

Station KJMM 105.3FM

Tulsa, OK

Quarterly Community Report

April/ May/June 2018

It is our endeavor to serve the public interest. Station KJMM 105.3 FM broadcast programming responsive to issues of concern to the state of Oklahoma and its listening public. The following is a brief description of these issues and the station's most significant programming treatment of them: Issues important to this quarter including the following: Interviews with The Laureate Institute for Brain Research about their involvement with the public to participate multiple research studies to better understand how the brain is related to depression and anxiety. The studies include people between the ages of 18 to 55.

Also during this time period were on air interviews with the organization Nubian Heritage Arts, talking about awareness regarding African culture, arts, food and family. As well as merging different cultures from Korean, African and Hispanic all taking place at their annual Village Drum Festival (in its 11th year) A free event open to the public.