Program/Segment	Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration
Community Spotlight on The Maxwell Family Foundation	Respect for elders. Care and love for neighbors. Listening to a friend when they need to talk. These are all pretty important, right? Learning them isn't always easy though. How about teaching them? That's what Nancy Martin's task is with The Maxwell Foundation Program, to change the world by teaching core values. How is she accomplishing this? Hear that today on Community Spotlight.	1/7/2024	8:30pm	11:14
Community Spotlight on The Stronger Together Movement	Culture sure has changed over the last few years hasn't it? Is it possible to re-unite our society? And if it was how would we? The Stronger Together Movement in Rutherford County, NC has been working on this idea for a few years now and are seeing progress! How are they doing it? Hear that today on Community Spotlight.	1/14/2024	8:30pm	12:03
Community Spotlight on Love Life Ministry	Love Life Ministry in Charlotte stands firm on those beliefs everyday - and they exist to support churches and Pregnancy Care Centers in their work. Here how they do this today on Community Spotlight.	1/21/2024	8:30pm	18:06

Community Spotlight on Edith's House	What if there was one thing someone addicted could lean on that proves effective in finding freedom? There is! It's Jesus! Narvis Hart and Ann Kellet have seen it first hand in their ministry at Edith's House in Greeneville, SC - hear how today on Community Spotlight!	2/4/24	8:30pm	9:19
Community Spotlight on Christian Learning Centers	Ever heard of released time for school kids? Many haven't. It's a great concept many school systems allow for. Where once a week a parent can sign off for their child to miss one class period and go off-site with a school approve organization for more learning. Lisa Head from Christian Learning Centers in Greenville, SC are using this opportunity to share the gospel! Hear how on today's Community Spotlight.	2/11/2024	8:30pm	11:11
Community Spotlight on Cleveland County Rescue Mission	How do we look past the outward appearance of someone and love them for who they are? Someone God created and loved. It's hard sometimes right?! The Cleveland County Rescue Mission is doing that every day. Meeting the physical needs of someone down and out to then meet their spiritual needs. Hear amazing stories and how you can help when you listen to today's Community Spotlight with Micheal Woods.	2/18/2024	8:30pm	12:40
