

2018 QTR 3 Issues and Programs List (KHWG)

July 3, 2018 12:00 PM Time 29:33 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Dr. Komonduri, chief of staff at Southern Nevada Department of Veterans Affairs. He discussed how the VA is working to communicate more with teleconferencing thereby saving travel time to the VA. Doctors can also treat more patients via computer & internet communication...

July 10, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:30 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Southern Nevada USO Director, Dave Thorson. He described the work of the USO, how it helps active duty individuals who travel from military base to military base, giving them a place to rest and recuperate. The USO also helps families of service people whose loved one have been deployed.

July 18, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:42 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Melonie Stout, officer with non-profit Nation of Patriots organization. Working with nearby Nellis Air Force Base, airmen who require financial assistance are identified and funds are raised to provide for the needs and the airman and his/her family.

July 25, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:22 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Interview with Gus Gonzales, of the Blind Center. He discussed the classes and activities that the Blind Center makes available to all blinded individuals, veterans and civilians combined. They offer art, English, music and other topics at no charge. It operates on grants and donations.

August 1, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:51 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

No guest, Chuck N. Baker talks about the VA loan program.

August 8, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:22 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Greg Krause, outreach director for the Nevada Dept. of Veterans Services. Discussed programs for veterans that are offered by the state, which are separate from those benefits offered by the Veterans Administration.

August 15, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:11 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Shannon Bilbray, Nevada Assemblywoman. Discussed veterans' issues and recent legislation pertaining to veterans, as well as additional legislation of general nature.

August 22, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:25 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

No guest. Chuck N. Baker reported on Immigration and how individuals can become U.S. citizens. Sound bites were introduced from U. S. Immigration Department.

August 29, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:41 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Gus Flangas, former Army helicopter pilot. Discussed how soldiers train to be helicopter pilots and what type of duty they can expect. Flanges is also in charge of this years "Greek Food Festival" and he discussed how military and their families can attend free of charge.

September 5, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:33 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Terri Hendry, communications director for Nevada Dept. of Veterans Services. Discussed benefits afforded to Nevada veterans by the State of Nevada. These are additional benefits not offered by the Veterans Administration. Includes veterans license plates; burial in Nevada state cemeteries; admittance to state veterans' homes; eligibility for Veteran of the Month award; free legal services; and others.

September 12, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:03 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Masonic Association, an arm of the Masons. This organization specializes in weekly visits to veterans who are in VA hospitals, Dept. of Defense hospitals, veterans' homes and assisted living homes. The program began after WWI and continues to this day.

September 19, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:27 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Ken Walker, former CIA employee. Walker discussed inner workings of the CIA (non-classified) and the type of work that is involved. He is also an Army veteran and described Army life during the years he was in service. He is currently writing a fictional book about the CIA to be published in 2019.

September 26, 2018 12:00 PM Time 28:35 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Debra March, the Mayor of Henderson. The City of Henderson, Nevada, is very veterans oriented. Recently the city opened its Purple Heart Plaza. Henderson veterans in the military are honored by flags on the city's street fixtures. Henderson also celebrates Veterans Day and Memorial Day with city ceremonies. In addition, the mayor's son is a veteran who earned a Silver Star.