

2020 QTR 4 Issues Programs List (KHWG)

November 11, 2020 12:00 PM Time 25:59 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Voice of the Vet Non-profit. Interviewed CEO Bob Maxwell about how his organization helps veterans by reviewing their VA claims and if merited, sending them to the correct Veterans Service Officer to adjudicate.

November 18, 2020 12:00 PM Time 25:54 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Cathy Navin, head of Angel Cafe, a virtual organization that helps veterans in a variety of ways. She says her personal assistance to veterans is provided through the "grace of God," and is offered in many ways by words and by prayer.

November 25, 2020 12:00 PM Time 25:57 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

No guest. I reported on various topics including Wounded Warriors, Blinded Veterans Association and highway construction/improvements between Pahrump and Las Vegas.

December 02, 2020 12:00 PM Time 25:56 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Doc Moss, member of the American Legion Riders. A non-profit arm of the American Legion, the group of motorcycle riders attend veterans functions and raise charitable funds for the group. The riders also attend veterans funerals and acts as an honor guard, By invitation they attend patriotic functions and carry the American flag during ceremonies.

December 09, 2020 12:00 PM Time 26:00 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Marie Tomao, CEO of non-profit Youth Authority. Her organization works with teenagers and teaches them proper upbringing, encourages them to approach their studies in school in a serious manner and encourages them to employ physical education. Those who qualify are chosen to become a part of the Devil Pups, a summer camp operated by the Marine Corps that teaches discipline.

December 16, 2020 12:00 PM Time 25:57 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Joel Foreman a local leader in the American Legion. He is a former State Commander of the organization, and has been a volunteer organizer in many Legion functions including Legion Baseball, Legion Youth Oratory, charitable activities and membership captain.

December 23, 2020 12:00 PM Time 26:02 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Peter and Kelly Guidry, leaders of the Nevada non-profit Forgotten not Gone charity. Their main goal is to stop veterans and active duty military from committing suicide, a major problem in the U.S. They often use bicycles and other people-powered vehicles, organizing rides and encourage those involved to "Get Out the House!" They also collect food from time to time and donate to needy military families.