Pastor Lori Porter, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Nancy Galambos, Pastor James Friedman, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser. How do we help our nation get back to being a Christian nation? Prayer is the key to any work of God. As we pray and bring America before God, I believe God will do great and mighty wonders in America. Will America ever become a Christian nation? I don't know but I don't think so. But we can pray and ask God to move in a mighty way in our nation.

CBN's operation blessing is helping people in Cottonwood, Alabama after a deadly tornado ripped through their tiny town. The operation blessing team delivered pallets of much needed relief goods in Home Depot buckets with cleaning supplies, water, and more. The delivery was made to Pastor Dwayne Watson of Mount Si Tabernacle Church in the neighboring town of Dothan. Reverend Watson and his family brought the supplies to Cottonwood, donned operation blessing volunteer shirts and drove the team around town looking for the people who needed help the most. Distributing the goods door to door and praying with people, operation blessing is grateful to work with its church partners. The relief ministry will be calling for volunteers to help in the area starting tomorrow.

Today is Ash Wednesday and it begins the 40-day season of Lent observed by Christians around the world in the runup to Easter. In Paris yesterday, the revelation of a resurrection of sorts. The new spire on the Cathedral of Notre Dame is on display for the first time. The 861 year old Cathedral is under reconstruction after being devastated by a fire 5 years ago. It's expected to take months to remove all the scaffolding before the cathedral reopens in December.

Pastor Lori Porter, Pastor David Hughes II, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Mark Galambos. Is every Christian called to evangelize? I believe we have a great commission from the Lord. We are told to make disciples of all nations. That is the commission of the saints, to go and tell those about Jesus Christ. Yes, I believe we are all commissioned to evangelize those that don't know Jesus.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Dr. Apostle Webster, Pastor Deante Lavender, Pastor Tim Schulte, Pastor Artie Kassimis. Do you think the church has an obligation to call a Christian summit with all pastors, prophets, and teachers to come together? I don't think they do, but it's probably not a bad idea. I believe the church's obligation is claim the gospel, make disciples who go on to make more disciples. So, I think the church should be focused on its intentional obligations, which is sharing the gospel.

Pastor Lori Porter, Pastor Tim Schulte, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Nancy Galambos. Is it wrong for pastors to call themselves a doctor if they haven't actually earned their doctorate degree? Without a doubt. It is wrong to claim a title for something for which you have not earned. There are people who have been given honorary doctorate degrees but you have to be careful about laying claims to that title. We must not think of ourselves higher than we are. Give ourselves a basic title. The title doesn't make the person, the person makes the title.

Is it best for those in Ministry to go to Seminary or obtain formal training? I personally think it is best to go to Seminary. Because you're learning more than just about God. You're learning about the business end, you're learning about different personalities. It's important that you educate yourself in anything you plan to lead people in.

When Sarah Huckabee Sanders was elected the Governor of Arkansas she quickly made education reform a key focus, including school choice. Now Arkansas is one of 14 states that lets students use state money to go to private schools. She titled her new education policy, which includes school vouchers, the learns act. Education in Arkansas is among the very worst in the country. Something drastic had to be done now.

CBN's operation blessing is giving underprivileged children in the Honduras access to education and spiritual growth. The rural community of Noeva Union has been blessed with a new school. The school is equipped with desks, learning materials, and two bathrooms. In San Antonio the ministry provided construction and educational materials to renovate an old school building. Operation blessing teams also conducted hygiene trainings and shared the gospel through CBN Superbook events through these outreaches. Operation blessing is making lasting impact on Latin American communities.

Why do people say they don't celebrate Easter or Christmas because they are pagan holidays? I prefer to call it resurrection Sunday. I believe we are called to celebrate the resurrection, but some people get hung up on those terms and what they mean. I think there is some error in understanding.

The Republican majority in Congress is about to get even smaller. Bill Johnson of Ohio is planning to leave earlier than expected. He'll be taking over the presidency of Youngstown State University. His departure will take yet another vote away from the GOP after former house Speaker Kevin McCarthy resigned. That means Republicans will only be able to lose two votes on any party line measure as Congress still has yet to deal with major spending bills in the weeks ahead.

Congressional leaders have announced an agreement on overall spending levels for the government's current fiscal year. A move that could help avoid a partial government shutdown later this month. The tentative deal does include some spending cuts although not nearly enough for many conservatives. The one-year agreement comes as America faces a long-term problem as the national debt just passed $34 trillion last week. That number is still growing at an alarming rate. The Congressional budget office projects the debt will hit $50 trillion by 2033 and just interest alone on the debt is surpassing spending on the US defense budget.

2024 Presidential race Republican candidate Nikki Haley says she's still running after losing to Donald Trump Saturday by 20 points in her home state of South Carolina. Rejecting calls to exit the race Haley held a rally Sunday evening in Michigan, which holds its primary on Tuesday. Haley says it's not the end of her campaign story. It was her fourth major state loss in a row and polls show she trails in Michigan by a wide margin. Trump has now swept all of the GOP's early season primaries. Haley says she'll keep going until at least the March 5th Super Tuesday primaries next week, when 15 states vote. Meanwhile Republican National Committee chairwoman Ron McDaniel announced he's stepping down after Super Tuesday. McDaniel has served in the position for seven years. Trump has already endorsed a new slate of leaders at the RNC.

Apostle Jimmie K. Rodgers, Dr. Anthony D. Shannon, Sr., Pastor Deante Lavender, Dr. Apostle Webster, Pastor Mark Galambos. I have prayed for healing but I have never received it. Why does God not answer my prayer? If it is in God's will that you will be healed, I will collaborate with you on that. The Bible tells us that our days are numbered. We don't get to choose that number or choose how we exit this space. I try to live my life the best way that I can. Trials and tribulations will hit us all. You are not the only one with unanswered prayers. Jesus did too. God knows our beginning and ending and God has a plan for you.

Dr. David Gray, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Joseph Colini, Pastor Paxton Price, Pastor David Hughes II. Is it wrong to have a loved one removed from life support? This is a difficult question to give a blanket answer. Whatever people decide to do, that's between them and their doctor and their lawyer. Maybe the person is afraid to live a life of suffering or live a life of artificial means, or be remembered in that way. If that's their wish, we have to respect that. If the family wishes to wait on God and hope for a miracle, I'd respect that too. I think there's a balance, but it's up to the individual. But I don't see anything in the scripture that says yay or nay.

Dr. David Gray, Pastor Joseph Colini, Pastor Payton Price, Pastor David Hughes II, Apostle Kimberly McClinton. Does God afflict people with sickness? No. If you look at the story of Job, when the devil afflicted Job with sickness, the devil's game was to get Job to blame God for what the devil did. It is the heart of God, the same as a good parent, to want to be a blessing to their children. You want to teach them to do the right thing, but not through sickness. He has more compassion than earthly parents.

Dr. David Gray, Pastor Payton Price, Pastor David Hughes II, Apostle Kimberly McClinton, Pastor Joseph Colini. Is it wrong to use pain medicine prescribed by a physician after a certain amount of time? No, it's not. But keep in mind, that pain medicine simply will dull the pain. It doesn't fix or change anything. If you need that pain to be stopped, spend time in the healing of God. By his stripes, you will find healing.

Pastor Tim Walker, Bishop Demetrius Davenport, Pastor Tyrone Edwards, Dr. Booker Person, Pastor Nancy Galambos. Would it be considered suicide in God's eye if I stop chemotherapy? I don't think that it would be considered suicide in God's eyes. But I do think that you need to do your due diligence and research chemo and what it does do your body. It kills the good cells but it also kills the bad cells. So, if you have the type of faith to know that God can heal you, then you need to pray to him and ask for direction in that. He does not want to see anyone perish. First be sure you are where you need to be in your salvation and ask him what you should do in with your chemotherapy.
