

WUSM Quarterly issues and programs list

WUSM produces a quarterly public affairs program, Southern Miss Today, and the program's primary focus are local and regional civic issues.

Here are the program dates and issues for Q3 2016:

9.5 - Jenna Robbins, Habitat for Humanity, fund raising and community awareness; John Maxwell, Forrest General Hospital, free diabetes screening and blood pressure screening; Lindsay McConnel, Hattiesburg Convention and Tourism, new exhibit at the Hattiesburg Zoo

9.12 - Dr. Lance Wooten, education and psychology, student drinking statistics and drinking safety; Sgt. Marks, MS Hwy Patrol, bridge closures in Hwy 59 and general driving safety; Lisa Foster, Hattiesburg Red Cross, fall blood drive and hurricane awareness and preparation

9.19 - Mary Sargeant, nursing program, student health and diet for incoming students; Robert St. John, Extra Table founder (community hunger organization), fall awareness and fundraiser; Martha Lee, The Fieldhouse (are homeless agency), "Safe space" initiative and resources for homeless people

9.25 - Sarah Odum, Southern Pines Animal Shelter (no kill shelter), cat adoption special event; Brad Newton, Live at Five (community music event), Fall schedule