48 HOURS

12/03/22

48 HOURS: “The Betrayal of Linda Slaten” (10:19 - 11:18p) – a report on the murder of Linda Slaten, who was sexually assaulted and strangled, and how decades later, detectives and a DNA genealogist were able to catch her killer. On September 4th, 1981, 15-year-old Jeff and 12-year-old Tim Slaten were awakened by Lakeland, FL police and told that their mother had been murdered. Investigators collected a rape kit and lifted a palm print from the windowsill where the killer had entered. They questioned a slew of suspects, including her abusive ex-husband Frank Slaten and a boyfriend, but no one was charged. The case went cold. In 2019, nearly 40 years later, advances in DNA technology and a carefully stored rape kit revealed Linda’s killer: Joseph Clinton Mills, known as Coach Joe. Prior to and after Linda’s murder, Coach Joe would regularly drive Tim to and from football practice. He was a role model for Tim, who proudly hung up his football team photo in his room where Coach Joe stood right behind him. On December 12th, 2019, Joe Mills was arrested and claimed that his encounter with Linda was consensual. To avoid a trial and a possible death sentence, he pleaded guilty to all charges and was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole in February 2022. On-screen text graphic: The Slaten brothers often visit their mother’s grave. Jeff burns a candle next to a portrait of his mother every year on the anniversary of her death. Interviewed: Judy Butler, Linda Slaten’s younger sister; Jeff and Tim Slaten, Linda’s sons; Edgar Pickett, former sergeant and fingerprint expert, Lakeland Police Department, subjected to racism during his career; Brad Grice, former detective who worked on the case for 17 years, Lakeland Police Department; CeCe Moore, genetic genealogist; Tammy Hathcock, detective, Lakeland Police Department; and Russell Hurley, detective, Lakeland Police Department. 12/10/22

48 HOURS: “The Tree That Helped Solve a Murder” – a report on the murder of Mengqi Ji, who was reported missing by her husband, Joseph (“Joe”) Elledge, on October 10th, 2019. Elledge told Columbia, MO police that on October 8th, he had gone to sleep with Ji, but when he woke up the next morning she was gone; he believed his wife may have left him and their 1-year-old daughter for a man she had an online relationship with. On October 25th, 2019, police executed a search warrant at their apartment and found a muddy pair of Elledge’s boots; he was arrested on suspicion of child abuse the same day police executed the search warrant. Charges of murder in the first degree were filed while Elledge was still in jail on abuse charges. In March 2021, Ji’s remains were found buried under a juniper tree; Elledge’s boots had several juniper tree needles stuck to the soles; DNA from those needles was linked to the tree directly above Ji’s shallow grave, providing prosecutors with the evidence they needed to convict Elledge of her murder in November 2021; he was sentenced to a term of 28 years. Mengqi Ji’s daughter now lives with Joe Elledge’s mother, but Ji’s parents in China are seeking shared custody of the now 4-year-old. On-screen text graphic: If you or someone you know is a victim of domestic abuse, call 1-800-799-SAFE or visit thehotline.org. A decision in the custody case is expected by the end of this month. Prosecutor Daniel Knight died unexpectedly on June 4, 2022. Interviewed: Dan Knight, then-Boone County prosecuting attorney; Scott Rosenblum, Joe’s defense attorney; Amy Salladay, Ji family’s attorney; Yao Li, assistant prosecutor, Boone County; Christine Edwards, plant population geneticist; and Alex Linan, Christine’s colleague. (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Judy Rybak, Emily Wichick)

12/17/22

48 HOURS: “Chasing Catherine Shelton: Part 1” (9:24 - 10:24p) - For nearly three decades, controversial Harris County, TX attorney Catherine Mehaffey Shelton, now disbarred, has been dogged by mysterious circumstances surrounding the deaths of various men in her life. Never charged with murder, she has been called a murderer, a stalker, a crazy lawyer and more. In 2003, Jenna Jackson produced an edition of 48 HOURS MYSTERY which mainly focused on one of the murder cases linked to Shelton; Jackson has been tracking Shelton ever since. Shelton’s life, as well as her proximity to dead or injured men, has perplexed investigators for decades. Starting in the 1970s, one of Shelton’s former boyfriends, Dr. George Tedesco, was bludgeoned to death and ex-boyfriend Ferris Bond’s apartment was allegedly set on fire. In January 1980, Shelton shot ex-boyfriend Gary Taylor in the back; she admitted to that but claimed self-defense. Tommy Bell, named with Shelton in a lawsuit was found with a bullet in his head; authorities said he was playing Russian roulette by himself. In the years to come, Shelton’s conviction for shooting Taylor was set aside, but she was linked to three more deaths: a young man discovered dead and naked in one of her homes; another man shot dead in his driveway; and another man who died while he was staying with her. Shelton maintains she had nothing to do with any of these incidents. For this broadcast, Jackson and her team reinvestigate many of the allegations against Shelton. (Part two of Shelton’s story will be broadcast 05/07/22.) Original on-screen text graphic: To be continued next week. On-screen text graphic for the 12/17/22 rebroadcast: Coming up next: Chasing Catherine Shelton: Part 2. Interviewed: Brian Benken, private investigator, defense attorney, member of Jackson’s investigative team and a 48 HOURS consultant; Lisa Andrews, former prosecutor, member of Jackson’s investigative team and a 48 HOURS consultant; Lloyd Oliver, attorney; and Robert Pelton, defense attorney. This broadcast also includes prior interviews with: Catherine Shelton (2003 & 2016); Gary Taylor (2003); Lloyd Oliver (2003); Ferris Bond (2003); Kent Ferguson, former FBI agent turned private investigator (2003); Marisa Hierro, wife of the man shot dead in his driveway (2003). 12/24/22

48 HOURS: “The Circleville Letters” - a report on the unsolved case of the Circleville letter writer who, beginning in March 1977, terrorized residents in the small town of Circleville, OH. The threatening and anonymous letters, mostly postmarked from Columbus, OH, were received by residents for nearly two decades and exposed alleged secrets about neighbors and friends. The letters first focused on married school district superintendent Gordon Massie and his rumored relationship with school bus driver Mary Gillispie. On February 7th, 1983, Gillispie saw an obscene sign about her 13-year-old daughter on a fence. When she went to remove it, Gillispie noticed it was tied to a string, which led to a box with a gun rigged to go off. The gun was traced to her brother-in-law, Paul Freshour. Freshour’s estranged wife Karen Sue, who did not respond to requests for an interview for this broadcast, told investigators he was also the Circleville letter writer. Never charged with sending any of the letters, Freshour went on trial on October 24th, 1983 for the booby-trap. Found guilty, Freshour was sent to prison, but the letters continued, even though he was kept in isolation and not allowed pen or paper. The Circleville letters stopped in 1994, when Freshour was released. Freshour maintained his innocence and fought to clear his name. He claimed his gun had been stolen and suspected his son Mark, who died by suicide in September 2002. Freshour died June 28th, 2012. On-screen text graphic: No one has ever been charged with writing the Circleville letters, but the Pickaway County Sheriff’s office says the case is closed. Interviewed: Martin Yant, journalist; Marie Mayhew, podcaster, “Whatever Remains”; sisters June Whitehead and Janet Cassady, grew up in Pickaway County, OH; Pam Stanton, family friend of Paul Freshour; Robin Yocum, author, former crime reporter, The Columbus Dispatch; Mary Ellen O’Toole, former FBI profiler; and Beverley East, forensic document expert. CBS NEWS SPECIAL

12/28/22

THE GIFT: #KindnessGoesViral (10:00 – 11:00p) – a CBS News special examining how a person’s act of kindness can create a ripple effect that causes real and positive change, often far beyond their own communities. Includes: (1) Katie Steller of Minneapolis, MN, hairstylist and founder of the Red Chair Project, which provides free haircuts and friendship to the homeless; (2) Brittany Berry of DeWitt, IA, on how the financial challenges she faced to adopt a child led to the creation of The Adopted Closet, which helps families that need assistance pay adoption fees; (3) the impact of Big Brothers Big Sisters of America, which began in 1904, including Steve Hartman’s experience as a big brother and a reunion with his former mentee; (4) 15-year-old Ruby Chitsey of Harrison, AR, whose work with nursing home residents led to the creation of a national foundation where young children fulfill the wishes of nursing home residents; (5) a visit to the Dixie Diner in Houston, MS, where a chance encounter in 1971 served as an inspiration for the original “Secret Santa”; (6) Curtis Jenkins, a former Dallas, TX-area school bus driver, on what inspires him to give his students attention they might not get at school or at home and his new career as a leader who motivates others to use kindness to help; and (7) the story of a crime reporter at the Mansfield News Journal in Ohio, who reported on a family that was taking their daughter, Lizzy Myers, to an observatory to see the stars before she lost her vision to a genetic disorder and how the public’s reaction led the family to create a foundation to help other children losing their sight. This broadcast also features the work of Peko Hosoi, an MIT professor who agreed to help search for a formula that can quantify what it takes for one act of kindness to spread and change the world. Also includes interviews with: Mary McFee, nursing home resident (4); Joe Miniscalco, executive director, Student Services (6); and Jose Gonzales, Laylah Gonzales’ father (7).
