Sustainability	Live Green Tennessee	907	01/02/17	19:00	26:46	Live Green Tennessee is WCTE's locally produced, flagship sustainability show. The 900 season begins with a winery in Brush Creek, a daffodil farm in Knoxville, local honey in Martin and a sustainability fair in Crossville. In Maryville, producers discovered a mandolin maker, as well as the Dozen Bakery in Nashville and the Mark 4 Christmas Tree Farm in Cookeville. Other episodes featured Katharos Farm in Columbia, the Nashville Jam Company, and the Native Plant Rescue Squad from Knoxville, as well as many other subjects involving local people, local food and living green.

Education	Growing Education: Community Conversation	107	01/26/17	19:00	26:46	Co-sponsored by the Highlands Economic Partnership, this community conversation is part of American Graduate: Let's Make It Happen, a public media initiative supported by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting to help local communities across America address the dropout crisis. WCTE's goal is to bring together our area's educational and economic leaders, as well as community members, for a town hall meeting to incite meaningful discussion around these issues. Early Beginnings is the third documentary in WCTE's American Graduate series, Growing Education. This episode visits the challenges and opportunities for adults who have not earned their high school diploma, or adults who have their high school diploma but dropped out of college before earning their degree.
