BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Bill Baker, Kiawah Island

Bill Baker is Chairman and founder of The Baker Companies, a residential and commercial real estate development corporation. Since its founding in 1966, the companies have grown into one of the largest real estate development companies throughout the East Coast. Bill is a member of the Board of Trustees of Georgetown University Medical School where he has been a leader in the school's expansion. He is also a member of the Board of the MUSC Foundation.

Reese Boyd, Murrells Inlet

Reese Boyd III is a native of Conway and has practiced law in Horry County for twelve years. Boyd's legal practice focuses on commercial disputes and general civil litigation, probate, trust and estate litigation, business formations and consulting, as well as aviation law and consulting.

Before entering private practice, Boyd previously served as vice president and counsel to a large asset management and financial services firm in Boston, Massachusetts. Prior to that he served as counsel to former South Carolina Governor Carroll A. Campbell, Jr., both as Legal Counsel to the Governor in the S.C. Governor's Office, and during Campbell's tenure as Chairman of the American Council of Life Insurers in Washington, D.C.

Boyd earned a B.A. in Economics from Davidson College, and later received his law degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law, where he was selected as a member of the Moot Court Bar and received an American Jurisprudence award for Appellate Advocacy. Boyd is a member of the South Carolina Bar, and is admitted to the U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina, as well as the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Boyd was awarded the Order of the Palmetto for his work in state government by former South Carolina Governor Carroll A. Campbell, Jr.

Dennis Burt, Anderson

Dennis Burt founded Brandmark, Inc., a manufacturer of product ID labels and specialty packaging which he currently owns and manages. He attended Davidson College and is a graduate of Limestone College. Previous board service includes Haven of Rest Ministries and AnMed Health Ambassadors. Dennis currently serves on the Anderson University Board of Visitors and Anderson County Economic Development Advisory Board. He has been resident of Anderson, SC since 1971.

Dennis is a Charter Member of Christ Church, Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Anderson SC where he has served as a teacher and Ruling Elder for most of its 26 years. He is the father of two sons and three daughters.

T. Cory Ezzell, Greenville

A native of Spartanburg, Cory graduated magna cum laude from the University of South Carolina and summa cum laude from the University of South Carolina, School of Law. While in law school, Cory was a member of the editorial board of the South Carolina Law Review and was published in their annual Law Review Publication. Upon graduation, in 2006, Cory joined Gallivan, White & Boyd, PA, where he currently serves as the managing partner of his practice group.

Cory is a former president of the Young Lawyers Division of the Greenville Bar Association. He has been active in Rotary Club and served as a loaned executive for the Greenville United Way. He was selected by Greenville Magazine as one of the 35 best and brightest under 35, as well as workers' compensation lawyer of the year in Greenville. Cory is also a Best Lawyers in America recipient. He and his wife Robyn, who is an executive search consultant for the non-profit division with Find Great People, have two young sons, Mac and Henry.

Dr. Cleave Ham, Charleston

Dr. Ham is a radiologist at Roper St. Francis. He earned his B.A. and M.D. at the Vanderbilt University School of Medicine and completed his internship and residency at the Medical University of South Carolina. Dr. Ham is a Rotarian and has served as President of the Harleston Village Neighborhood Association.

Chad Walldorf, Sullivan's Island

Chad is a native of Chattanooga, Tennessee and graduated from the University of Virginia with a major in American Government. He served in the Reagan White House's Office of Political Affairs and for two years as Deputy Chief of Staff to Governor Mark Sanford where, amongst other things, he oversaw the implementation of the state's first activity-based budgets. He chaired the 2007 Government Efficiency and Accountability Review (GEAR) Commission which resulted in detailed recommendations for the Budget and Control Board with half a billion dollars in estimated savings.

Shortly after college, Chad and two high school friends opened the first Sticky Fingers Restaurant in Mount Pleasant, S.C. in 1992. They eventually sold the company in 2006 after growing it to sixteen restaurants throughout the Southeast and a national line of barbecue sauces. Chad was named a 2004 Ernst and Young "Entrepreneur of the Year" for the Carolinas.

Chad has been involved in a number of other businesses and organizations as an investor, advisor, and board member including founder and past Chairman of the S.C. Club for Growth, Wings for Kids, the SC Venture Capital Authority, and as Vice Chairman of Governor Nikki Haley's Transition Team. He was a member of the inaugural class of the Liberty Fellowship and served as Governor Nikki Haley's appointed Chair of the South Carolina Board of Economic Advisors from 2011-2017. Chad and his wife have three children.

Radio 60: "Cloud"

Male Announcer VO

A cloud of corruption in Columbia.

At the center of it - Attorney General Alan Wilson.

His friends and top political consultants indicted and convicted for criminal behavior.¹

Wilson colluded with his political consultants to stop an investigation of them.²

And he tried to fire the special prosecutor he picked to fight public corruption.³

The State Supreme Court stopped Alan Wilson's power grab.⁴

Now the investigation has reached his office-

Alan Wilson's top assistant has been called to testify in front of the state grand jury⁵

Who does Alan Wilson really work for?

He opposes term limits.⁶

He's taken $75,000 in illegal campaign contributions, and money from an opioid manufacturer.⁷

South Carolina needs an Attorney General with strong ethics who will fight for us, and not his political cronies.

Say NO to career politician Alan Wilson and corruption on June 12th.
