

WUEZ-FM, Carterville, IL Issues/Programs List
Filed 7/9/19, for the 2nd Quarter April - June 2019

---

Program: Week In Review Date/Time: 4/7/19 06:02AM
Length: 12 Min

Issue: Scott's Law

Issue: Joey Watson, Illinois State Police

Synopsis: The first few months were deadly one for Illinois State Police Troopers. Sixteen troopers were hit alongside Illinois roadways by motorists violating the move over law, also called Scott's Law. Illinois State Police Trooper outlines specifics of the law, its origins, and penalties for violation.

---

Program: Week In Review Date/Time: 4/7/19 06:30am
Length: 11 Min

Issue: Drug and Veterans Court

Issue: Brandon Zanotti, Williamson County State's Attorney

Synopsis: Substance abuse is an issue putting a strain on both law enforcement and the court system in Southern Illinois. Rethinking the "war on drugs" approach and results, new solutions are being sought. Williamson County's Drug and Veterans Court is one of them. It aims to threat the cause of substance abuse not punish the offender.

---

Program: Week In Review Date/Time: 4/14/19 06:45am
Length: 15 Min

Issue: Road Construction

Issue: Keith Roberts & Doug Helfrich, IL Department of Transportation

Synopsis: Spring and summer often means road construction and Southern Illinois is no exemption. With many Southern Illinois traveling long distances daily to work, road construction effects more, more often than in other parts of the state. IDOT engineers Keith Roberts and Doug Helfrich give listeners a preview of major project dates and go over tips to keep workers and drivers safe in construction zones.

---

Program: Week In Review

Date/Time: 4/28/19

06:01am

Length: 12 min

Issue: REAL ID

Issue: Jesse White, Illinois Secretary of State

Synopsis: Illinois is in the process of complying with federal REAL ID regulations. In the near future, A REAL ID will be needed for airline travel or to visit a secure federal facility. The new ID's are different from the ones Illinois are used to and with a change come some confusion. Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White explains the new ID, the reason for the change, and how to make the switch at a driver's services facility.

---

Program: Week In Review

Date/Time: 5/5/19

06:01am

Length: 15min

Issue: Southern Illinois University

Issue: John Dunn, SIU-C Interim Chancellor

Synopsis: In June, SIU Carbondale graduated the largest class on campus. Meaning enrollment will likely take hit for at least the next few semesters. SIU Carbondale Interim Chancellor John Dunn explains the school's strategy for recruitment and retention. Dunn also talks about dealing with the state of Illinois in relation to the budget, and efforts to spit the Carbondale and Edwardsville Campuses.

---

Program: Week In Review

Date/Time: 5/12/19

06:16am

Length: 10min

Issue: 116TH Illinois House District

Issue: Nathan Reitz, Illinois State Representative

Synopsis: Jerry Costello II was appointed by Governor JB Pritzker to head up law enforcement at the Illinois Department of Natural Resources. This led to Costello's seat in the General Assembly vacant. Nathan Reitz, a newcomer to state politics was appointed to the seat. In this interview shortly after that appointment, Reitz explains where he stands on some of the many issues facing the state.

---

Program: Week In Review

Date/Time: 6/16/19

06:01

Length: 11min

Issue: Flooding

Issue: Alicia Tate-Nadeau, Illinois Emergency Management Agency

Synopsis: 2019 will go down as a year of historic flooding in Illinois, with high water levels nearing those set in 1993. Levees being overtopped isn't the only issue, as I-EMA Director Alicia Tate-Nadeau explains in this interview, water against the earthen levees for months has led to saturation, and potential weakening of the structures.

---

Program: Week In Review

Date/Time: 6/23/19

06:40

Length: 18min

Issue: Flooding

Issue: John Sullivan, Illinois Department of Agriculture

Synopsis: 2019's flooding isn't only a danger to property owners in the path of floodwater, it's also a hardship on area farmers. John Sullivan, Director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture says his department is ready and willing to help farmers with financial assistance, but they must meet specific deadlines. Also covered in this interview, newly legalized industrial hemp and recreational marijuana, which Sullivan's department has jurisdiction over.

---