

WUSM Quarterly issues and programs list

WUSM produces a daily public affairs program, Southern Miss Today, and the program's primary focus are local and regional civic issues.

Here are the program dates and issues for Q2 2018:

4.2.2018 - Joy Netzhamer & Cameron Shields Phi Mu, Milkshakes for Miracles, Blair Batson Children's Hospital fundraiser; Chris Baleski, USM School of Business professor, Marketing and Merchandising event; Whitney Miracle, creative director for Hub city Spokes, Best of the Pine Belt musical showcase

4.11.2018 - Sunshine Smith, Teen Run for Kids, St. Jude Children's Hospital fundraiser; Reanna Byrd, USM Mass Comm, WUSM golf tournament

4.17.2018 - Matthew Griffith, author, history of desegregation of libraries in the south; Ann Claire, Alpha Chi Omega, sexual assault awareness event/domestic abuse family shelter fundraiser; Zachary Newsome, Hattiesburg Historic Saenger Theatre, local support

4.24.2018 - Paul Strait, USM Speech and Debate team awards/showcase; Stacy Creel and Melanie Leuty, Community Resources for sexual assault

4.25.2018 - Amber Slaughter and Sharee Wilson, IDEAL Women organization, women's empowerment; Shanel Tippino, Hattiesburg Cultural Center, USM fashion and merchandising fashion show (fund raiser); Wilbur Martin, WUSM golf tournament/fundraiser

4.26.2018 - Reginald Virgil, Pine Belt Civic Coalition, aid and resources for impoverished people, high school voting initiative; Robin Aronson, USM theatre department, Mid-Summer Musical Theatre Camp; Hannah Jones, USM study abroad program, information and awareness