

Quarterly Reports & Issues, 2nd quarter 2023

Public health, Immunizations,	Brian Williams with the Putnam County Health Dept appears on The Morning Show. Information included After school summer meal programs, getting kids ready with proper shots before next school year.	May 11 9:05 a 20 min
----------------------------------	--	----------------------------

Mental health, systems and programs	Karen Martoglio, Exec Dir of Mental Health America of Putnam County, details new regional partnership to enhance mental health care in Putnam and surrounding counties. Also, the impact of Senate Bill 1 passage in the Indiana legislature on the improvement of mental Care.	May 2 8:30 a 20 min
---	---	---------------------------

Community Needs Assessment, programs to aid public of Putnam Co.	Neysa Meyer, Executive Director at the Putnam County Community Foundation, details survey for Community Needs Assessment they are asking the public to respond to information includes what is contained in the survey, how public input not only aids the assessment but could further improve grant dollars for future programs.. Also, the public can win prizes by filling out the survey and it will be featured at Greencastle's First Friday next week in July when the Foundation helps sponsor the event on Friday, July 7	June 29 25 min 9:15 a
--	---	-----------------------------

Local government, Public input	CILTI President & CEO Cliff Chapman details the land acquisition and future of Fern Nature Preserve in Morning Show visit. The 600 acre forested land west of Greencastle will be forever protected under the new plan and now efforts will be made to also make it available to the public for outdoor activities.	June 16 7:40 a 20 min
-----------------------------------	---	-----------------------------

Public safety, Infrastructure Improvement	Greencastle Mayor Bill Dory details the Duke Energy plan that began in late April to convert more than 600 streetlights across the city of Greencastle to LEDs. LED's to offer better light, enhance safety, and save city operational And electric costs.	May 25 9am 30 min
---	---	-------------------------

Public safety, Weather, emergency	Emergency Management and Preparedness Director Mary Moran appear on the morning show to talk damage from the past weekend's Storms, safety such staying away from downed trees and power lines. Also, early details on FEMA plans to set up offices in neighboring Counties like Owen that sustained some of the worst tornado damage.	9am Apr 5 20 min
--------------------------------------	--	------------------------

Economy, Quality of life	Representative of Cunot Food Pantry on Morning Show to highlight upcoming fundraisers. Efforts underway to save a food pantry in danger of closing That feeds up to 500 people a month, 75 families per week.	June 20 8:20 am 10 min
-----------------------------	--	------------------------------
