WLOR-AM Public Service - Second Quarter, 2015

April 2:

Some brothers of the UAH chapter of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity came in to promote their annual "Battle of the Buffalo" fund raiser they had on April 11. The fraternity had a brother pass away from cancer. This event serves to raise money for the Russell Hill Cancer Institute in his memory. At the event, several local restaurants sold wings and festival-goers voted on the best.

April 18:

Officers from The Madison County Sheriff's Office came in to let listeners know about released a prescription drug take back day on April 18.

From 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. listeners can safely dispose of old drugs and medications at CVS Meridianville: 12275 Highway 231/431North, the Jaycee Community Building: 2180 Airport Road SW, Huntsville or Madison Police Department: 100 Hughes Road. They told the public that keeping old prescriptions in the house can be dangerous for kids and also can be a reason for break-ins by desperate addicts.

April 30:

Brent Patterson and Trey Black, both Madison County Deputies, came in to tell us about the Torch Run for Special Olympics on May 14. The Alabama Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics is a non-profit group made up of law enforcement officers on the federal, state and local level. The goal of the annual run is to raise awareness and funds for the Special Olympics. The public is invited to participate.

May 11:

Brian and Sharon Walker came in to talk about the Rose of Sharon Soup Kitchen and the issue of the many homeless people in North Alabama. Her kitchen feeds 1500 meals per month. To raise funds, they will hold the Half Baked Comedy Show and Bake Sale on May 13. The event will feature a comedian who formerly benefited from the Soup Kitchen when he was homeless.

June 15:

Representatives from Burritt On The Mountain came in to talk about their event "The Time Travel Adventure. Burritt is a non-profit museum on Monte Sano. The ladies invited listeners to journey back to the 1800s on an exciting scavenger hunt as you become an apprentice time traveler. Successfully complete the hunt as you visit each decade of the century. On your journey play with toys and games of the time, find your way through the Underground Railroad maze, race handcrafted boats and rafts down the kid sized Alabama River, build miniature cabins and villages, explore the steam engine playground, and much, much more. Along the way, learn facts about the United States, Alabama, Huntsville and the surrounding area. Find out what life was like for the families that actually lived in our Historic Park houses.
