

WILL-AM, Urbana, Illinois, licensee: The University of Illinois.

2nd Quarter, 2018 / Apr 1 – June 30, 2018.

Coverage of Community Issues
Program Data
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
3252	Education	Spot News	Urbana High School is a participant in a new statewide pilot program that allows students to demonstrate their knowledge through practical applications inside and outside the classroom.	4/2/2018	:60
3253	Business/Economy	Spot News	Despite a slight dip, the Flash Index to the Illinois economy is staying in the same 104 to 105 point range that it's been in for about two years.	4/2/2018	:60
3254	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Congressman Rodney Davis says he is "not aware of" any invitation to a town hall meeting on gun violence Thursday in Champaign, but multiple people say they have invited Davis to attend.	4/3/2018	:60
3255	Health and Health Care	Spot News	When it comes to improving public health, the most effective interventions begin early in life. That's why a team of health workers in Champaign-Urbana is reaching out to disadvantaged families, starting at pregnancy.	4/4/2018	:60
3256	Government	Spot News	AARP and Citizens Utility Board are promoting new legislative proposals to protect electric customers from fraud. They say the proposals would make it easier for consumers to know what they are buying, when they get phone calls or visits from salespeople pushing alternative electrical contracts.	4/4/2018	:60
3257	Community	Spot News	A student organized town hall on gun violence attracted a crowd of more than 100 people to the Champaign Public Library Thursday night. The event was hosted by students from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and five area high schools.	4/6/2018	:60
3258	Government	Feature	The old-fashioned town meeting, where local citizens vote directly on the affairs of town government, may seem like a thing of the past. But they are an annual affair, right here in Illinois, and the state's township governments will be holding them, Tuesday evening, April 10.	4/9/2018	4:30
3259	Community	Spot News	Four men from the small town of Clarence in Ford County --- three of them accused of bombing a mosque in Minnesota last summer --- entered not guilty	4/9/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
			pleas Monday to a separate charge of possessing a machine gun.
3260	Education	Spot News	Members of the steering committee behind a proposed Champaign charter school struggled to answer dozens of questions from Unit 4 school board officials during a public hearing Monday night.	4/10/2018	:60
3261	Government	Spot News	Tax season. We have it every year. You file your state income taxes. Sometimes you get a big refund. Yet, some people say they are surprised by how much money they owe this time around.	4/10/2018	:60
3262	Environment	Spot News	The Middle Fork of the Vermilion River is the only river in Illinois protected under the federal Wild and Scenic Rivers Act. But the group American Rivers has placed the east central Illinois waterway on its annual list of Most Endangered Rivers.	4/10/2018	:60
3263	University of Illinois	Spot News	Eleven years after University of Illinois administrators stopped appearances by Chief Illiniwek and barred use of the Chief logo, the debate between supporters and opponents continues. Some say he's an honored symbol that should be preserved, while others argue he's a racist stereotype that had to go.	4/11/2018	:60
3264	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Mariah Coleman says she experienced sexual assault at a young age, and has faced many adversities throughout her life. As a survivor turned advocate, she says her experiences — while painful — made her stronger, and those kind of experiences may make others stronger too.	4/11/2018	:60
3265	Community	Interview	Researchers who study community violence have identified trauma as one of its main underlying causes. And it's a vicious cycle: trauma spurs violence, which causes more trauma to the community.	4/12/2018	4:00
3266	Arts and Culture	Spot News	Anna Troutt says she loves poetry—but unlike visual art, she says it is hard to find and even harder to consume. However, the University Laboratory High School Student says she thinks she can bring together the community through poetry.	4/12/2018	:60
3267	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Authorities in Illinois are keeping an eye out for synthetic cannabinoids, which recently killed three people and caused severe bleeding in more than 100 others in the Chicago and Peoria areas.	4/12/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
3268	Community	Spot News	Hundreds of volunteers will come together on Saturday April 14 at the University of Illinois for the sixth annual Community and Campus Day of Service. Volunteers will be packaging 151,000 ready-to-boil meals. They'll be delivered to local foodbanks and food pantries.	4/13/2018	:60
3269	Environment	Spot News	State Senator Chapin Rose (R-Mahomet) says the Senate Environment and Conservation Committee passed a bill he sponsored (SB3548) to require Peoples Gas to quickly notify local government agencies, public water systems and the public, whenever such leaks occur.	4/15/2018	:60
3270	University of Illinois	Feature	Julius Adams is a senior music major at the University of Illinois' Urbana campus. He and friend Alyssa Coronato tell his story to WILL student intern Tim Gilmore.	4/16/2018	4:20
3271	Government	Feature	Last year, the Illinois Department of Corrections (IDOC) spent $276 on books for its educational programming across 28 correctional facilities, according to data obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request. In comparison, the state prison system spent roughly $750,000 each year on books in the early 2000s. In 2005, spending on books dropped to $264,000.	4/16/2018	4:30
3272	Business/Economy	Spot News	GasBuddy analyst Patrick DeHaan says rising gasoline prices in Illinois are following a seasonal surge along with the rest of the country, according to findings from a 2018 Fuel Outlook that he says matches up with findings from the U.S. Energy Information Administration.	4/16/2018	:60
3273	Business/Economy	Spot News	A new seventeen-story building is being planned for Champaign's Campustown, according to documents for Tuesday evening's Champaign City Council meeting.	4/17/2018	:60
3274	Government	Spot News	It's been more than three years since then-Governor Pat Quinn signed legislation creating the Secure Choice program. But the retirement savings program for workers whose employers don't offer one is finally becoming a reality.	4/18/2018	:60
3275	Education	Spot News	Organizers of a walkout planned for Friday said students at Champaign high schools are being forced to choose between participating in the civic	4/19/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
			demonstration around gun violence and attending prom.
3276	Community	Spot News	A new bike-sharing program may bring two-thousand bikes to Champaign-Urbana by this fall.	4/19/2018	:60
3277	Business/Economy	Interview	Ronald Pressman says everyone needs to think ahead to retirement, whether that time is far in the future, or just a few years away. He says baby boomers need to make sure their retirement benefits live as long as they do ---- and millennials need to act now to make sure their plans for retirement get off to a good start.	4/20/2018	4:00
3278	Science and Technology	Interview	Many scientists struggle to explain what they do to the public -- and that's a problem, said Sandra Tsing Loh, host of the NPR podcast "The Loh Down on Science."	4/20/2018	4:00
3279	Government	Spot News	Champaign Democrat Joshua Hartke is resigning from the Champaign County Board to take a job in Colorado.	4/20/2018	:60
3280	Community	Spot News	Dozens of University Laboratory High School students held a walkout to advocate for gun reform Friday morning.	4/20/2018	:60
3281	Education	Spot News	The Unit 4 school district is working to replace water fountains and install filters on sinks that tested high for lead, according to Jennifer White, president of the Champaign Federation of Teachers.	4/23/2018	:60
3282	Government	Spot News	Attorney General Lisa Madigan has announced a lawsuit against the private bus company Suburban Express for alleged human rights violations.	4/23/2018	:60
3283	Government	Spot News	A report presented to the Urbana City Council Monday night shows African-American motorists are still more likely than white drivers to be stopped by city police. But the level of disparity is down substantially.	4/23/2018	:60
3284	University of Illinois	Spot News	Faculty, staff and students at the University of Illinois Urbana campus heard from campus administrators Tuesday on issues ranging from state funding to making the campus more inclusive and accessible.	4/24/2018	:60
3285	Government	Spot News	Urbana Mayor Diane Marlin announced that Carol J. Mitten will become the City's Administrator in June 2018.	4/25/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
3286	Government	Spot News	The Illinois Senate has approved a pilot project that lets participants in a Carle job-training program stay on state public assistance a little longer, so they can manage the transition from dependency to self-sufficiency.	4/25/2018	:60
3287	Arts and Culture	Interview	Lyric Theatre at Illinois' final show of the season is the Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick musical, "She Loves Me," opening Thursday night at Krannert Center for the Performing Arts in Urbana.	4/26/2018	7:30
3288	University of Illinois	Spot News	An event this weekend will explore issues of race and representation at the University of Illinois' School of Information Science. Alumni of color from the I-School will share their personal experiences with racism, both as students and professionals.	4/26/2018	:60
3289	Environment	Spot News	Two measures designed to protect the public from future natural gas leaks at the Peoples Gas underground storage field in Champaign County passed the state Senate Thursday and now head to the Illinois House.	4/26/2018	:60
3290	Environment	Spot News	Urbana lost 500 trees in the last three years because of the Emerald Ash Borer, an insect that infects ash trees.	4/26/2018	:60
3291	Science and Technology	Spot News	U.S. Senator Dick Durbin (D) says the Senate is scheduled to vote in two weeks on the future of net neutrality.	4/27/2018	:60
3292	Government	Spot News	The bus company Suburban Express has reached an agreement with the Illinois Attorney General on a temporary restraining order, while the two sides negotiate to settle a lawsuit. Attorney General Lisa Madigan filed the suit Monday, alleging years of discriminatory practices.	4/27/2018	:60
3293	Education	Spot News	The Champaign Unit Four School Board will vote on a resolution to deny an application for a proposed charter school, at a special meeting Wednesday night.	4/30/2018	:60
3294	Arts and Culture	Interview	Classical:BTS, or Behind the Scenes, is a six-part WILL video web series that you can watch starting Tuesday evening. It's a look at some of the lesser seen and heard stories about classical music in central Illinois, and a follow-up to the award-winning 2015 web series Art:BTS.	5/1/2018	7:30
3295	Business/Economy	Spot	U of I Economist Fred Giertz says Illinois is experiencing its highest economic	5/1/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
		News	growth in 20 months.
3296	University of Illinois	Feature	University of Illinois administrators want to see the Urbana campus move on without Chief Illiniwek. Through a series of public events, they're seeking input from the community on how best to achieve that, but not everyone thinks it will succeed.	5/2/2018	4:00
3297	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Congressman Rodney Davis' visit Wednesday to an Urbana mosque was meant to strengthen ties with the local Muslim community--but the event turned into a debate over why he hasn't been more involved in his district.	5/2/2018	:60
3298	Education	Spot News	The Champaign Unit 4 School Board rejected a charter school proposal in a 6-1 vote during a special meeting Wednesday night. School administrators who reviewed the proposal for the North Champaign Academy said it does not meet state requirements for charter schools.	5/3/2018	:60
3299	Health and Health Care	Spot News	A pharmacist in central Illinois says that HealthChoice Illinois---a recently expanded Illinois' Medicaid program---includes cuts in reimbursement rates that make it harder for small drugstores like his to stay in business.	5/3/2018	:60
3300	University of Illinois	Interview	A document on alchemy from the hand of 17th century English scientist Isaac Newton is now part of the University of Illinois Rare Book and Manuscript Library.	5/3/2018	5:00
3301	University of Illinois	Spot News	The Illini 4000 is gearing up for its annual, coast-to coast bike trip to raise money for cancer research and awareness. The group--made up primarily of University of Illinois students--has already raised $90,000 towards its $100,000 dollar goal.	5/7/2018	:60
3302	University of Illinois	Spot News	A team of University of Illinois students has come up with a solution to help prevent storm water pollution on campus. Their design just won first place in a national EPA Campus RainWater Challenge.	5/9/2018	:60
3303	University of Illinois	Spot News	The University of Illinois has gone to another Big Ten school for its next chief of police. School officials announced Wednesday that Craig Stone will be the Urbana campus' next executive director of public safety and chief of police, effective June 18.	5/9/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
3304	Business/Economy	Spot News	Organizers expect between 400 and 750 people to attend the 2018 Champaign Job Fair on Thursday. Arrow Glass, Heartland Dental, and Human Kinetics are among the roughly 90 employers expected to be on hand.	5/9/2018	:60
3305	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The Champaign County Board held a special meeting Wednesday night to hear from executives with two Evanston-based health care companies who have made an offer to buy the financially-strapped county nursing home.	5/10/2018	:60
3306	Environment	Interview	The new report from Prairie Rivers Network shows elevated nitrate levels have been measured in drinking water in many areas across the state. The group says elevated nitrate levels are associated with some serious health issues.	5/10/2018	5:00
3307	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Anecdotal reports suggest marijuana is helpful in managing symptoms of chemotherapy, like pain and nausea. But it's unlikely curious patients are getting clear guidance from their doctors on whether they should try marijuana, which form might work best and how much to take.	5/10/2018	:60
3308	Community	Spot News	Four men from Ford County were in a federal courtroom in Urbana Thursday, pleading 'not guilty' to charges related to alleged activities as a militia group called the "White Rabbits".	5/10/2018	:60
3309	Transportation	Spot News	Now that the spring semester is over at the University of Illinois, the MCORE street enhancement project is launching construction work at additional locations throughout the Urbana-Champaign campus.	5/11/2018	:60
3310	University of Illinois	Spot News	PayPal co-founder and U of I alumnus Max Levchin delivered the commencement address for the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign's 2018 commencement ceremony.	5/12/2018	:60
3311	Health and Health Care	Spot News	A new report from the University of Illinois finds the vast majority of nurses in Illinois experience violence on the job, including verbal threats, sexual harassment and physical assault.	5/14/2018	:60
3312	Community	Feature	His name was Devon McClyde, and he was 16 years old when he was caught in the crossfire of an argument while playing basketball one evening in a local park in Danville on June 8, 2016.	5/14/2018	4:30
3313	Community	Spot	Susan Burton, an advocate for those who have been imprisoned, will be	5/14/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
		News	speaking in Champaign Tuesday night about her recent memoir, "Becoming Ms. Burton."
3314	Community	Spot News	Last month, about a dozen people gathered in the basement of a church in Champaign, Ill. to learn how traumatic experiences affect the lives of children and young adults, and what they can do to mitigate its effects.	5/15/2018	4:30
3315	Government	Spot News	Governor Bruce Rauner proposed bringing back the death penalty in an amendatory veto of a gun bill, calling for its use in just two types of homicide. However, he says he's also open to other suggestions for the use of capital punishment.	5/15/2018	:60
3316	Community	Feature	The national conversation around gun violence generally centers around mass shootings, school shootings and gang activity. These problems need to be addressed, but may overshadow the largest group affected: suicide victims.	5/16/2018	4:30
3317	Government	Spot News	Champaign County officials say they've come up with an online app to help property owners find out if their land has been subdivided without their knowledge.	5/16/2018	:60
3318	Government	Spot News	University of Illinois business professor John Kindt said a U.S. Supreme Court ruling that struck down a law banning sports gambling is a big win for gambling interest groups who want to push real-time gambling.	5/16/2018	:60
3319	Community	Feature	For many families and young adults living in Peoria's South Side, gun violence is too often a part of life and something they've been fighting against — with few resources.	5/17/2018	4:30
3320	Agriculture	Spot News	Illinois Congressman Rodney Davis said a new farm bill to be voted on in the U.S. House on Friday would invest ten billion dollars over the next decade in workforce training for recipients of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) program, also known as food stamps.	5/17/2018	:60
3321	Community	Feature	Conversations around gun violence often revolve around long-term solutions, like improving schools or the local economy. But even if those things were easy — and they're not — it would take a generation to realize the benefits.	5/18/2018	4:30
3322	Community	Spot	Attendees can learn about many topics at the Immigrant Community	5/18/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
		News	Conference and Benefits Fair, including how to obtain a green card and how to become a U.S. citizen.
3323	University of Illinois	Spot News	Members of the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign's Graduate Employees Organization (GEO) said that State Rep. Jeanne Ives' disparaging comments about graduate workers last week are a distraction from a bigger issue.	5/21/2018	:60
3324	University of Illinois	Spot News	Gut bacteria are microorganisms in your body that help digest food that are known to play an important role in human health. University of Illinois Urbana Champaign researchers are among the authors of a new study in the journal mSystems that finds a link between a person's diet and their gut microbes.	5/21/2018	:60
3325	Government	Spot News	Mayor Diane Marlin will propose over $600,000 in budget cuts, when she presents her new budget plan to the Urbana City Council Monday evening. If passed in its current form, the budget would cut expenses by closing the deteriorating Urbana Civic Center.	5/21/2018	:60
3326	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The Champaign County Drug Court is designed to help people with decades of substance abuse issues. This week, 14 people will celebrate a year of sobriety as they graduate from the voluntary program that's been running for almost 20 years.	5/22/2018	:60
3327	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Researchers will gather in Champaign for the Sixth Annual LGBTQ Research Symposium—a two-day event filled with workshops and discussions related to studying LGBTQ issues.	5/23/2018	:60
3328	Women and Minorities	Spot News	The report says immigrants in Champaign County contributed more than $1.4 billion to the area's economy in 2016, and paid more than $57 million in state and local taxes.	5/24/2018	:60
3329	Health and Health Care	Feature	The Champaign County Board is scheduled to vote Thursday evening on an offer to buy the county nursing home. Both supporters and opponents of the proposal warn of dire consequences if the other side prevails.	5/24/2018	4:30
3330	Health and Health Care	Spot News	As the Champaign County Board prepares to vote on the sale of its nursing home, Champaign County Health Care Consumers says the prospective buyers	5/24/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
			--- two firms with ties to the Rothner family --- have been records when it comes to staffing and resident safety.
3331	Government	Spot News	A bill aimed at preventing workplace violence against healthcare workers passed in the Illinois House on Wednesday May 23.	5/24/2018	:60
3332	Health and Health Care	Spot News	With more than 100 people looking on, the Champaign County Board voted 15 to 6 Thursday night to sell the financially strapped county nursing home.	5/25/2018	:60
3333	Education	Spot News	The union says the district is refusing to bargain with the CFT over teachers changing classrooms due to upcoming building reconstruction and renovations.	5/25/2018	:60
3334	Education	Interview	Children who experience trauma often face behavioral, health and academic challenges, according to decades of research.	5/25/2018	6:00
3335	Education	Spot News	The Champaign teachers union says the Champaign Unit 4 School District is violating labor law by refusing to bargain over compensation and support for teachers who have to move their classrooms.	5/25/2018	:60
3336	Education	Spot News	The Illinois Senate passed a revised bill on May 24, after earlier measures stalled in the House. The bill aims to protect the Mahomet Aquifer, east central Illinois' primary water source, from underground natural gas leaks.	5/28/2018	:60
3337	Community	Interview	Memorial Day has a little extra meaning this year for Scott Althaus. That's because he now knows what happened to one of his relatives who was lost during World War Two. Tom Kelly was one of eleven men who disappeared in 1944 off the coast of Papua New Guinea in a B-24 bomber.	5/28/2018	8:00
3338	Community	Spot News	Community members gathered at the Urbana Free Library on Tuesday evening to hear stories of those affected by gun violence and to learn more about the Everytown Survivor Network—an initiative of Moms Demand Action.	5/30/2018	:60
3339	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Up to 20 percent of women experience perinatal depression, which occurs during pregnancy or after giving birth. Karen Tabb, social work professor at the University of Illinois, studies factors that put women at risk of perinatal depression, which is associated with worse outcomes for both mom and baby.	5/30/2018	:60
3340	Environment	Spot News	The City of Champaign has closed sections of two roads to repair pavement failures.	5/30/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
3341	Environment	Interview	A local environmental group is suing Dynegy to force the energy company to clean coal ash pits along the Middle Fork of the Vermilion River west of Danville.	5/31/2018	4:30
3342	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Behavioral health service providers in Illinois would see a slight rate increase under the budget passed by the General Assembly today.	5/31/2018	:60
3343	University of Illinois	Interview	The University of Illinois is slated to receive an extra $11.6 million under the new state budget approved by lawmakers this week. U of I President Timothy Killeen said the two percent increase in state spending on higher education will bring the university system's total budget for the next fiscal year to just under $600 million.	5/31/2018	3:30
3344	Business/Economy	Spot News	The post-recession economic expansion shows no sign of ending, nationwide or in Illinois. One piece of evidence is the latest University of Illinois Flash Index to the Illinois economy. It rose in May to 104.9, from April's 104.7.	6/1/2018	:60
3345	Community	Spot News	Illinois State Police have arrested a Kevin L. Casey, 53, of Janesville, Wisconsin, in connection with a string of incidents involving damage to vehicles on Interstate 74.	6/3/2018	:60
3346	Environment	Spot News	Members of the Mahomet Aquifer Task Force met in Monticello last Friday to discuss strategies to protect the Mahomet Aquifer--East Central Illinois' primary water source--from accidental contamination.	6/4/2018	:60
3347	Community	Spot News	Bond for a Wisconsin man arrested in connection with multiple vehicle window breaks on Interstate 74 is set at $2 million dollars. Illinois State Police spoke about their investigation and the charges against Kevin L. Casey during a press conference today.	6/4/2018	:60
3348	Health and Health Care	Feature	In recent years, county jails across the nation have taken steps to try to keep inmates with mental illness from cycling in and out of jail. One approach involves stepped up mental health screening, coupled with efforts to get inmates plugged into community-based treatment after they are released.	6/5/2018	4:00
3349	Agriculture	Spot News	Mexico has announced it will begin taxing a range of U.S. farm products. These include pork, cheese, apples and potatoes. The move is in retaliation to	6/5/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
			tariffs the Trump administration imposed last Friday -- on Mexico, Canada, and the European Union.
3350	University of Illinois	Spot News	The Illini 4000 are 20 bicyclists who are spending the summer cycling from coast to coast, to raise money for cancer research and support groups. Some University of Illinois administrators joined the group of mostly U of I students Tuesday morning in Rockville in western Indiana, for their ride to Champaign-Urbana Illinois and the U of I's flagship campus there.	6/5/2018	:60
3351	Government	Spot News	Under the new state budget, caregivers for people with disabilities will see an hourly wage increase of 50 cents an hour. The state-funded workers are known as direct service providers. They provide in-home care for people with disabilities, helping them dress, bathe, and perform other tasks.	6/6/2018	:60
3352	Government	Spot News	Champaign-Urbana community members gathered yesterday at the Carpenters Hall in Champaign for a town hall with State Senator Scott Bennett and State Representative Carol Ammons. The Democrats answered questions from constituents about the state budget that Governor Rauner signed into law this week.	6/7/2018	:60
3353	University of Illinois	Interview	Simple, everyday tasks – like ordering coffee, crossing the street, or getting gas – can be an obstacle, or an intimidating challenge for people recently released from prison. This is especially true for people who have spent many years behind bars.	6/7/2018	4:00
3354	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Across the country, states desperate to prevent opioid addiction are increasingly looking to medical cannabis as a solution.	6/8/2018	:60
3355	Health and Health Care	Interview	A new review finds that segregation, poverty and lack of access to health care facilities are linked to lower rates of survival for African-American women with breast cancer.	6/11/2018	4:30
3356	Education	Spot News	Two bills recently passed the state legislature that aim to keep more Illinois high school students in state for college.	6/11/2018	:60
3357	University of Illinois	Spot News	University of Illinois athletic director Josh Whitman likened sports facilities to home computers. They're already obsolete when you buy them.	6/12/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
3358	Environment	Spot News	Two tornadoes with winds up to 85 miles an hour briefly touched down in Champaign on Sunday around 2 p.m. While no one was hurt, it only took the two tornadoes about a minute to damage a number of homes in the Champaign area, knocking out the power to many more.	6/12/2018	:60
3359	Health and Health Care	Spot News	A consultant with 30 years of experience in state and federal reforms will oversee efforts in Illinois to expand children's mental health services, according to a motion approved by a federal judge today.	6/13/2018	:60
3360	University of Illinois	Spot News	Gov. Bruce Rauner said he wants to expand the University of Illinois system with billions of dollars from private investors. Rauner shared his plan with students and staff at the U of I's Urbana campus during a tour of the university's electrical and computer engineering building on Wednesday.	6/14/2018	:60
3361	Health and Health Care	Spot News	A recent report from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention finds the suicide rate in Illinois increased more than 20 percent over the past two decades. Across the U.S., suicide rates have risen an average of 30 percent in that same time period.	6/14/2018	:60
3362	Environment	Spot News	A clean water advocacy group says two thirds of water bodies in Illinois are unsafe. Those water bodies include streams, lakes and rivers across the state.	6/14/2018	:60
3363	Community	Spot News	CU Fresh Start offers people with a history of gun-related crimes a second chance at life. The anti-gun violence initiative hosted its fourth "call-in" event Thursday night at the Illinois Terminal in Champaign.	6/15/2018	:60
3364	Environment	Interview	Seventeen people are suing Peoples Gas for damages related to a natural gas leak north of Mahomet that affected their drinking water.	6/15/2018	4:30
3365	Community	Spot News	The Champaign Park District is holding a Juneteenth celebration on Saturday June 16 at Douglass Park in Champaign commemorating the Emancipation Proclamation when it was recognized in Texas 153 years ago.	6/15/2018	:60
3366	Environment	Spot News	Some of the 17 plaintiffs in a lawsuit filed against People's Gas spoke out at a Mahomet Aquifer Task Force meeting on Monday in Mahomet. They asked the state advisory panel to help ensure they have clean water, after their water wells were contaminated by a gas leak	6/19/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
3367	Government	Spot News	State Senator Chapin Rose says he believes Governor Bruce Rauner will sign his bill placing more requirements on the Manlove underground gas storage field in Champaign County.	6/19/2018	:60
3368	Business/Economy	Spot News	“What’s In Your Square?” the city of Urbana’s search for ways to revitalize Lincoln Square is moving to a new level, with a series of public meetings.	6/20/2018	:60
3369	University of Illinois	Spot News	University of Illinois System President Timothy Killeen said he is excited the U of I system will lead the Discovery Partners Institute. The DPI is a new research institute where students will work alongside researchers and businesses.	6/20/2018	:60
3370	Education	Feature	Chuck Bleyer is worried the southern Illinois school district he heads won’t be able to fill an open teacher position by the time classes start this fall.	6/21/2018	4:00
3371	Government	Spot News	U.S. Senator Dick Durbin said President Trump’s executive order ending his family separation policy does nothing to help over 2,000 children already separated from their parents at the US--Mexico border.	6/21/2018	:60
3372	Business/Economy	Feature	Lincoln Square Mall and the old hotel adjacent to it were built to attract people and dollars to downtown Urbana. Both buildings have seen better days. But city officials hope to revitalize the Lincoln Square area — and they’re asking the public for ideas.	6/21/2018	4:00
3373	Community	Spot News	More than 200 people demonstrated outside a Champaign hotel Saturday, where they believe federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents stay when working on cases in Champaign County.	6/23/2018	:60
3374	Health and Health Care	Spot News	When it comes to signing up for Medicare, the different components can be confusing for some. But a health care advocacy group in Champaign wants people to know they’re here to help.	6/25/2018	:60
3375	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Carle will be sending medical personnel out to patients in underserved areas in a new mobile health clinic.	6/26/2018	:60
3376	Education	Spot News	Eastern Illinois University will launch an overhaul of its programs and colleges starting next month, with the start of the new fiscal year. It will bring with it a number of changes to the university in Charleston intended to make it more	6/26/2018	:60

Coverage of Community Issues

Program Data

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field 1
			appealing to a wider range of students
3377	Politics/Elections	Spot News	The mayor of Champaign says Governor Rauner could be coming to Champaign-Urbana soon to apologize in person for disparaging remarks he made about the area on a radio talk show.	6/27/2018	:60
3378	Government	Spot News	Congressman Rodney Davis says the U.S. House will now focus on legislation to keep immigrant families together at the border. That's after a broader effort to overhaul immigration policy failed this week, and divided Republicans in congress.	6/29/2018	:60
3379	Community	Spot News	The group gathered at the Douglass branch of the Champaign Public Library for a special meeting of the Champaign Community Coalition. It was an opportunity, said facilitator Tracy Parsons, to brainstorm why shootings are on the rise, and what the community can do to curb the violence.	6/30/2018	:60
3380	Community	Spot News	Amid sweltering heat with index values of well over 100 degrees, hundreds of demonstrators turned out to protest the separation of children and parents at the U.S-Mexico border. The demonstration was one of more than 700 planned across the country on Saturday.	6/30/2018	:60	