

WUSM Quarterly issues and programs list

WUSM produces a daily public affairs program, Southern Miss Today, and the program's primary focus are local and regional civic issues.

Here are the program dates and issues for Q1 2019:

2.13 - Nikki and Megan, Hubfest promo, local/community event

2.14 - Hattiesburg Zoo, Renaissance festival; Katie Chattam, Americorps; Vanessa Mauldin, African American Military Museum, "Loves and Hugs"

2.19 - Wilbur Martin, WUSM Lucinda Williams show at Saenger Theatre; Cassie Cox, American Heart Assoc., Heart Month information; John McFarland, American Red Cross, smoke alarm initiative; Brother Josh, local artist

2.26 - Jennifer Clark, Emerge Events, Local event planning conference; Hunter Chappel, local artist

3.4 - Rebecca Start Johnson, Hattiesburg Arts Council, Art In the Garden event – community event; Thomas Haynes, Eagle's Nest, student food pantry and assistance

3.25 - Equete Muhammad, Habitat for Humanity, volunteer recruiting and house project; Scarlett Holloway, author "Policy of Truth"; Rhonda Hayden, Pine Belt Foundation, Rise and Shine Marathon, fundraiser

3.28 - Abby Lenz-Allen and Allison Neville, Hattiesburglesque, community dance troupe and performance; Dr. Jonathan Arrington, The Elixir of Love, USM theatre production