12/8/19...Radio Health Journal. WORKPLACE BULLIES 11:56. Synopsis: Some bullies never grow up, and just keep on bullying. Experts describe where and how it most often occurs, what workplace bullies are seeking, who they target, why it continues, and what needs to happen to stop it. Host & Producer: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Ron Riggio, Professor of Psychology and Leadership, Claremont McKenna College; Dr. Charles Sophy, Medical Director, Los Angeles County Dept. of Children and Family Services; Dr. Gary Namie, Director, Workplace Bullying Institute. Compliance issues covered: youth at risk; workplace issues; employment; business & industry; interpersonal relations.

12/8/19...Radio Health Journal. OLDER DADS, YOUNGER KIDS 8:01. Synopsis: The average age when men first become fathers has risen to 31, and more men are also becoming dads in their 40's and 50's. A National Book Award-winning author discusses his experience as a first-time dad at 56, and now as a 73-year old father with teenagers. Host: Nancy Benson. Producer: Polly Hansen. Guest: Tim O'Brien, author, Dad's Maybe Book. Compliance issues covered: parenting issues; men's issues; generational issues.

12/15/19...Radio Health Journal. BRIDGING THE VAX/ANTI-VAX DIVIDE 14:10. Synopsis: The debate over vaccination isn't as civil as it once was, and leaves little room for common ground or even discussion. Pro-vaccine advocates often point to science showing safety and effectiveness, but as a noted medical humanities researcher explains, values common among anti-vaccine advocates lead them to reject this science, and both sides need to understand where the disconnect comes from. Host & Producer: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Bernice Hausman, Professor and Chair, Dept. of Humanities, Penn State University College of Medicine and author, Anti-Vax: Reframing the Vaccination Controversy. Compliance issues covered: youth at risk; politics; ethics; family values; science and technology; government; vaccination.

12/15/19...Radio Health Journal. "AFFLUENZA" 6:00. Experts discuss. Host: Nancy Benson. Producer: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Suniya Luthar, Foundation Professor of Psychology, Arizona State University and Professor Emerita, Columbia University Teachers College; Maia Szalavitz, co-author, Born for Love: Why Empathy is Essential and Endangered. Compliance issues covered: youth at risk; mental health; law & crime; ethics.

12/22/19...Radio Health Journal. CHRISTMAS IN THE E.R.: IT'S NO HOLIDAY 12:39. Synopsis: Winter in general, and the holidays in particular, are the busiest time of year in hospital emergency departments, even in places where it doesn't snow. Experts discuss the increase in deaths of all kinds, including the "Merry Christmas Coronary" and possible reasons those deaths bounce up. Host & Producer: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Christopher Michos, emergency physician; Dr. Robert Kloner, Chief Science Officer and Scientific Director of Cardiovascular Research, Huntington Medical Research Institutes and Professor of Medicine, University of Southern California Keck School of Medicine; Dr. David Phillips, Emeritus Professor of Sociology, University of California, San Diego Compliance issues covered: health care; family issues; prevention; hospitals & emergency room

12/22/19...Radio Health Journal. GERD AND YOUR HOLIDAY FEAST 7:29. Synopsis: During the holidays, reflux problems are magnified by big meals with trigger foods like chocolate and alcohol. But reflux sometimes doesn't show up as heartburn. A gastroenterologist discusses reflux, how it may appear as asthma or hoarseness, and how it can be treated. Host: Nancy Benson. Producer: Reed Pence. Guest: Dr. Jeffrey King, Chief of Gastroenterology, National Jewish Health, Denver. Compliance issues covered: health care; family issues.

12/29/19...Radio Health Journal. HOARDING DISORDER: IT'S ABOUT MORE THAN THE CLUTTER 12:17 Synopsis: Hoarding disorder affects at least five percent of Americans, and despite TV programs showing its effects, it is still widely misunderstood. Experts discuss the danger hoarding poses to others, including neighbors, children, and first responders; why those with the disorder are so attached to things; and the right and wrong ways to address the problem. Host & Producer: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Carolyn Rodriguez, Associate Professor and Associate Chair of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Stanford University School of Medicine; Elaine Birchall, social worker specializing in hoarding disorder and co-author, Conquer the Clutter: Strategies to Identify, Manage and Overcome Hoarding. Compliance issues covered: mental health; family issues; public safety; first responders; youth and children at risk.

12/29/19...Radio Health Journal. MELANOMA ADVANCES 7:14. Synopsis: Fifteen years ago, advanced melanoma was usually lethal. But new treatments harnessing the immune system have increased survival so much that researchers haven't completely been able to quantify it. An expert physician discusses the advances. Host: Nancy Benson. Producer: Reed Pence. Guest: Dr. Philip Friedlander, Director, Melanoma Medical Oncology Program, Mt. Sinai, New York. Compliance issues covered: health care; prevention.
