

Station KJMM 105.3FM

Tulsa, OK

Quarterly Community Report

Oct/Nov/Dec 2019

It is our endeavor to serve the public interest. Station KJMM 105.3 FM broadcast programming responsive to issues of concern to the state of Oklahoma and its listening public. The following is a brief description of these issues and the station's most significant programming treatment of them: Issues important to this quarter including the following: Doing an in-studio interview with representatives of Life Senior Services and Friendship Church about a Free community event providing information about support services available for seniors and caregivers.

Also, two of our programming staff taking a trip to Rogers State University to speak to the students in the Audio Production course this semester. They talked about their careers in Broadcasting, discussed the industry, and answered questions the students had in various areas of radio broadcasting.

Finally, KJMM and KGTO teamed up with TTCU to giveaway free turkey's to the community for Thanksgiving again this year. Going out to a TTCU location at a designated time, and having the public show up to receive a free turkey on a first come first serve basis.