

HUSKERADIO KRNP-FM

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST
ALL PROGRAMS APROX. 5 MIN

4th QUARTER
OCTOBER-DECEMBER 2017

ISSUES:
PUBLIC SAFETY
EDUCATION
GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS
LAW ENFORCEMENT
ENVIRONMENT
COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES
AGRICULTURE
HEALTH
INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

EDUCATION

- UNK Wanting To Offer In State Tuition to Students from Iowa and Kansas

The University of Nebraska Kearney is researching the advantages of offering in state tuition to students from Iowa and Kansas. The Associated Press reports that the University believes that the school would benefit heavily from offering in state tuition rates to our neighboring states.

Daily News Break; 11-17-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

- Sen. Fischer and Representative Smith Nominate a NP Couple for Angles of Adoption

US Senator Deb Fischer and Representative Adrian Smith have nominated Matt and Jerri Philips of North Platte as “Angels in Adoption for 2017. Matt and Jerri adopted seven siblings, Kris, Cassidy, Amanda, Denise, Dylan, Sterling and Shelby, in March 2017. The children range in age from 5 to 15. Matt and Jerri also have four adult biological children and two grandchildren.

Daily News Break; 10-7-17, 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P; :30

- Senator Fischer Denies there’s A Shift in the Republican Party

US Senator Fischer has denied there’s any political shift in The Republican Party. Nebraska Radio Network had a chance to talk to The Nebraska Native and although numerous reports have come out from politicians about a split in The Republican party since President’s Trump’s inauguration however Senator Fischer declines any shift among party members.

Daily News Break; 10-30-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

- Governor Ricketts Introduces The State’s 27th Agriculture Director

Governor Pete Ricketts introduced Steve Wellman as the new Director of the Nebraska Department of Agriculture. Steve operates a fourth-generation family farm near Syracuse, Nebraska and brings a broad experience from leadership roles in both state and local AG associations.

Daily News Break: 12-5-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

LAW ENFORCEMENT

- A Nebraska Prison Worker Has Been Arrested In a Drug Investigation

Nebraska prison officials say a prison employee has been arrested on suspicion of bringing drugs into the Nebraska State Penitentiary. A news release from the Nebraska Department of Correctional Services says the State Patrol arrested 33 year-old Jami Cutshall. She was being held in Lancaster Co. Jail on suspicion of unauthorized communications with a committed offender, unlawful acts by a corrections employee and sex abuse on an inmate or parolee.

Daily News Break; 10-8-17, 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P; :30

- Columbus Police Identify Man Found Dead Along Tracks

Authorities have identified a man who died after being struck by a train in Columbus. The Platte County Attorney's Office says a 27-year-old Scott Dirksen was killed by blunt force trauma to the head and body, apparently by being hit by a train. This body was found along Union Pacific Railroad tracks around noon Saturday. The Associated Press reports that Dirksen originally was from Minnesota but had been living in Columbus.

Daily News Break; 10-24-18, 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

- An Inmate Has Escaped From Adams County Jail

The Associated Press has reported an inmate escaped late yesterday evening from The Adams County Jail. The inmate is expected to be armed and dangerous if anyone has any contact with the inmate or any information on his whereabouts they are encouraged to contact the authorities immediately.

Daily News Break: 11-27-18; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

- State Police Are Asking For Help In Finding Two Missing People In Connection Of The Death Of A Nebraska Woman.

The Nebraska State Patrol has announced they are looking for two missing people who they believe to be connected to the death and disappearance of Nebraska native Sydney Loofe.

Daily News Break: 11-30-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

- A Lincoln County Fatality

The Lincoln County Sheriff's Deputies and various emergency personal were summoned to the area of the Maxwell Overpass on US Highway 30, approximately mile marker 190. It was reported a westbound vehicle had left the road near the top of the overpass and slid down the south side. Near the bottom of the overpass the vehicle rolled and struck a tree. The lone male occupant was trapped in the vehicle. When deputies arrived they found the male was deceased from injuries sustained in the accident.

Daily News Break: 12-21-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

ENVIRONMENT

- Radio Guest: Mona Anderson, Keep North Platte and Lincoln Co. Beautiful

Topic: Upcoming city clean up

10-19-17; 8:00A, 10 Minute interview.

AGRICULTURE

- Nebraska's Largest Solar Farm Is Up and Running

The largest solar farm in Nebraska has started operations. The Associated Press reports that the 53-acre solar farm in Kearney will generate 5.8 megawatts of renewable energy which is about 5 percent of the city's electrical demand. Other communities pursuing solar projects include Callaway, Gothenburg, Lincoln and South Sioux City. Nebraska Lt. Governor Mike Foley says there's 25 megawatts of solar power capacity planned or in progress statewide.

Daily News Break: 12-13-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

- SkyWest Airlines Is Coming To North Platte

The wait is officially over The North Platte Airport Authority has officially announced that SkyWest and United Airlines have reached an agreement with North Platte Regional Airport to provide daily jet service to Denver International Airport starting in early February.

Daily News Break; 11-8-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

- Baldwin Filters Closing Their Gothenburg Plant

Baldwin Filters has announced their plans to close their Gothenburg plant in 2018. The company has announced plans to move operations to Kearney and has offered jobs within the company to numerous Gothenburg employees along with severance packages as well.

Daily News Break; 11-10-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

- City of North Platte Awarded Grant for Downtown Revitalization

The City of North Platte has been awarded a large grant for their downtown revitalization process. The city is looking to update numerous areas of the downtown region the primary being removing the canopy's from the entire downtown district.

Daily News Break; 11-22-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30

- SkyWest Has Been Approved For Subsidized Service To Kearney

Federal Authorities have approved SkyWest Airlines as the subsidized service provider for the Kearney airport, but flights won't begin until fall. City Manager Mike Morgan announced the U.S. Transportation Department decision on Tuesday. He says the company will use 50-seat jets and operate under the United Express flag for Kearney travelers to and from Denver.

Daily News Break: 12-28-17; 6A, 7A, 8A, 12P, 5P :30