

WUSM Quarterly issues and programs list

WUSM produces a daily public affairs program, Southern Miss Today, and the program's primary focus are local and regional civic issues.

Here are the program dates and issues for Q4 2017:

10.4 - Karen Sims, executive director Hope Clinic, free pregnancy testing, sexual health, and pregnancy education

10.11 - Patrick Speckman, Catholic Student's Assn., Amanda Brown, Eagle's Nest director (student food pantry); Kelsey Rosen, presidents, So MS Students for Human Rights

10.18 - Dr. Andrew Hailey, University Forum, Pedilla Peralta "Undocumented" author; Jeremy Compton, Ed. director at Hattiesburg Zoo, "Zoo Boo"; Ariel Elliott, Honor's College

11.15 - Liz Radley, Communications for du Bard School for Language Disorders