

2019 QTR 2 Issues and Programs List (KHWG)

April 3, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:46 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Dwayne Gordon, UNLV Student Veterans Office. Discussed the role of the Veterans Office and how veterans and active duty military are helped regarding eligibility, enrollment, class selection and application for VA benefits.

April 10, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:20 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Blake Boles, CEO of new non-profit, Battle Buddies. Boles started the new non-profit to help veterans through establishing positive relationships via a private "Buddy System."

April 17, 2019 12:00 PM Time 27:52 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Barbara Roderick, Legislation. A Military Widow, she brought an idea to the Nevada Legislature to educate civilian doctors about Agent Orange, so they can propose treatments to veterans they have as clients. Legislation is now pending in Carson City.

April 24, 2019 12:00 PM Time 27:52 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Tom Zampieri, President of Blinded Veterans Association. Discussed the workings and mission of the Blinded Veterans Association, and new technology that blinded individuals now have to help them with vision.

May 1, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:28 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Amanda McDonald, president of local Team Rubicon organization. The group is a registered charity made up mainly of veterans who travel to various places to help people who are displaced in emergencies.

May 8, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:15 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Susie Lee, Nevada Member of Congress. As a member of Veterans Affairs committee, she discussed her work promoting veteran's legislation. One such bill would assist veterans who resetting employment. She also said she would vote down any attempts to use Yucca Mtn. to store nuclear waste.

May 15, 2019 12:00 PM Time 27:48 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Bill Oxford, American Legion official. He is the leading candidate to become the next commander of the American Legion. On a road trip to Mesquite, he addressed veterans and explained why he wants to be elected this summer at the national convention. Among other topics, his main objective would be to increase membership in the Legion.

May 22, 2019 12:00 PM Time 27:53 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Len Yelinek, State Commander, Military Order of the Purple Heart. He discussed the benefits of membership in the group and explained that only those veterans who received a Purple Heart are eligible to join. He also explained the various charitable areas that the group contributes to, and he encouraged listeners to attend the upcoming Memorial Day ceremonies in Boulder City, which were hosted by the Purple Heart.

May 29, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:41 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Jeff Burbank, content manager with the Mob Museum. He discussed numerous former members of Cosa Nostra who had been members of the U.S. military prior to becoming involved with alleged illegal activities in Las Vegas and other cities. He also noted mob activity in Italy that helped the U.S. forces in WWII.

June 5, 2019 12:00 PM Time 27:12 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Tim Smith, representing Music-4-R-Vets, a nonprofit that uses country music to help hospitalized veterans through performing.

Started by country music vocalist Ricky Lee, he puts on free concerts at veterans' hospitals and medical facilities, and has written music for such groups as the Patriot Guard Riders. He recently performed at the Nevada State Veterans Home in Boulder City.

June 12, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:42 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, John Lee, mayor of North Las Vegas. Lee discussed the relationship between his city and Nellis Air Force Base, which is in Clark County but butts up against North Las Vegas. He also discussed the current use of two small arms annexes in NLV that are controlled by Nellis. The Air Force is reviewing the property and preparing to clean up munitions and other contaminants in the soil and finding a public use.

June 19, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:03 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Melanie Stout. She is a member of Nation of Patriots, a national non-profit that raises money for veterans and their families who are in need of financial assistance. Each year the group, which is made up of mostly motorcycle riders (but not all of them) travel across the country with a large size American Flag, raising money along the way. She says 100 percent of the funds go to veterans — all the members are volunteers. As the riders' cross state lines, the flag was passed on to new riders, and carried to the next state.

June 26, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:08 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Phellep "Phil" Snow, an outreach specialist with the Henderson Vet Center. The center is run by the Veterans Administration, and carries out counseling separately from the main VA. The center also operates a mobile unit that drives into rural areas of Nevada to reach veterans who cannot easily visit Las Vegas for assistance.