

Quarterly Reports & Issues, 3rd quarter 2023

Ag bills, economy Congressman Jim Baird - The congressman and Bella discuss the current events in Washington DC as well as how this impacts current agricultural and farmland bills for Hoosiers.

Time: 7:30 am

Date: 09/29/23

Length: 20:00

College planning,
Financial aid Financial aid efforts for high school seniors planning college. Also, discussion about the latest FAFSA for changes With Terry Keenan of Ivy Tech.

Time: 8:10 am

Date: 09/22/23

Length: 20:00

Fundraising,
Volunteer fire department,
Public safety

Terry Wood for Fillmore Community Volunteer Fire Department's Annual Chicken BBQ Terry Wood appears on the morning show to converse about the upcoming Chicken BBQ Fundraiser for the Fillmore Volunteer Fire Department, including food options, times served, local parade, and entertainment as well as discussing how proceeds benefit the fire department and allow them to continue to protect their community.

Time: 8:00 am

Date: 09/12/23

Length: 12:00

Public safety

September is National Emergency Weather Month. Russ Evans details prepping an emergency kit, weather safety plans for your home and family.

Offers suggestions to be ready for emergency from flashlights to having food for your animals should you have to deal with such an emergency.

Russ also talks similar details for October's Fire Safety Month.

Time: 9:00 am
Date: 08/29/23
Length: 15:00

4H week,
Benefits to kids thru
Ag and programming

Mark Evans for Purdue Extension - Mark Evans and Bella discuss National 4-H week and the 2023 theme “I Love 4H”, enrollment for the 2024-2025 season, and the search for 4H Leaders.

Time: 8:30 am
Date: 09/23/2023
Length: 12 min

Health

Karen Martoglio for MHA of Putnam County discusses different ways to ensure the community is still getting outside and soaking up vitamin D as the weather changes. In addition, they discuss the usefulness of social media when communicating and connecting with friends and family.

Time: 8:00 am
Date: 07/28/23
Length: 10 min

Education, improving workforce

Tona Gardner and Jon Skomp for South Putnam Community Schools discuss their positions within the South Putnam Community School district, the beginning of the school, homecoming, as well as expanded AP programs and Work-Study opportunities for students that wish to directly enter the workforce.

Time: 8:30 am
Date: 89/23/23
Length: 15 min

Local economy, 4H,
Agriculture

Live coverage from the Putnam County Fair. Interviews with those impacting the local event that features agriculture, business and social Activities throughout the weeklong run at the fair.

Time: 5 – 9 p.m.
Date: July 24 - 28

