- Accepted: Any non-Facebook domain directly associated with the candidate. their campaign, and/or the political organization/party they are a member of.
- o Not accepted: A domain that verifies they are a legitimate candidate will not be accepted if it is not directly associated with the candidate and their campaign.

Political Verification

Provide one of the following required forms of verification:*

• Federal Election Commission ID (FEC ID) - Recommended

• Employer Identification Number (EIN) 99-0899054

Note: Providing a FEC ID or EIN allows for a quick approval for launch. If neither are provided, the DSP will have to conduct a manual verification. This can take 5 days, or longer, and could delay the launch of the campaign.

Additional Guidelines

- General advocacy campaigns that do not mention any candidates do not require approval.
- If the candidate is representing Maryland, advertisers will be asked for brief descriptions of the audience and geographies that are being targeted.
- If the candidate is representing New York, advertisers will be asked to upload a copy of the independent expenditure committee's state registration certificate.
- If the candidate or ballot measure is representing Washington state, they will be prohibited from running ads.
 Federal races are still permitted to target Washington state with ads.
