WLOR-AM Second Quarter 2014 Public Service Synopsis

April 17, Tasha Jones, from PeopleTec, one of Huntsville's fine technology companies, came in to promote the company's first annual Golf Tournament on April 29th. The tourney will provide benefits for the Semper Fi Community Task Force (SFCTF). SFCTF lends support to local wounded warriors and veterans from ALL branches of the military.

April 21st, Kelly Nielsen came in to talk about the April 22nd Celebrity Waiter Night at Jojo's Restaurant in Meridianville. The evening will include "celebrities" from local radio, television and politics waiting on tables with customer tips going to The American Cancer Society's Relay For Life.

April 24th, Dr. Harry Hobbs, Community Service Officer for HPD came in to promote the department's annual Family Field Day and Resource Fair on May 10th. The Resource Fair provides an opportunity for families to become aware of the area's youth activities such as day camps and educational programs. He also included some road closure announcements in preparation of the Panoply Arts Festival April 25-27.

The morning of April 25th, Lee Marshall from Kids To Love and Lonnie Gibbs from Star Market came in to promote attendance for the Star-B-Q Charity Classic on April 26th. The mission of the Kids to Love Foundation is to meet the needs of foster children while they wait for permanent homes. Since 2004, the Kids to Love Foundation has directly impacted the lives of more than 100,000 foster children.

On May 16th, Deputy Brent Patterson and Lt. Hood from our Madison County Sheriff's Office came in to educate citizens about the Fallen Officer Memorial in downtown Huntsville. They told where citizens could find it and exactly what it represents. They also encouraged participation in and/or donations for the Special Olympics and Police Memorial Torch Run, and the Flame Of Hope's arrival on 5/17 at 7am.
