Organization: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Ventura

Guests: Danica

Our mission is to build and professionally support one-to-one mentoring relationships to ignite the power and promise of youth. We offer 1-to-1 youth mentoring programs between a Big and a Little (mentor and mentee), as well as peer and group programs across the county, including our Youth Leadership Council. Mentors to get to know a wonderful young person, make a difference, and have fun as you learn together. BBSVC is celebrating the 50th anniversary of our longest running signature event that has had a big impact on supporting over 1,000 of Ventura County's youth through its funding. Commitments a commitment of 12 months (or one year) from each participant. This helps develop a healthy, real bond over time. Full transparency – we hope that the mentorship becomes a lifelong journey.

During that time, matches meet twice monthly or once each week, about 3-5 hours at a time. This organization doing good in our community

Organization: VC Families with Ventura County Children and Family Services

Guests: Jaci Jonson & Stacy De-Witt

CSA has been helping court-dependent children for over 30 years, they partner with the County of Ventura Children & Family Services to provide extras for our kids like the ability to attend camp, help with computers, numbing medication for dental procedures & more. With the help of folks in Ventura County, CSA has been able to provide these additional supports to our families and children. Today I am here to announce that JSH and CSA have come together to carry on the legacy of CSA. JSH is another equally involved and caring non-profit organization that partners with the County of Ventura. They will ensure the important work of CSA will go long into the future, have many other programs to help strengthen families such as a food pantry, skills classes, mentoring classes. We even have a transportation program where we provide donated cars to families and aged out youth.
