Sustainability	Live Green Tennessee	906	10/01/16	14:30	26:46	Live Green Tennessee is WCTE's locally produced, flagship sustainability show. The 900 season begins with a winery in Brush Creek, a daffodil farm in Knoxville, local honey in Martin and a sustainability fair in Crossville. In Maryville, producers discovered a mandolin maker, as well as the Dozen Bakery in Nashville and the Mark 4 Christmas Tree Farm in Cookeville. Other episodes featured Katharos Farm in Columbia, the Nashville Jam Company, and the Native Plant Rescue Squad from Knoxville, as well as many other subjects involving local people, local food and living green.

Education	Growing Education: Community Conversation	103	10/27/16	19:00	26:46	Co-sponsored by the Highlands Economic Partnership, this community conversation is part of American Graduate: Let's Make It Happen, a public media initiative supported by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting to help local communities across America address the dropout crisis. WCTE's goal is to bring together our area's educational and economic leaders, as well as community members, for a town hall meeting to incite meaningful discussion around these issues. Early Beginnings is the third documentary in WCTE's American Graduate series, Growing Education. This episode will focus on education from ages three through six, and how parents and caregivers make the biggest impact on a child's lifelong learning.
TN-Learn Mathline		3040	10/03/16	17:00	26:46	Mathline is a live call-in show during which host Ernie Roberts provides callers with answers to their math problems. Roberts answers relevant questions with a Common Core influence, helping facilitate a deeper understanding of learning mathematical concepts. Produced by East Tennessee PBS, Mathline is geared to students ages 4-12.
