

WILL-AM, Urbana, Illinois, licensee: The University of Illinois.

4th Quarter, 2015 / October 1 – December 31, 2015.

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1269	Business/Economy	Spot News	The University of Illinois Flash Index to the Illinois economy fell half a point in September, to 106.0.	10/1/2015
1344	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Former Governor Pat Quinn says his predecessor should take a break from politics to govern. As Hannah Meisel reports, Quinn made a rare public appearance in Champaign today (THURSDAY) as the state entered its fourth month without a budget.	10/1/2015
1485	Government	Spot News	Quinn: Budget Impasse “Disappointing” But Won’t Run For Office. Former Gov. Pat Quinn says his successor should take a break from politics to govern as Illinois enters its fourth month without a budget. Quinn made his comments at a rare public appearance in Champaign Thursday	10/1/2015
1271	Business/Economy	Spot News	US Rep. Rodney Davis (R-Taylorville) toured a small manufacturing plant in Champaign to tout legislation to encourage job training in the manufacturing sector.	10/2/2015
1282	Arts and Culture	Interview	Maraid Nesbitt talks about playing with Celtic Woman for the last ten years	10/2/2015	6:45
1429	Community	Interview	Brian Moline talks with Illinois Radio Reader's Kathie Spiegall about the upcoming Vintage Vinyl sale.	10/2/2015	4:00
1345	Government	Spot News	Illinois has now gone a quarter of a year without a budget...which means the state is coming up short on funds in some places the public usually doesn't see. Illinois' treasurer warned this week that as the budget impasse in Springfield wears on, the state may have to sell off $10-billion dollars in investments if it can't pay fees to banks that hold state accounts.	10/3/2015
1484	Government	Spot News	Governor Attends Dedication For New Center For Wounded Veterans At U Of I. The Chez Family Foundation Center for Wounded Veterans will help veterans with disabilities get college degrees and make the transition from military to civilian life.	10/3/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1270	Environment	Spot News	The Urbana City Council will consider a resolution pledging to continue working with Mahomet Aquifer Coalition members and citizens' groups to get new legislation to protect drinking water.	10/5/2015
1346	Government	Spot News	Though Illinois has gone over three months without a budget, state government is anything but shutdown. Court orders and existing law have made it possible for the largest chunks of the state's financial obligations to be paid...except for the state's 12 public colleges and universities. That includes the University of Illinois, where Governor Bruce Rauner made a stop on Friday to dedicate the opening of a veterans center on the school's Urbana campus.	10/5/2015
1347	Government	Spot News	Leaders of several state universities and community colleges are sounding the alarm as they begin month three of receiving no money from Illinois. State support for Illinois' 12 public universities and its 49 community colleges is the largest part of the state government that isn't being funded during Springfield's budget impasse.	10/5/2015
1348	Government	Spot News	Three months into Illinois' partial government shutdown, the state's public universities and community colleges are the biggest chunk of Illinois government not receiving money. As Hannah Meisel reports, the budget impasse is beginning to reach students.	10/5/2015
1430	Women and Minorities	Interview	Brian Moline talks with Chicago sports reporter Julie DiCaro about the discrimination and hate speech she faces regularly via social media.	10/5/2015	7:30
1481	Government	Spot News	Amid Budget Impasse, Universities Hurting But See Some Good In Rauner Plan. Illinois public colleges and universities have become collateral damage in the state's months-long budget impasse, fueled by political stalemate between Illinois' Republican Governor Bruce Rauner and the Democratically controlled General Assembly. Rauner says he's willing to consider more state revenue to pay for support to items like public colleges and universities...but only if the Democratically controlled General Assembly passes his pro-business, union-weakening "Turnaround Agenda " first.	10/5/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1482	Education	Spot News	Higher Education Officials: Lack Of State Budget Is Crippling Operations. Leaders of several state universities and community colleges are sounding the alarm as they begin month three of receiving no money from Illinois. State support for Illinois' 12 public universities and its 49 community colleges is the largest part of the state government that isn't being funded during Springfield's budget impasse.	10/5/2015
1483	Government	Spot News	Rauner Blames Democrats For Three Months Of No Funding For Colleges. Though Illinois has gone over three months without a budget, to the average citizen, state government seems anything but shut down. Court orders and existing law have made it possible for the largest chunks of the state's financial obligations to be paid...except for the state's 12 public colleges and universities.	10/5/2015
1349	Government	Spot News	Illinois public colleges and universities have become collateral damage in the state's months-long budget impasse, fueled by political stalemate between Illinois' Republican Governor Bruce Rauner and the Democratically controlled General Assembly. Rauner says he's willing to consider more state revenue to pay for support to items like public colleges and universities...but only if the Democratically controlled General Assembly passes his pro-business, union-weakening "Turnaround Agenda " first.	10/6/2015
1376	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The Medical Cannabis Advisory Board is being asked on October 7 to add 8 more qualifying conditions for when the first product is available.	10/7/2015
1431	Sports	Interview	Brian Moline talks with Bleacher Nation's Brett Taylor about the Chicago Cubs' playoff appearance	10/7/2015	4:00
1350	Government	Spot News	The Illinois Department of Transportation may be wrapping up its busy construction season, but the upcoming winter will mean more repairs for road crews to work on next summer. But, as Hannah Meisel reports, that depends on getting a state budget in place first.	10/8/2015
1351	Government	Spot News	It's been nine months since Illinois' income tax rate dropped when a temporary tax hike rolled back on January first. And though the state is operating without a budget, Illinois is already spending over 90 percent of	10/8/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
			what it spent last year. As Hannah Meisel reports, this has already led to a cash shortage.
1377	Arts and Culture	Interview	Jackie Taylor with Chicago's Black Ensemble Theater talks about why she wrote and directed 'The Black White Love Play' - story of Roger and Chaz Ebert's marriage.	10/8/2015
1466	Women and Minorities	Feature	Sharon Cooper visited the University of Illinois' Urbana campus to talk about her little sister Sandra Bland. Bland was pulled over in Waller County, TX for allegedly failing to signal a lane change on July 10th. There are many questions about what happened next. The struggle between her and state trooper, Brian Encinia, was recorded by the dash cam and a bystander's cell phone.	10/8/2015
1480	Government	Spot News	Comptroller: Illinois Just Scraping By On Bills. It's been nine months since Illinois' income tax rate dropped when a temporary tax hike rolled back on January first. And though the state is operating without a budget, Illinois is already spending over 90 percent of what it spent last year...which has already led to a cash shortage.	10/8/2015
1295	Environment	Spot News	The Macon County Board is the 13th local government to endorse a consent decree with the Clinton Landfill.	10/9/2015
1352	Community	Spot News	Third annual CU Oktoberfest benefits the Developmental Services Center in Champaign.	10/9/2015
1432	Sports	Interview	Brian Moline and St. Louis Public Radio's Tim Eby place a friendly wager on the outcome of the Cubs-Cardinals playoff series.	10/10/2015	3:30
1353	Education	Spot News	Eastern Illinois University president David Glassman promised in a letter to campus that the university in Charleston would operate a full spring semester, despite worries caused by the state budget impasse.	10/12/2015
1378	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The chair of Illinois' Medical Cannabis Advisory Board says she can't understand the governor's blanket rejections of new conditions to be treated by the drug.	10/12/2015
1433	Health and Health Care	Interview	Brian Moline speaks with Bernard Hammes of Gundersen Health Systems about the importance of end-of-life discussions in healthcare.	10/12/2015	7:00

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1354	University of Illinois	Interview	An interview with Stephen Salaita, about his dispute with the University of Illinois, which withdrew his faculty appointment, following his controversial tweets about israel.	10/14/2015
1379	Government	Spot News	Urbana City Council members have voted 3-2 in committee to pay the city's $95,000 contribution towards METCAD 911 service.	10/14/2015
1355	Business/Economy	Spot News	East Central Illinois Congressman Rodney Davis (R-13) says he's optimistic about the future for trade with Cuba, after returning from an agricultural trade trip to the island nation, along with Illinois Congresswoman Cheri Bustos (D-17).	10/15/2015
1434	Community	Feature	Urbana's Ray Spooner is planning to ride his bicycle all the way across the country. He and his group are setting out from San Diego, California this weekend. But what Ray is calling his "little ride," is anything but little.	10/15/2015	7:45
1462	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Nearly 100 people attended Tuesday's Champaign County board meeting to show support for forming a racial justice task force.	10/15/2015
1356	Environment	Spot News	The Mahomet Valley Water Authority become the final member of a 14-govt. coalition to approve a consent decree with the Clinton Landfill; meanwhile W.A.T.C.H. Clinton Landfill announced a new lawsuit against the landfill.	10/16/2015
1380	Sports	Interview	Former major league outfielder Doug Glaville discusses the upcoming playoff series between the Chicago Cubs and New York Mets.	10/16/2015
1435	Community	Interview	Brian Moline talks with "That's What She Said" co-founder Kerry Rossow about the third annual show at the Virginia Theatre.	10/16/2015	4:00
1357	Government	Spot News	A proposal to add money to the Urbana city budget to pay for an increase in the fee for 911 dispatch service has been deferred; Mayor Laurel Prussing says that will give her time to negotiate a longer payment schedule.	10/20/2015
1358	Education	Spot News	University of Illinois Urbana campus interim Provost Edward Feser says the campus is cutting spending to adjust to the state budget impasse, and expectations of significant reductions in state funding.	10/20/2015
1436	Government	Interview	Brian Moline and Independent Maps' Executive Director Cindi Canary discuss the group's effort to get a redistricting question on the 2016 ballot.	10/20/2015	3:33

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1359	Environment	Spot News	University of Illinois unveils an updated Climate Action Plan for the Urbana campus, outlining objectives towards reaching a goal of a carbon neutral campus by 2050; plans to achieve carbon neutrality by 2035 are also being considered.	10/21/2015
1360	Government	Spot News	Champaign County Board Chair Pattsy Petrie says she hopes to have form a Racial Justice Task Force in time to hold its first meeting in January.	10/23/2015
1437	Community	Feature	In an update to a story from August, the winless Wild Bohrs softball team, made up of U of I Physics students and faculty, finally picked up a victory.	10/23/2015	3:30
1456	Government	Interview	Tom Gjeltel on his book Nation of Nations about immigration in the US	10/23/2015	8:00
1381	Sports	Interview	Brett Taylor from the Cubs website Bleacher Nation discusses the team's quick exit from the National League Championship Series against the Mets.	10/26/2015
1438	Government	Interview	Former Congressman and US Secretary of Transportation Ray LaHood discusses his new book "Seeking Bipartisanship," and why he thinks cooperation has waned in Washington, D.C.	10/26/2015	7:10
1361	Science and Technology	Spot News	University of Illinois food scientist John Erdman says a new WHO report pointing out links between cancer and processed meat doesn't mean you can't have some bacon now and then.	10/27/2015
1447	Government	Interview	Interview with Dan Jones about his new book on the Margna Carta	10/27/2015	8:00
1362	Community	Spot News	Champaign Police are seeking a suspect in an armed robbery at the First Financial Bank on Prospect Avenue.	10/28/2015
1382	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Jen Tayabji with Champaign County Health Care Consumers expects a more user friendly process as another enrollment period is about to start for the Affordable Care Act.	10/28/2015
1446	Arts and Culture	Interview	Interview with new All Things Considered national host, Kelly McEvers, about her Midwestern roots & All Things Considered	10/28/2015	7:30
1448	Arts and Culture	Feature	The story of a St. Louisan who had never been up the Arch going up for the first time in honor of the Arch's 50th birthday	10/28/2015	4:00
1452	Arts and Culture	Feature	Builders of the Arch share their experiences buildign it on the Arch's 50th birthday	10/28/2015	3:50

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1363	Science and Technology	Spot News	Exelon says it will wait a year before deciding what to do with its money-losing Clinton nuclear power plant, following word that it would do the same with two money-losing nuclear plants in northern Illinois.	10/29/2015
1383	Arts and Culture	Spot News	Chanute Air Musuem Curator Mark Hanson talks about the decision to shut down the facility early, as plans are underway to move many exhibits.	10/29/2015
1479	Women and Minorities	Feature	Halloween Cultural Costumes Raising Debate On Stereotypes And Racism. It's the time of the year when department stores stock their shelves with different outfits for Halloween, including costumes of other cultures. Sexy Geisha, Hey Amigo Mexican man and replicas of Native American headdresses are some real life examples of cultural costumes and they can be found on various Halloween websites. Cultural costumes have led to a controversial dilemma over whether or not they are racist, sexist and perpetuate cultural appropriation.	10/29/2015
1364	Education	Spot News	Illinois Congressman Rodney Davis introduced a bill that will les employeres offer a tax-free benefit that would help new hired pay off student loan debt.	10/30/2015
1365	Education	Spot News	State education data released Friday as part of the annual Illinois Report Card show Illinois high schools are sending many graduates to college unprepared. State Schools Supt. Tony Smith says local schools need more resources to help students.	10/30/2015
1366	Arts and Culture	Spot News	Noting a reived interest in vinyl records, the Urbana Free Library has launched a collection of vinyl records for checkout.	10/30/2015
1393	Education	Spot News	The University of Illinois is officially asking Illinois leaders to come to terms on a state budget for the current fiscal year.	10/30/2015
1454	Arts and Culture	Interview	NEH Chairman William Adams On The Humanities' Role In The US	10/30/2015	8:00
1367	Community	Spot News	Champaign Police arrested a 17 year old male after an alleged carjacking attempt and 7-hour standoff.	10/31/2015
1368	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Illinois Republicans were divided on the new federal budget agreement that passed Congress.	11/2/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1369	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Illinois Republicans were divided in voting for Paul Ryan as the new US House Speaker.	11/2/2015
1478	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Mike Madigan Running For General Assembly...No, Not That One. Urbana businessman and city council member Mike Madigan is running for the 52nd state senate district, he announced Monday in Champaign.	11/2/2015
1370	Sports	Spot News	Former Illini Tatyana McFadden won the Women's Wheelchair Division of the New York City Marathon for the third straight year yesterday.	11/3/2015
1439	Agriculture	Interview	Mark Shepard, CEO of Forest Agriculture Enterprises, discusses restoration agriculture and how he thinks agriculture needs to evolve in the 21st century.	11/3/2015	4:15
1371	Community	Spot News	The Champaign City Council voted to allow its police department to buy Tasers.	11/4/2015
1372	Transportation	Spot News	An analyst for gasbuddy.com says the current sawtooth pattern of rise-and-fall gasoline prices reflects heavy emphasis on price competition for gasoline retailers in the Great Lakes states.	11/4/2015
1384	Business/Economy	Spot News	A spokesman for Kraft Heinz says it's not known how many jobs will be lost in Champaign as part of the company's downsizing - and part of the cheese production is shifted to other plants.	11/4/2015
1440	Community	Interview	Sergeant Marcus Beach of the Rantoul Police Department is an instructor for the use of tasers. He discusses the training process.	11/4/2015	3:30
1458	Arts and Culture	Interview	Paula Poundstone On Stand Up Comedy, Libraries & 'Wait! Wait! Don't Tell Me!'	11/5/2015	8:00
1373	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Republicans in Illinois' downstate Congressional caucus are not pleased with President Obama's rejection of the proposed Keystone XL oil pipeline today.	11/6/2015
1441	Community	Interview	Comedian Bill Maher talks about why his brand of "politically incorrect" entertainment has been so successful ahead of an appearance at Champaign's Virginia Theatre.	11/6/2015	4:00
1385	Sports	Interview	Former Illini Basketball Coach Lou Henson discusses his health, his daily routine, and memories of his days leading the team.	11/8/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1386	Sports	Spot News	Illini women's basketball coach Matt Bollant says he's relieved that a law firm's report found no evidence of wrongdoing. Seven former players have sued, alleging a 'racially hostile environment'.	11/10/2015
1442	Government	Interview	Capitol Fax's Rich Miller discusses the Illinois budget impasse and what he thinks should be done by both sides to solve it.	11/10/2015	7:00
1374	Environment	Feature	A settlement of a court dispute between the owners of the Clinton Landfill and local governments may not be the last word on the issue.	11/11/2015
1387	Government	Spot News	Champaign City Council members have given their initial approval to a $95-million downtown development proposal that includes hotel and conference space and the possible re-locating of the Orpheum Theater.	11/11/2015
1389	Health and Health Care	Interview	This segment from WILL-TV's Illinois Pioneers remembers the U of I's 'Father of Accessibility' Tim Nugent, who has died at the age of 92.	11/11/2015
1375	Environment	Spot News	A settlement of a court dispute between the owners of the Clinton Landfill and local governments was formally entered into court.	11/12/2015
1388	University of Illinois	Spot News	On a 9-1 vote, University of Illinois Trustees have approved an $875-thousand dollar settlement with Steven Salaita with includes a lump-sum payment and legal fees.	11/12/2015
1477	Women and Minorities	Spot News	U Of I Students Expected To Address Racial Tensions On Campus. After students sent in personal stories about racial oppressions experienced at the U of I campus, many of those students will share their stories with the public at a vigil Thursday evening.	11/12/2015
1443	Education	Interview	U of I professor Amanda Lewis co-authored a new book examining the reasons for racial disparities in schools, even ones that seem like perfect candidates to succeed.	11/13/2015	3:40
1395	Sports	Spot News	Illinois lost its men's basketball season opener to North Florida, 93 to 81 last (Friday) night in Springfield.	11/14/2015
1391	Community	Interview	Two years after the Gifford tornado, Christina Gann talks about her her memories of leading volunteer efforts and how the community has recovered.	11/16/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1476	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Governors: Illinois, Indiana Will Stop Accepting Syrian Refugees. Illinois is one of 15 states closing its borders to Syrian refugees in the wake of the terrorist attacks in France on Friday. But it's unclear if this move is legal under federal law.	11/16/2015
1475	Environment	Feature	Controversial Trade Deal Draws Heavy Lobbying From U.S. Agribusiness. Industry experts believe agribusinesses, farmers and food companies are likely the agreement's biggest winners.	11/18/2015
1396	Science and Technology	Feature	The University of Illinois has opened a solar farm, which provides 2% of the electricity for the Urbana campus.	11/19/2015
1413	Community	Spot News	Parkland College in Champaign evacuates after a bomb threat was posted to social media. A search with bomb-sniffing dogs found no explosives.	11/19/2015
1444	Community	Interview	Filmmaker Nick Berardini examines the use of tasers by police in the new documentary, "Killing Them Safely."	11/19/2015	6:30
1465	Women and Minorities	Spot News	The U of I's rally is one of many across the country in solidarity with the University of Missouri students, whose protests against racism spurred the resignation of Mizzou's president and other school officials last week.	11/19/2015
1414	Health and Health Care	Spot News	An outbreak of mumps on the University of Illinois campus that surpassed 100 cases in the summer has seen a steady decline since. Champaign-Urbana's Public Health District believes the outbreak could be over after winter break.	11/23/2015
1463	Women and Minorities	Feature	The University of Illinois' Urbana campus, black students came together to show support for the students at Mizzou, and to share their own experiences with racism. Hours later, a Facebook group appeared that denounced the protesters.legitimate.	11/24/2015
1397	Education	Spot News	Area community college officials discuss the impact of the state budget impasse and the likelihood of getting state funding this budget year.	11/25/2015
1398	Arts and Culture	Interview	Chef Jessica Gorin of the Big Grove Tavern in Champaign offers tips for preparing Thanksgiving leftovers.	11/27/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1394	Business/Economy	Spot News	Groundbreaking ceremonies were held today in Decatur.	11/30/2015
1399	Women and Minorities	Interview	Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White remembers taking part in the bus boycott in Montgomery Alabama, 60 years ago.	12/1/2015
1400	Community	Spot News	Authorites say Jacob Morrissey of Mahomet apparently killed himself after a standoff with police in Rantoul.	12/1/2015
1474	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Candidate, Former Prosecutor Zopp Denounces Laquan McDonald Delay. A former prosecutor in the Cook County State's Attorney's office says it took far too long to investigate the shooting death of Chicago teen Laquan McDonald at the hands of a white police officer. That prosecutor happens to be running for U.S. Senate.	12/1/2015
1445	Agriculture	Interview	Leland Strom, Project Director for FARM Illinois, talks about his group's goals for Illinois agriculture over the next decade.	12/2/2015	3:45
1415	Arts and Culture	Interview	Fomer David Letterman writer Steve Young previews the program of Industrial Musicals at Champaign's Art Theater Co-op, discussing the history of the shows.	12/3/2015
1449	Science and Technology	Interview	Joanne Manaster from the U of I College of Life Science discusses some recent research happening on campus.	12/4/2015
1459	Business/Economy	Interview	A Mitsubishi Worker On The Normal Plant's Upcoming Closure	12/5/2015	8:00
1401	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Congressmen Rodney Davis and John Shimkus had nothing but criticism for President Obama's speech on the terrorist threat.	12/7/2015
1402	Government	Spot News	The Urbana City Council gets a close look tonight (Monday) at a task force report that finds Urbana Police have been stopping a disproportionate number of minority motorists, compared to the general population.	12/7/2015
1416	Community	Spot News	Peter Resnick of Urbana's IDOT Traffic Stop Task Force previews Monday's Urbana City Council meeting, in which members can question the results of a year-long study.	12/7/2015
1450	Community	Interview	Bestselling author Wes Moore discusses his book, "The Other Wes Moore," which was chosen for the "One Book, One Campus" program at the U of I.	12/8/2015	4:00

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1417	Community	Spot News	The head of Champaign-based domestic violence shelter Courage Connection has learned its state grant is coming through, went the agency was days away from announcing layoffs.	12/9/2015
1403	Sports	Spot News	The Yale men's basketball team is expected to be a contender for an Ivy League championship. But they couldn't quite keep up with the Illini, who scratched out a down-to-the-wire, 69 to 65 victory.	12/10/2015
1473	Government	Feature	Documents Show How Un-Fired Officer Is Back On Patrol. This past spring, a Champaign police officer was let back on patrol after nearly being fired for excessive use of force. Eight months later, videos and documents have finally been released showing multiple accounts of the officer using force against civilians.	12/10/2015
1418	Community	Spot News	A second proposed lawsuit settlement has been announced involving Champaign Police officer Matt Rush. City Council members will vote on the $225,000 proposal Tuesday.	12/11/2015
1451	Community	Feature	An update on Urbana's Ray Spooner, who completed his "little ride" to raise money for ALS.	12/11/2015	7:00
1471	Government	Feature	Champaign Police Officer Remains On Patrol, Despite Lawsuits & Attempt To Dismiss Him. The Champaign Police Department tried to fire Officer Matt Rush last year, after a string of citizen complaints and lawsuits, but an arbitrator changed the dismissal to 34 days of suspension, and he remains on duty.	12/11/2015
1472	Women and Minorities	Spot News	U of I Forum on Black Student Protests Draws Hundreds. The university's Department of African-American Studies was the main sponsor of the forum focused on the black Lives Matter Movement and Black student protest on campus, in Champaign-Urbana and beyond.	12/11/2015
1404	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Carle Foundation Hospital in Urbana is paying a penalty to Medicare for the 2nd year in a row, due to a high rate of patient infections and complications.	12/14/2015
1419	Health and Health Care	Spot News	The Champaign-Urbana Public Health District reports a jump in mumps cases the last few weeks. There were eight in November, but 24 in December.	12/14/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1461	Arts and Culture	Interview	Downton Abbey historical adviser Alastair Bruce on filming and his Downton Abbey manners special	12/14/2015	8:00
1405	Government	Spot News	For the second time in two weeks, the Champaign City Council will vote on a proposed settlement of a lawsuit involving the same police officers.	12/15/2015
1420	Community	Spot News	Champaign County Circuit Clerk Katie Blakeman has the Illinois Supreme Court to allow those with minor traffic offenses to pay their fines on line.	12/15/2015
1453	Science and Technology	Interview	U of I professor Julie Turnock discusses how "Star Wars" has influenced the development of movie special effects over the past 40 years.	12/15/2015	4:00
1464	Women and Minorities	Spot News	Twenty protesters laid on the sidewalk outside the courthouse as Kadeem Fuller read the names of fifty black men and women who had died at the hands of police officers.	12/15/2015
1406	Science and Technology	Spot News	The new solar farm at the University of Illinois has passed another milestone. It's now officially supplying electricity to the Urbana campus under an agreement between the university and the solar farm's operator.	12/16/2015
1421			Champaign City Council signs off on the second lawsuit settlement involving officer Matt Rush. Before the approval of the $225,000 was approved, protesters paraded downtown, demanding that Rush resign. There are also demands for a citizens police review board.	12/16/2015
1422	Community	Spot News	Champaign City Council member Will Kyles says he needs more time to discuss the concept of a police review board that has subpoena powers with council members and the Fraternal Order of Police.	12/17/2015
1423	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Social service agency Community Elements is merging with Rockford-based Rosecrance, expanding mental health and substance abuse treatment. It takes effect July 1.	12/18/2015
1455	Agriculture	Interview	U of I economist Craig Gunderson talks about the link between the SNAP program and obesity.	12/19/2015	4:00
1407	Transportation	Spot News	Gasoline prices continued to fall last week in Illinois and Indiana, despite a price increase in the Champaign-Urbana area.	12/21/2015

Coverage of Community Issues
ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1424	Health and Health Care	Spot News	Community Elements CEO Shelia Ferguson says the budget stalemate has meant some cuts earlier in the year, and having to identify priorities, including services at the Times Center.	12/21/2015
1469	Arts and Culture	Feature	'Star Wars' Awakens A New Generation. University of Illinois students and Roger Ebert Fellows Ashish Valentine, Riane Lenzner-White and Shalayne Pulia reviewed the opening-night screening of The Force Awakens and convened in the studios of Chicago Public Radio to discuss what the Star Wars phenomenon meant (or didn't mean) to them, going into the film	12/21/2015
1470	Science and Technology	Interview	U of I Professor Recounts Appearance At UN Climate Summit. University of Illinois Professor Stephen Long discusses his talk at the recent U.N. Climate Summit in Paris about the need to improve agricultural productivity, and his own work to develop more plants with more efficient photosynthesis.	12/21/2015
1468	Women and Minorities	Feature	Muslim Students Confront Stereotypes. After the attacks in Paris and San Bernardino, many Muslims in the United States find themselves confronting stereotypes about their culture and religion. That includes Muslim students at the University of Illinois.	12/22/2015
1408	Community	Feature	Members of Decatur's Muslim community share their thoughts on the current national debate over terrorism.	12/23/2015
1457	Community	Interview	Champaign County State's Attorney Julia Rietz discusses recent excessive use of force complaints against an Champaign police officer and how her office deals with these issues.	12/23/2015	7:30
1425	Community	Spot News	Heavy rains have prompted flood watches and warnings, and Sidney Mayor Charles White says there are limited routes into town because of flooded roads.	12/28/2015
1460	Government	Interview	Illinois Public Radio Statehouse Bureau Chief Amanda Vinicky talks about the year in government and politics.	12/28/2015	7:00
1409	Community	Spot News	The rain has tapered off, but the flooding continues in Central Illinois.	12/29/2015

Coverage of Community Issues

ID	category	type	description	broadcastDate	length	Field1
1426	Transportation	Spot News	Tracy Winger with the Champaign County Highway Department says floodwaters are starting to recede. He says the water got high in so many areas, the county ran out of barricades.	12/29/2015
1467	Politics/Elections	Spot News	Duckworth Campaigns In Champaign, Talks Police Shootings, Flooding, Refugees. Congresswoman Tammy Duckworth played to her strengths at a campaign stop in Champaign Tuesday.	12/29/2015
1410	Community	Spot News	Many roads are still closed due to flooding this morning, as central Illinois dries out from days of heavy rain.	12/30/2015
1411	Sports	Spot News	Illinois' men's basketball team is on a five-game winning streak, part of a 9 and 5 non-conference record this season. This (Wednesday) afternoon, they play their first Big Ten team, when they host Michigan at the State Farm Center.	12/30/2015
1412	Community	Spot News	Many public libraries get an important share of their funding from private sources. That source is a library foundation. The two foundations serving the Urbana Free Library and Champaign Public Library have been busy with year-end campaigns, asking the public for donations.	12/30/2015
1427	Community	Spot News	Watseka Fire Chief Dave Mayotte says about 50 people have had to leave their homes and stay in a local church shelter due to flooding.	12/30/2015
1428	Business/Economy	Spot News	Douglas County has been declared a state disaster area. Patti Thompson of the Illinois Emergency Management Agency says counties are doing their initial assessment of damage, saying a number of thresholds need to be met to qualify for federal help.	12/31/2015		