

2019 QTR 1 Issues and Programs List (KHWG)

January 2, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:34 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Phil Randazzo, director of American Dream U, a local charity that visits military bases to assist soldiers/airman etc. He holds seminars and meetings and provides information about how to make a smooth transition from military to civilian life.

January 9, 2019 12:00 PM Time 29:54 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Judge Mark Stevens, who heads the Veterans Court initiative in Henderson. Discussed which veterans are eligible to go before the court and explained the rigorous procedure veterans must go through (as long as two years in some cases) before they can have their charges dismissed or sealed from public view. The court has been successful in working with hundreds of veterans and turning their lives around.

January 16, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:49 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Peter Guidry, founder, "Forgotten Not Gone" non-profit. This organization loans bicycles and tricycles to veterans who have difficulty transitioning into civilian life. Medical science has shown that riding self-propelled vehicles can have a positive effect on individuals and improve mental health while creating positive outlooks. The organization has helped many veterans become successful citizens.

January 23, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:41 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Marine veteran Ron Coury, author of new memoir, "Tenacity." After leaving the military Coury moved to Las Vegas and became a successful businessman. However, along the way he found himself embroiled in a legal battle with a Southern Nevada city. The book details his life as a Marine and discusses how his "tenacity" overcame legal problems and ultimately found vindication through the courts.

January 30, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:34 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

T. Saranova, marketing director, non-profit Dam Short Film Festival. Discussed the mission of the non-profit festival and encouraged veterans and active-duty individuals to submit films. This successful festival, which has become the largest and longest running such event in Nevada, is a perfect venue for veterans who are interested in gaining experience to enter the movie industry in any of its capacities.

February 6, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:27 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Judy Cobb, American Legion Women's Auxiliary. Discussed the role of the Auxiliary and the requirements for women to join. Discussed the volunteer work the women accomplish.

February 13, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:27 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Guest, Robert Maxwell of Voice for Veterans. His non-profit group brings veterans to a studio and records their experiences in the military. The interviews are then sent to the Library of Congress that keeps audio records for historical significance.

February 20, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:47 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Sylvia Felicino, certified yoga instructor. Discussed how yoga can be of physical and mental help to veterans with PTSD.

February 26, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:49 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

No guest. I Discussed Blinded Veterans Association and local Dept. of Veterans Affairs, and how those organization help veterans

March 6, 2019 12:00 PM Time 27:50 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Joel Foreman, State Commander, American Legion. Discussed the role of the Legion and how the organization helps veterans to obtain VA benefits. Also discussed volunteer efforts visiting veterans in VA hospital and sending Care packages to military overseas.

March 13, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:33 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Andre Haynes, Armed Forces Chamber of Commerce. Discussed the formation of the chamber, and how members can benefit. Membership is open to veteran-owned companies and other firms that provide products and services to veterans and their families.

March 20, 2019 12:00 PM Time 27:54 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Scott Robinson, Veterans Association of Real Estate Professionals. Discussed the process of applying for VA loan guarantees, how to apply for VA eligibility and loan limits on home buying.

March 27, 2019 12:00 PM Time 28:39 That's America to Me with host Chuck N Baker

Discussed a recent Rand Report on how soldiers feel about the Army and played pre-recordings of U.S. Army soldiers directly explaining their thoughts on the Army.