| Issue  | Program     | Date        | Time                 | Duration   | Description of Program  |
|--------|-------------|-------------|----------------------|------------|---|
| Family | Closer Look | 5/7         | 7:00 pmSegment 2 | 30 minutes | Closer Look: Teens Aged Out of Foster Care Get Help From ‘Dream Makers’ Without family and often lacking life skills, former foster kids become homeless adults by the thousands, turning to drugs and crime on the streets just to survive. “Every statistic you hear that is going bad in the United States, a lot of them link back to the foster care system and those kids just not being taken care of.” Dream Makers steps in to link aged-out foster kids with practical assistance by connecting them with the generosity of strangers. “It totally up to the community to fulfill the dream.” The young adult with a need fills out an application to ask for things that teens with families could easily get from a mom or dad: like money for work clothes, or a laptop for school, or maybe a used car – but Melton says the most common dream request from these youth by far is – food. |
| Family | Closer Look | 4/25/28 | 7:00 pmSegment 2 | 30 minutes | Closer Look: Can Play: Iowa Mom Helps Kids with Special Needs Play Sports, Have Fun- Jack suffered six strokes when he was just 8 years old, which left his left him with cognitive delays, partial paralysis and ‘limited ability to play.’ Can Play gives kids like Jack “a place that they can come, be themselves, learn about their bodies and what their bodies can do.” Rafael Sierra reports.   |
| Family | Closer Look | 6/18        | 7:00 pmSegment 2 | 30 minutes | Closer Look: Faith of Her Father - Baby Jessica’s Dad- The unlikely rescue of Baby Jessica from a well back in 1987 remains one of the world’s most watched news stories of all time. There were “multiple miracles,” says her father Chip McClure, “more than you can count...God’s hand was evident.” In the days and months after, the family received thousands of calls and truckloads of mail from all over the world, people in personal distress who were encouraged by the McClure’s faith and the good news of Jessica’s rescue. K-LOVE’s Jack Church talks to Chip.  |
| Family | Closer Look | 6/25        | 7:00 pm              | 30 minutes | Closer Look: Young Girls Pregnant and Scared Turn to StandUpGirl.com Dawn-Marie Perez, executive director of Stand Up Girl.com says their site stands ready to help. “Our mission is to have these girls be able to find life-  |

Our goal is to have Stand Up Girl show up on that first page of their google search.”   |
| Family    | Local Closer Look | 4/24/305/286/25 | 7:30 pm              | 20 minutes | Foster Care/Adoption- Jack Church spoke with Laura Sheriff, Foster Parent Coordinator with Embrace Treatment Foster Care which serves the entire state of Virginia. At any given day over 5,000 children across the state of Virginia are in foster care. The state is in crisis level as the number of children needing a foster home is far greater than the number of families willing to become foster families. Embrace is there to help place children in foster homes while also supporting the families thru several programs to make the process smooth. From time of application to actual placement of children in a home is around 90 days provided. |
| Family    | Local Closer Look | 4/235/216/18        | 7:30 pm              | 20 minutes | Special Needs- Jack Church spoke with Kate Mardigan, Executive Director for Jacob's Chance in Richmond, Virginia. The mission of Jacob's Chance which is to help families with special needs children aged 5 up to adult age children in their 30s to 40 to focus on abilities and not disabilities. Thru Jacob's Chance special needs children and adults are offered a variety of programs to participate in from adventure sports like rock climbing to enrichment programs like photography and music. They serve around 500 people each year.   |

| Health | Closer Look | 4/23 | 7:00 pm              | 30 minutes | Closer Look: Kids Fooled by Fentanyl, Rx Fakes- Kids are getting pills that look like Xanax or Percocet online or in the locker room. Often laced with fentanyl, these deadly drugs can be 100x stronger than morphine. “It’s terrifying,” says Pat Aussem of the Partnership to End Addiction. Ed Ternan, co-founder of Song for Charlie lost his college-aged son to one pill and now helps other parents warn their children. “We still say ‘just say no’ but we spell it K. N. O. W. because many of these young victims are dying from taking a substance they didn’t ask for.’ Bob Dittman reports.   |
| Health | Closer Look | 5/7  | 7:00 pmSegment 1 | 30 minutes | Closer Look- Tackle Childhood Obesity at Home, Church, and School- Millions of American kids suffer words like chubby or chunky – or fat – to describe their young bodies. The COVID-19 lockdowns only worsened already alarming levels of childhood obesity, as the CDC found the BMI (body mass index) in children ages 2-19 years old increase nearly doubled during the pandemic. Excess weight weakens growing muscles and joints and can lead to juvenile diabetes or even trigger life-threatening asthma “Prevention is what we really want, right?” says Geri Henchy, Director of Nutrition Policy at the Food Research and Action Center (FRAC). “We want kids to be in environments that are not obesogenic; where they’re going to get healthy meals, where there isn’t a lot of junk food, where they have activities -- that’s really going to make a difference for kids.” |
| Health | Closer Look | 6/11 | 7:00 pm              | 30 minutes | Closer Look: Pastor Burnout, Caring for Your Leader’s SoulSurveys in 2021 found a sharp rise in the number of church leaders who have seriously considered leaving full-time ministry, citing debilitating stress, anxiety, or depression. K-LOVE's Rafael Sierra talks with Savannah Kimberlin of Barna Group and K-LOVE's Pastor Randy who says rest and other self-care should be a guilt-free part of your life as a spiritual leader. Devastating tornado outbreaks slammed several U.S. states. “Convoy is now working long-term to get people what they need -- appliances, furniture, roofs -- whatever it is.” The ministry sent aid and comfort when twin earthquakes in Turkey and Syria drove 2.6 million people into tents near the rubble of their homes. Convoy continues to care for war refugees in Ukraine and those who have fled to neighboring countries. Convoy is also committed to an ongoing effort to feed children in global famine. The Children's Feeding program provides meals in 33 countries for more than 500k+ hungry kids. |

"One of your best bets for surviving these incidents is thinking about it before it happens." Preparation is key says Mindi Russell, Executive Director of the Law Enforcement Chaplaincy of Sacramento. "Instead of, 'it will never happen here,' have the mindset that if something happens, this is what we'll do." Bob Dittman reports.  |
| Public Safety | Closer Look       | 4/30 | 7:00 pm | 30 minutes | Closer Look: Don't Click That Link! Be Cyber Smart- Spam on social media. Emails that shout, 'click here!' from an inbox full of tricks. Modern cybercriminals commit considerable time and talent to hacking your life." If you have a gut feeling, if you have an instinct that something isn't right here – please listen to that." Don't click! Monika Kelly talks with Gavina Avila of the Better Business Bureau and Darren Mott, retired FBI agent and expert on cybersecurity.  |
| Public Safety | Local Closer Look | 6/11 | 7:30 pm | 20 minutes | Animal Control- Jack Church spoke with Stacy Franklin, Executive Director for the Central Virginia Horse Rescue. The Rescue started in Central Virginia before relocating to Fredericksburg where it now serves the entire state. Rescues may occur from neglect, abuse or inability to provide for the horse. With rising prices and increasing inflation, some horse owners simply can't afford to keep the horses, so they are given over to the Rescue. At any one time the Rescue farm can house 30 to 34 horses with the goal being to have them adopted. |
