Programs:

The Advertising Council, Inc, "Never Completely Ready"

Summary: This campaign spotlights the need to find permanent families for teens, who have lower overall adoption rates and wait longer to be adopted than younger children. The newest PSAs remind viewers that adopting a teen from foster care brings life-changing moments for both teens and parents. Inspired by real adoptive family stories, this award-winning campaign showcases the poignant and emotional moments that cement a family together. Recruit loving families for teens by reminding prospective parents that a teen can have as much of an impact on their family's life as parents have in theirs.

Sponsors: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Children's Bureau, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Children's Bureau, AdoptUSKids

Aired: October 1 to December 31, all times of the day approx. 128 times during quarter, 30 seconds length
