

On July 23rd, 2014, WFBQ was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until August 1st, 2020. Our license will expire on August 1st, 2020. We must file an application for license renewal with the FCC by April 1st, 2020. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for inspection during regular business hours. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last 6 years.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by July 1st, 2020. Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at publicfiles.fcc.gov or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.
