

KJMM 105.3

Tulsa

4th Quarter Issues/Programming

October 2022- Dec ember 2022

The following issues were identified as significant and addressed by KJMM radio in order to serve the community and act in the public interest as set forth by the Federal Communication Commission.

Description Of Program Providing Most Significant Treatment Of Community Issues

| Program | Days | Times | Duration |
|----------------------|-----------------------|----------------|----------------|
| The Kick Back | Monday- Friday | 3pm-7pm | 4 Hours |

The above program is locally produced by the air talent in studio. Including music and Interviews during the 3pm-7pm shift.

Issues

The station has identified the following as significant issues facing the local community in this quarter:

1. Social Issues: Conducted interviews involving the coming 44th Annual MLK Commemorative Parade to celebrate Dr. King's legacy.

Conducted an interview with Syndi Sayles & Desiree Frieson with Build In Tulsa and their Black Men of Entrepreneurship Brunch.

2. Education: Interview with students from Nathan Hale High School & Middle School about challenges they face as students. Athletic coaches discussed things they face and students talked about the different challenges they face. They talked about peer relationships, goals, sports and changes they want to see made in the school system.

October, November, December 2022

Conducted interviews involving the coming 44th Annual MLK Commemorative Parade to celebrate Dr. King's legacy.

Conducted an interview with Syndi Sayles & Desiree Frieson with Build In Tulsa and their Black Men of Entrepreneurship Brunch.

And conducted an interview with students from Nathan Hale High School & Middle School about challenges they face as students. Athletic coaches discussed things they face and students talked about the different challenges they face. They talked about peer relationships, goals, sports and changes they want to see made in the school system.

