc40 and Fox6)

DATE/TIME: Beginning 6/1 and continuing through June (all shows)

DURATION: Varies

NARRATION OF TYPE AND DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM/SEGMENT:

June 1st, a tornado struck Western Massachusetts just after 4pm. It first touched down in Westfield and ended in Charlton in Worcester County. It cut a half mile swath for 39 miles knocking down trees, buildings, houses and killing three people.

We began storm coverage with our morning programs. We began wall to wall coverage at 3:45 that afternoon and continued for more than five hours, keeping our viewers informed of further storm threats and the extent of the damage. We devoted all of our newscasts from June First through the 10th on tornado coverage: the damage it did, how people were dealing with it and how the community came together to help. We produced a 30 minute storm special that aired Friday, June 3rd. And we established a fund through United Bank to help the tornado victims. Every day our newscasts covered some aspect of the storm recovery. And on Wednesday June 28th, abc40 and Fox6 sponsored a barbeque for tornado victims and relief workers in the town of Monson. We also broadcast live, devoting our 5-630 news to coverage of the event. We will continue coverage in the days, weeks and months ahead, as Western and central Mass continue to recover from the tornado.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE: SCHOOL BULLYING

PROGRAM/SEGMENT: NEWS (abc40 and Fox6)

DATE/TIME: Daily at 4:30 TO 7 am, Noon, 5, 530, 6, 10 and 11

DURATION: Segments run anywhere from 1:15 to 2:30 in length.

NARRATION OF TYPE AND DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM/SEGMENT:

The hanging death of 15 year old Phoebe Prince on January 14th 2010 has promoted a nationwide debate on the issue of bullying in schools. She was allegedly bullied by a group of students. We've reported on her death, how South Hadley school officials are dealing with it and heard from experts in the field.

In May, all six of the teenagers charged in the case reached plea agreements with the district attorney's office. When four of the six appeared in court, we aired their plea agreements live, hearing from them and Phoebe Prince's mother. It brought this long and painful case to a close and gave our viewers a real insight as to the workings of the court system.

Abc40 and Fox6 continue to air weekly segments known as "BullyBusters". Every Thursday night at 6, we offer parents, children and educators advice on dealing with bullying.
