Local History	Where Stories Live	102	10/05/2023	19:00	26:46	The first season of WCTE's newest locally produced series, Avery Hutchins, host and WCTE CEO, travels to Pleasant Hill to explore the story of a missionary doctor who changed the face of healthcare in rural Tennessee; the home of a turn-of-the-century industrialist in McMinnville; historic twin houses in downtown Smithville; the life and home of a 20th-century hermit in Overton County; the remembrances of Tennessee Tech at mid-century told by the son of the university president, who grew up on campus; and recollections of students who attended the region's only African-American public school before integration in Cookeville. To begin the second season Hutchins explores the importance of Native American culture in the modern Upper Cumberland; visits with a mechanical engineer who persevered through homelessness as a student; and local athlete who transitioned from sports to ballet.
