Re: Certificates of Compliance for the Children's Television Act of 1990

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 4th Quarter 2016. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, Turner Classic Movies, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

Kindest Regards,

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CERTIFICATION FORTH QUARTER
(October 1, 2016 Through December 30, 2016)

This is to certify that the list set forth below identifies all programs and series aired by Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. during the above-referenced calendar quarter that were originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under. As a standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs and series identified below so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC"), the "Regulations").

None of the following programs or series included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from or that offered products related to, the underlying program or series. Any instances in which the children's programming commercial limits were exceeded during the referenced calendar quarter are explained in detail below. I further certify that I have been designated by Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. as the official responsible for oversight of compliance with the FCC children's programming commercial limits and I am familiar with the regulations.

See attached LMS form 2100 of the forth quarter filing with the list of children's programs run during the calendar year.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 2nd day of January, 2017.

Sincerely,

Re: Certificates of Compliance for the Children's Television Act of 1990

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 4th Quarter 2016. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, Turner Classic Movies, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

Kindest Regards,

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, Turner Classic Movies, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

Re: Children's Television Act of 1990 and Closed Captioning
Quarter 4 (October 1, 2016 – December 31, 2016)

Dear Sir/Madam:

The Fox News Channel and the Fox Business Network (collectively, “Fox News”), as a standard practice, do not format or air any children's programs and/or stories and therefore are in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission pertaining thereto.

Unless we notify you otherwise in writing, you may rely on this certification for Fox News being in compliance with the FCC's' closed captioning requirements that apply in future calendar quarters.

Very truly yours,

FOX NEWS NETWORK, LLC

This letter is intended to assist you in satisfying your obligations under the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "CTA") and the FCC regulations relating thereto in connection with your carriage of our video programming services (the "Discovery Networks").

The attached schedule lists the Discovery Networks that aired children's programs (as defined in the CTA) last quarter and identifies the children's programs aired on each such network. The schedule excludes all networks distributed by Discovery that did not air children's programs last quarter (Discovery Channel, TLC, Animal Planet, Investigation Discovery, Destination America, Science, American Heroes Channel (formerly Military Channel), Discovery En Español, Discovery Life Channel (formerly Discovery Fit and Health) and Velocity.

This is in compliance with the CTA and the rules and regulations of the FCC.

We trust that this enables you to satisfy your obligations under the CTA and its regulations in connection with your carriage of the Discovery Networks. Please forward this letter (or copies) to any other appropriate individual(s) in your organization. As always, we appreciate your support.

CARTOON NETWORK
CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel and Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (“Turner”), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period from October 1, 2016, to December 31, 2016:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children’s Television Act of 1990 (the “Act”) and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be telecast during children’s programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) Turner treated all of the programs telecast on Cartoon Network, a leading ad-supported cable television network, as “children’s programming” for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act except for its telecast in the “Adult Swim” block of programming created for an adult audience that airs late night seven days a week. On a weekly basis, therefore, approximately 98 hours of television programming were treated as “children’s programming” for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 3) Turner has, as a standard practice, formatted and telecast all of the programs carried on the Cartoon Network during the period noted above within the commercial limits set forth in the Act, to the extent applicable to the programming.
- 4) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there were no instances in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above.

Certified by me this 5th day of January, 2017.

This is to certify that the list set forth below identifies all programs and series aired by Azteca America during the above-referenced calendar quarter that were originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under. As a standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs and series identified below so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communication Commission (the "FCC"), (the "Regulations").

None of the following programs or series included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from, or that offered products related to, the underlying program or series. Any instances in which the children's programming commercial limits were exceeded during the referenced calendar quarter are explained in detail below. I further certify that I have been designated by Azteca America as the official responsible for oversight of compliance with the FCC children's programming commercial limits, and I am familiar with the Regulations.
