|-------|-------------------|------|--|
| 5:30p | February 10, 2019 | 2:30 | More and more Wisconsin residents are voicing frustrations with telemarketers. Telemarketing once again topped the state's list of consumer complaints. The Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection says the agency received 4,860 telemarketing complaints in 2018. That's a 17 percent increase from 2017. More than 2 of every 5 consumer complaints were about unknown numbers, unwanted sales or scams.  |
| 4:30a | February 11, 2019 | 0:45 | The snow won't stop, and it's creating big traffic problems around Wisconsin. A giant pileup on I-94 in Eau Claire County shut down the highway for hours. Forty vehicles were involved, including seven semis, and seven people were hurt in the crash. Another crash involved more than 20 cars on U.S. 51 north of Wausau. The Marathon County Sheriff's Office says nobody was seriously hurt, but drivers had to take a big detour to get around the mess.  |
| 4:30a | February 11, 2019 | 0:30 | New this morning, we're learning about a fifth snowmobile accident in Wisconsin in which someone was seriously hurt over the weekend. The D.N.R. says a rider is on life support after hitting a vehicle on a state highway in Iron County. We also reported on four other snowmobilers who were killed over the weekend.  |
| 4:30a | February 11, 2019 | 1:00 | A man accused of shooting and killing a Milwaukee police officer is charged with first-degree intentional homicide. Police say 26-year-old Jordan Fricke was wanted for illegally selling guns and drugs when Ofc. Matthew Rittner and his colleagues tried to serve a search warrant on him. A criminal complaint says Fricke told investigators he heard people banging on his door, saying they were police, but Fricke didn't believe them. When the officers broke through the door, four shots came from inside the house, and one of them hit Rittner in the chest. |
| 5:00a | February 11, 2019 | 0:30 | 40 cars and trucks crashed on I-94. There were no serious injuries reported.   |

|----|---------------|------|---|
| 5p | March 6, 2019 | 1:45 | A Pulaski man is facing charges for a five-hour crime spree, where he broke into vehicles and houses. We spoke to one woman, who found that man bleeding in her mother's home.  |
| 6p | March 6, 2019 | 2:00 | Pulaski Police say a man was arrested on suspicion of entering several homes and vehicles in the village overnight. The investigation started when police were called to a home in the 200 block of W. Pulaski St for a fight between a man and a woman. A man, now identified as 26-year-old Daniel Williams, ran off. The cold weather and terrain in the area made it difficult to track the man, police say. After several hours, officers received information on the man's location and K9 Justice helped track him.  |
| 6p | March 6, 2019 | 0:45 | The four young suspects in a Green Bay teenager's shooting death all returned to court on Wednesday, where prosecutors revealed details of the homicide investigation. Jared Williquette, Jarid Stevens, Gavin Rock and Colton Kehoe are all charged with being party to the crime of first-degree reckless homicide for the shooting of 18-year-old Federico Abarca; conspiracy to commit armed robbery; and obstructing an officer. Williquette and Rock are also charged with bail jumping for violating conditions of their bail from unrelated cases. Williquette's attorney told the judge they're standing mute on the charges. His next court appearance is a March 20 for a preliminary hearing. Kehoe and Stevens will have the remainder of their initial appearances on March 20. |
| 6p | March 6, 2019 | 1:45 | While there were some injuries as a result of the multi-vehicle crash on the Leo Frigo Bridge Tuesday, no one was seriously injured and some of that can be attributed to the concrete barriers along the bridge. The crash video released by Wisconsin's Department Of Transportation shows vehicles hitting the concrete barrier and then bouncing back into the traffic lanes.   |
| 6p | March 6, 2019 | 0:30 | A 10-year-old girl charged with killing a six-month-old baby has been found not competent to stand trial. A Chippewa County judge ruled Tuesday morning that the case proceedings will be suspended and the girl will be reevaluated 3, 6, and 9 months from now.   |

|-----|----------------|------|--|
| 4p  | March 27, 2019 | 1:45 | A 21-year-old Wisconsin man has pleaded guilty to kidnapping Jayme Closs and murdering the teen's parents. As part of a plea agreement announced in Barron County Court Wednesday, Jake Patterson agreed to plead guilty to two counts of 1st Degree Intentional Homicide and one count of Kidnapping. With the plea, Patterson gives up his right to a jury trial.  |
| 4p  | March 27, 2019 | 1:45 | A 35-year-old Appleton man has been arrested for the murders of a father and daughter in Manitowoc, police say. Manitowoc Police say Karl M. Hess is being held at the Manitowoc County Jail on two counts of 1st Degree Intentional Homicide for the murders of Richard Miller, 51, and Jocelyn Miller, 19.   |
| 4p  | March 27, 2019 | 1:00 | Prosecutors offered little explanation when dropping charges against "Empire" actor Jussie Smollett in a decision that infuriated Chicago's mayor and police chief. The move also raised more questions. Because despite dropping 16 felony counts related to making a false police report, prosecutors insist Smollett faked a racist, anti-gay attack on himself. Smollett's attorney said Wednesday that the men who attacked him are lying about Smollett's involvement. |
| 4p  | March 27, 2019 | 0:45 | The acting head of the Federal Aviation Administration says the agency originally retained oversight of the MCAS system in the Boeing 737 Max but eventually turned it over to the airplane's developer. Daniel Elwell added that pilots who tested the new generation of 737 planes agreed that additional flight training wasn't needed.   |
| 5p  | March 27, 2019 | 2:00 | Jake Patterson, the man charged of kidnaping Jayme Closs and killing her parents, pleads guilty to those crimes, avoiding a trial. Sentencing is scheduled for May.  |
| 5p  | March 27, 2019 | 1:45 | An Appleton man is arrested for the deaths of a Manitowoc father and daughter. Police say the key to the arrest was video showing a man leaving the area the night of the shootings.   |
| 10p | March 27, 2019 | 0:30 | A fire destroyed a barn behind Schartner's Farm Market near Carlsville in Door County Wednesday. The store was saved, but a lot of the business's product was lost. The Door County Sheriff's Office says firefighters were called for a structure fire on Highway 42 in Nasewaupee at 6:15 p.m.   |

| 5p    | March 19, 2019 | 1:45 | The City of De Pere is already working on plans to repurpose the Shopko building. That store is set to close in May. All stores will close by June 16.   |
| 4p    | March 20, 2019 | 1:45 | More people are taking a plane to a warm destination for spring break. Area airports are reporting an increase in travel.  |
| 6p    | March 20, 2019 | 1:30 | Spring officially begins this week and that's welcome news after a rough winter full of snow and cold. Many districts in our area have spring breaks this week and next. And families are filling up planes, heading to warmer destinations. Appleton International Airport is bustling more now, than any other time of the year. With the demand for air travel at an all-time high in Northeast Wisconsin, Allegiant, which usually flies twice a week to both Orlando and Arizona out of Outagamie County has added an additional five flights a week, three more to Florida and two extra to Arizona. |
| 6p    | March 20, 2019 | 1:45 | It's that time of year when March Madness takes the country by storm. A new American Gaming Association (AGA) study shows roughly 19 percent of Americans will bet on the annual NCAA basketball tournament less than a year after the Supreme Court gave states the green light to legalize sports betting. Fans and non-fans will come together for the bracket-busting tradition.   |
