

WUSM Quarterly issues and programs list

WUSM produces a quarterly public affairs program, Southern Miss Today, and the program's primary focus are local and regional civic issues.

Here are the program dates and issues for Q1 2016:

2.1 - MS Band of Choctaw Indians, educational outreach from the tribe; Center for Community and Civic and Engagement, with volunteer opportunities; The USM International programs and the USM study abroad program

2.15 - Shuntasia Coleman, African American Military Museum director, Poetry Event; Dr. Andrew Haley, USM Forum with Jerry Mitchell and civil rights "cold cases"; Rebecca Stark-Johnson with the Hattiesburg Arts Council, Alisha Burton Steele book presentation and storytelling and interviewing workshop, Brian Blair memorial celebration fundraiser

3.7 - Dr. Paul Linden, reverberations lecture series; Robbie DuBose, Miracles in the Making organization

3.21 - Erin Mileonis, Phi Mu president, promoting philanthropy event for Blair Batson Childrens Hospital; Abby Lenz-Allen and Allison Neville, community theatre outreach